

WINGATE.

A number of telephone patrons in this section were changed, last week, from lines 931 and 933 to line 905.

Revival services are now being held in the Evangelical church, Rev. M. C. Piper assisting Rev. W. E. Yingling.

Misses Thelma and Mildred Halderman, of Bellefonte, were guests, last week, at the home of their sister, Mrs. Mack Murray and family.

L. E. Davidson has so far recovered from injuries sustained in a fall from a porch at the Mrs. Irwin home that he is able to be around.

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Mrs. Lydia Irwin, on Tuesday evening. Games were played, refreshments served and an enjoyable time had by all. Those present were Misses Lois and Hazel Shawley and their little brother Ray; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson and four children, Miss Berenice Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher, Donald Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barnhart and little daughter, Fred York, Mahlon Smith, Mrs. Mack Murray and little son Charles, Misses Thelma and Mildred Halderman, Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. Florence Lucas.

BRIEF MEETING OF BOROUGH COUNCIL.

Only six members were present at the regular meeting of borough council, on Monday evening, and it was an unusually short session.

Secretary Kelly read a communication from the Undine Fire company endorsing Charles Kellerman for chief fire marshal.

The secretary also reported that the burgess had approved the ordinance granting the West Penn Power company the right to erect a pole on "The Island."

The borough solicitor submitted to council written releases of the McDermott heirs for land taken in the opening of Burnside street, the leases to be executed upon the payment of $200 damages by the borough.

The Street committee reported cleaning creek and streets and continued work on the Howard street cesspool, which is now down to a depth of 40 feet without a sign of an opening in the rock.

The Water committee reported the hydraulic pump at the Gamble mill working satisfactorily and the collection of $1750 on water taxes, and $83.20 on garage rents. Meter bills for the past six months amounted to $4694.27.

The Finance committee reported a balance of $3746.96 in the water fund and $1466.06 in the borough fund. The committee also reported $1021.52 received from the State Treasurer for the firemen's relief fund. Renewal of one note for $1000 was authorized.

The Fire and Police committee reported two candidates for the position of chief fire marshal, John J. Bower and Charles Kellerman. On motion Mr. Bower was elected. The committee also reported the selection of the following men by the fire companies as drivers of the pumps, all of which were approved by council:

Logans—Arthur Boob, G. Mac Gamble, Robert T. Garman, Miles Steele, Earl Custer, Hoy W. Royer. Undines, Mack truck—Albert Knisely, Basil Doll, Charles Saxion, Ralph Moerschbacher, George Carpeneto. White truck—John Bottorff, Edward Gillen, Ralph Haag, Paul Haag, Frank R. Smith.

Water bills totaling $207.58 and borough bills $487.53 were approved for payment after which council adjourned.

HEAR IRENE BEWLEY IN MOUNTAINEER SKETCHES.

Miss Irene Bewley, known as the Ambassadors of the southern mountaineers, is to appear in Bellefonte on Thursday evening, January 29th, in the Presbyterian chapel, at 8:15 o'clock.

"Do not let this opportunity slip by. Even though you may have to give up some other engagement you will find it well worth your while to see and hear this woman of the Hills. She brings before her audience the mountaineer, who is just like other folks—just as good, just as bad—and just as progressive, and yet with the picturesque quality given him by his years of environment peculiarly his own.

Have you a ticket for the southern mountaineer sketches on "Tales of Tennessee Hills?" This will probably be your one and only chance to see and hear Irene Bewley. In many of the large centers of the United States and Europe she has repeatedly appeared, but this is the first opportunity that this State has had to get a block of her time. Let us show our appreciation by turning out an audience that will make her eager to come back.

It is rare that an artist who has been sponsored by nation-wide conventions is available for a community of this size, and it is with a very recent pride that the Woman's Club is bringing Miss Bewley in her southern mountain sketches to Bellefonte.

Churches, D. A. R., Missionary societies; schools—in fact any organization can share in the opportunity of hearing this mountain program, which many of the leading universities of the country consider of such great merit that they sponsor it annually, sometimes semi-annually.

Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Hurley, chairmen of the ticket committee, will gladly distribute tickets, as will club members and Hoag's dairy store, for fifty cents each. Tickets secured at the chapel door will be fifty cents. Pupils of the schools can secure thirty-five cent tickets at the chapel door only.

"THE MAN WHO CAME BACK" AT RICHELIEU NEXT WEEK

America's popular sweetheart in the screen's gripping drama for the year, Janet Gaynor, the feminine half, and Charles Farrell, the masculine half, again appear together in "The Man Who Came Back."

Farrell interprets the part of a rich man's son ruined by wealth and Miss Gaynor plays a little cabaret singer who helps him fight his way back to society and decency. It is a very powerful story of regeneration portrayed by two of the very capable performers on the talking screen today. It is without question a gripping drama. Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell form an irresistible attraction at the Richelieu theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

All the sick in this section are now recovering.

Eugene Irwin and wife spent Sunday with relatives in town.

George Smith, of Altoona, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Clara Smith. Milt Wieland and family spent Sunday with friends at Franklinville.

J. L. Markle and daughter Maud spent Sunday at the J. A. Fortney home.

Warren Ward, of Lewistown, spent Sunday at his parental home at Baileyville.

C. M. Dale and family spent Sunday in Bellefonte with the W. R. Dale family.

Harry Reed and wife, of Huntingdon, spent Sunday at the D. G. Reed home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burns, of Huntingdon, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ewing.

Mrs. T. W. Wallace had as a guest, last week, her sister, Mrs. Carl Harpster, of Lewistown.

Harold Harmon and wife report the arrival of an eight pound girl baby at their home at Baileyville.

The Hubersburg High school will give a play in the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, February 7th.

J. A. Fortney and wife and Grover C. Corl attended the funeral of a relative, at Lewisburg, last Friday.

D. W. Meyers, who is spending the winter with his daughter, in Altoona, is housed up with an attack of the grip.

Mrs. M. C. Wieland gave a children's party, on Saturday, to celebrate her son Milton's 8th birthday anniversary.

The Ed S. Moore sale of household goods drew only a fair crowd and bidding was slow. The real estate was not sold.

Mrs. Harry Sager, of Windber, and Mrs. George Bell, of Spruce Creek, spent last week with their father, J. W. Sunday.

While splitting wood, a few days ago, L. E. Peters received a bad cut on his left hand when his axe glanced from the block he was holding.

C. M. Trostle and wife, Jacob D. Neidigh and wife and A. L. Albright and wife attended the farm products show, in Harrisburg, this week.

J. D. Neidigh, whose fox hound was shot during the hunting season, has purchased a Kentucky thoroughbred and is all set for the chase.

The Chautauqua held from Saturday until Tuesday, was well attended, and deservedly so, as all the numbers were high class and worth hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton N. Hartwick celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary, last Monday, with a turkey dinner, to which a number of friends were bidden.

The well drilled on the Luther Peters farm is down 140 feet, and has 36 feet of water. The Walter Harpster well is down 200 feet without a sign of water.

Matthew Goheen, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at the John B. Goheen home. The latter is 86 years old, in good health, and has read the Democratic Watchman all his life.

A farewell party was given at the W. C. Frank home, Thursday evening.

TOMORROW NIGHT AT THE RICHELIEU

Would a notorious criminal who, through a miracle of surgery, is given another man's honored place in society, including the faith of that man's wife, keep his secret identity if he loved the woman, or would he insist upon earning the right to her respect and love?

That is the perplexing problem which Edmund Lowe faces in "Scotland Yard", the intensely human Fox Movietone drama of double identity which comes to the Richelieu Saturday. Edmund Lowe portrays both a criminal and a gentleman in this dual role. Joan Bennett, who portrays the feminine lead, succeeds admirably in bringing conviction and pathos to a role that demanded these qualities when confronted with one of the most amazing dramatic problems ever screened.
