WE'D LIKE NOTHING BETTER

Jacksonville, Fla. Feb. 17, '31
Editor Democratic Watchman:
Dear Sir:
Our folks enjoy your paper so much each week and we often wish you could move down here during the winter.

MRS. R. S. PILLSBURY

As we write this the sky is drab and sullen looking, automobiles are sloshing past the office window and sprays of dirty slush are squirting clear onto the side walks. We've always envied those who can afford to spend their winters in Florida so that it is no wonder that on a morning like this Mrs. Pillsbury's pleasant note brings us dangerously near breaking the Tenth Commandment—if you know which one that is—Ed.

NOTICE OF SATISFACTION.

In Satisfaction of mortgage on property of F. P. Barker, deceased situated in Haines Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, No. 374, February Term 1931.

Take notice that on the 21st day of February 1931, Harry C. Zeigler, Administrator of F. P. Barker, deceased, presented his petition to the Court averring that he is the owner of all that certain lot of ground, situate in Haines Township, Centre County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:—

BEGINNING at a spruce, thence by land of M. Evert, et al. 82 degrees East 29 degrees West 74 perches to a white oak; North 11 degrees East 32 perches to a white oak; North 40 degrees East 105 perches to a spruce; North 70 degrees East 96 perches to a spruce; South 20 degrees East 24 perches to a chestnut oak; thence North 70 degrees East 224 perches to a hemlock; South 89 degrees East 6 perches to a gum; North 62 degrees East 174 perches to a white pine; North 18 degrees West 74 perches to a pine; South 80 degrees West 150 perches to a pine; South 18 degrees East 32 perches to a chestnut oak; South 78 degrees West 622 perches to a post; thence South 77 degrees West 218 perches to a post and thence the land of Eisenhuth South 40 degrees East 160 perches to the place of beginning. CONTAINING seven hundred forty-six acres and fourteen perches and allowances.

That an unsatisfied mortgage upon the premises remains of record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Centre County given by Elijah Burd to William H. Harter, Administrator of George Fowler, late of Haines Township, deceased, dated the first day of December, 1881, and recorded in said office in Mortgage Book "R," page 603, etc., and that twenty-one years have elapsed since the principal of said mortgage has been due and payable and that no demand has been made on either principal or interest on said mortgage for satisfaction thereof.

Wherefore the said Court ordered that notice of said facts be served by the Sheriff of Centre County on William H. Harter, or the legal representatives, or the known holder or holders of said mortgage, if to be found in said County, and whose residence or residences are known, and if not then to have advertisement by public notice requiring them to appear in Court on the 30th day of March, 1931, to answer said petition and show cause why proper decree should not be granted and mortgage satisfied of record.
