

—One-sixth of the summaries of the fish laws of Pennsylvania that have been sent out are in error as to the trout season. In some way they were made to read that the season will open July 1 and close Nov. 30. If one of them falls in to your hands don't be misled by it. The opening and closing dates are just the same as last year: April 15 and July 31.

Hugh Quigley guarantees a good time to all who go to the card party he and his Sunday school class are going to give in the parish house of the Episcopal church in this place, next Tuesday evening. We are not authorized to say so, but we surmise that Hugh and his class would be tickled pink if enough people would go to make a good, fat "rake-off" for their mite boxes.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Another case of scarlet fever is reported in the valley. Mrs. W. S. Glenn Jr. is visiting relatives at Dover, N. J. Mrs. Paul Wrigley has returned from a two week's visit with friends at New Bloomfield.

Editor A. J. Zimmerman, of the State College Times, spent the latter end of the week in Lewisburg. Contractors have started work on digging the foundation for Roy Henry's new house, on Main street. Most of the stuff at the J. H. Neidigh sale, on Saturday, brought high prices, and not a single note was offered in payment.
