

Nonsensical Partisanship
 From the Philadelphia Record.
 Secretary of Labor James J. Davis walks in the Valley of Dry Bones.
 He utters the absurd, threadbare "warning" that election of a Democratic Congress would bring upon the country "depression and hard times."
 He says the Democrats are "deliberately hindering" the President in his endeavor to restore business stability.
 Such statements are untrue and silly.
 The Democrats are nailing down responsibility for promulgation of myths about prosperity.
 Admitting the existence of a depression which neither Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Hoover nor Congress could have prevented, they accuse the Republican party of false pretense and ineffectiveness in dealing with the situation.
 The Davis utterance is to be heavily discounted as a political campaign speech; but what effect it has is exactly in line with the deceptive assurances for which Democrats hold the Republican Chief Executive partly responsible.

Booster Stores

Not for many years have retail prices been as low on desirable goods as they are right now in Altoona Booster Stores!
 In fact they are close to the prices prevailing 17 years ago before the World War upset things and made the radical change in conditions and placed such a handicap on business that it has not yet recovered from its effects.

Manufacturers have reduced their prices in order to stimulate business and Booster Merchants, having confidence in the quick return to normal conditions, have bought liberally of the underpriced merchandise and are now offering it at prices that mean decided savings for those who buy now!

Goods for Personal Needs
Goods for Home Needs

Looking Over the Governorship.
 From the Philadelphia Inquirer.
 It may well be that the vote cast in Philadelphia November 4 will settle the Governorship. It is becoming apparent that Mr. Pinchot can look for little support from the ward leaders and the members of the Republican City Committee. Mr. Pinchot's Republicanism is deplored by most of them. They will poll every possible vote for James J. Davis for United States Senator and for the Republican candidates for Congress, thereby standing by the Hoover Administration, but they are without sympathy for Pinchot.
 They are talking of 250,000 majority for John M. Hemphill, for whom they will ballot on the Liberal party ticket. That would seem to be a rather large order. The final day for registration brought the figures up to approximately 512,000. Should 450,000 citizens vote—and that is a liberal percentage—Pinchot would poll only about 100,000 if Hemphill were to be given his 250,000 majority. However, it is evident that Pinchot will have to come to the county line with a pretty large total to overcome the Hemphill figures here if the Republican leaders are anywhere near right in their calculations.
 The Governorship should be considered as a contest peculiar to itself and with no relation to national affairs, unless, as it has been charged on the political stump, the victory of Pinchot would lead him to seek the Presidential nomination, supported by the mid-Western clique dominated by Senator Norris, of Nebraska.
 Prohibition enters into the Governorship scramble, but not as a main issue. Mr. Pinchot claims an understanding between Hemphill and the Philadelphia Republican leaders by which the organization may have a voice in state control. Evidence to that effect is lacking. Indeed, such combination is vigorously denied. However, he is continuing to flay the politicians hereabouts. This is one of his choice issues. It is really an appeal to the interior counties against this city.
 Another choice issue is that of the Public Service Commission. He would abolish it and replace it with a Fair Rate Commission. There is no doubt that the Commission needs reorganization. It is in bad odor, for example, with street car and taxicab riders of Philadelphia. But a Governor can accomplish nothing in the way of appointments or removals without the consent of the State Senate, while any change of existing law would have to be enacted by the Legislature. Mr. Pinchot's attacks on public utilities may be misunderstood as to their scope, but he is visibly gaining the enmity of Philadelphia's business and financial circles, whatever he may be doing in the country.
 This enmity is growing serious to his cause. Added to the hostility of the Republican leaders, an opposition is gradually building up which may give him a great deal of trouble. To what height it may eventually go is for the coming weeks to determine.
 So it may well be, as already stated, that the vote cast in Philadelphia November 4 will settle the Governorship.

Vote for Keiser
 To the voters of the 34th Senatorial District comprising Clearfield and Centre Counties:—
 The Reed Act or New Tax Law that went into effect on January 1st, 1930 was one of the most obnoxious laws ever imposed on the taxpayers of our Commonwealth. Recently the Clearfield and Centre County Courts declared the law UNCONSTITUTIONAL.
 Senator Scott voted for the tax bill and recently in an open letter to the voters of the district he writes that I have already consulted the Legislature Reference Bureau, with reference, to the Constitutionality of the bill, and other phases of it, and have a tentative bill drafted, changing the interest rate from one per cent per month to one half of one per cent per month, or the legal rate with more time to pay.
 Taxpayers this law has been declared unconstitutional. Senator Scott according to the open letter and the folder that he and his associates have spread over the district still wants to introduce a bill penalizing the taxpayers who are unable to pay their taxes on account of sickness, unemployment or any other circumstances the legal rate of interest with more time to pay.
 Keiser was and is now for the repeal of the Reed Act in its entirety. Keiser is a Veteran of the World War. Served with the 79th Division—11 months in France for the preservation of the American Home. Lets all fight now for Keiser.
 Keiser has the endorsement of several labor organizations. He is the friend of the COMMON PEOPLE. KEISER is an INDEPENDENT candidate for the office of State Senator on the American Farmer Labor Ticket. No Matter what your party affiliations may be. Lay them aside this time and place an X in the little square opposite KEISER'S name.
