

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Bible class, 9.30. Baptism, 2. League, 6.30. Holy Communion, with special Sacramental offering, 10.45 and 7.30, with evening preaching. Brotherhood, very full program, Friday, 16. church: Home Missionary meeting, parsonage. Sunday was a high day in school. Young people conducted the devotions. Strangers and visitors were welcomed. Attendance mounted to 326. At morning worship the illuminated cross, donated by the members of Mrs. M. R. Johnston's class, was unveiled by Elizabeth Kramer Markle. The presentation made in very apt address by Wilson I. Fleming, and for the congregation president J. K. Johnston, of the trustees, made a fitting reception speech. When the cross was unveiled and illuminated the entire audience, the largest at regular worship in pastor Jacobs' ministry, stood, remaining standing through the closing events of this impressive ceremony.

Pastor Jacobs reported several notable financial activities of great encouragement. The debt fund has been cut to $852, which will be lowered on Saturday. The remarkable Debt Paying Campaign for $200,000 on three year payments had received up to Saturday night, in 13 months from the close of the Conference drive, a total of $100,044.78. Special revival meetings will be opened Sunday, the 25th. Pastor Jacobs will be assisted by conference members at week night meetings. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, Minister.
