IN CENTRE COUNTY Items taken from the Watchman issue of (Editor's Note-The issue we are perusing now is the one immediately following the defeat of Hancock and English by Garfield and Ar-thur. My, but the Watchman took it hard! Just to show you that those days we quote a few lines from the Watchman's leading editorial. It runs as follows: "The result is a disgrace to the country and a shame and reproach to the voters of the land. The man who saved the State and the Union by breaking the back-bone of the Rebellion at Gettysburg has been beatrioting on election day. Everybody seemed to make special effort to remains were brought to Bellefonte, keep straight."

-Mr. and Mrs. Philo Ward have gone to Altoona to live. Mr. Ward is an excellent mechanic and just the kind of a man Bellefonte can't afford to lose. Mrs. Ward, or "Aunt Hannah," as she is affectionately called by many, is one of the best women in the world and we know that those in sickness or distress among us will miss her unfailing and voluntary ministrations.

-The death of Miss Ada Tonner, of Canton, Ohio, took place on Tuesday night last. She was a daughter of the late Rev. John Tonner, of Henry Harris, of Howard street, marry Mr. George Reynolds, Leadville, Colo., and at his insistence they were united just before she passed away.

-Our excellent friend Mr. Levi Straub, accompanied by his pretty little daughter, gave the Watchman sanctum a call yesterday morning. Mr. Straub is one of our best citizens and a Christian gentleman. Besides that, he is a Democrat of Democrats.

Yearick, Henry Beck, Aaron Williams and Nelson Lucas were out and at one time was the pastor on Judge shot the first deer he ever saw alive in the woods.

-H. D. Fenstermacher, who is now on the Ft. Wayne, Ind., Sentinel, was back here greeting friends a few days ago. "Fensty," as his friends call him, looks thin, all because Indiana water is Epsom salts

-Wheat is 95c. corn 50c. potatoes 30c. eggs 15c. bacon 10c. ham 15c. and butter 25c.
