Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess Tate, of Yeagertown, spent the latter end of the week with Centre county friends.

The Ladies Aid society realized $204 at their annual bazaar and chicken supper held in the I. O. O. F. hall.

A special program of services will be held in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday, at 2:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

John Lytle and wife and Mrs. Esther Neidigh motored down from Juniata and spent the latter-end of the week with friends.

Eugene Pearce and wife are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a young son, who has been named Clinton Richard.

Maurice Baum has returned to his home at State College, from a Philadelphia hospital, and is well along the road to perfect health.

Mr. and Mrs. Deemer T. Pearce and Thomas McMahon have returned from a visit with the E. M. Whitman family, at Ithaca, N. Y.

Several showers, on Monday, relieved the top soil thirst but had no effect on the mountain streams which are drying up, exposing hundreds of dead fish.

Fred Gearhart brought in a fine gobbler last week and had a family dinner on Sunday.

Frank Rudy, seventeen year old boy, also got a good sized gobbler.

Mrs. Carrie Wieland, captain of the Red Cross drive here, says responses aren't as liberal as in former years. No reports have been received from the country district.

Driving into the country, last Saturday, Mrs. John S. Dale, of State College, lost control of her car and crashed into a tree. She received several nasty cuts and bruises but nothing serious. Her car was considerably damaged.

The annual bazaar and supper of the Ladies Aid society of the Graysville Presbyterian church will be held on Friday evening, November 28th, 5.30 to 8.30 o'clock. Roast chicken and lots of good things to eat will be served. The ladies will also have a number of nice things for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rudy wish to express their thanks to all those who helped in the search for their son Henry, who became lost on Tussey mountain Tuesday night of last week. The young man wandered around all night but finally came across the West Penn power line and followed it out of the mountain, arriving home safe, but tired and hungry.

Lady Ferguson Rebekah lodge held a regular meeting on Monday evening with 85 members present. The treasurer's report showed $233 of a balance on hand. Quite a number of visitors from other lodges were present. Following the business meeting a banquet was served in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of nineteen members. The evening proved a most delightful one.
