The annual minstrel dance of the Bellefonte Academy will be held in the auditorium, at Hecla park, Friday evening, May 22nd, 9 to 2 o'clock.

We notice that out in Uniontown master and journeymen plumbers have voluntarily reduced their wages from $14 to $12 a day.

At a hearing in Clearfield, last week, Walter N. Todd, of Phillipsburg, was appointed permanent receiver of the Pittsburgh and Susquehanna Railroad company.

The offering at the Richelleu next Monday and Tuesday will be "Tarnished Lady."

The Centre county Sabbath School Association will hold its annual convention in the Lutheran church at Centre Hall on June 29 and 30.

We regret that want of space has crowded our estimate of the very unusual show given here, Monday evening, by the Kiwanis organization of Phillipsburg, Tyrone and Bellefonte.

M. A. Landsy, former landlord of the Brockerhoff house but who now is devoting all his time and energy to his own hotel, The Markland, on Spring street, has moved all his furniture and belongings from the Brockerhoff and stored them on the third floor of the Bush Arcade.

State police are endeavoring to run to earth a gang of blackmailers who, last week, attempted to extort $2000 from Mrs. Charles T. Alkens, of Selingsgrove, widow of a former president of Susquehanna University and at one time a resident of Pine Grove Mills, Centre county.

LANDLORD M. A. LANDSY DIES VERY SUDDENLY.

Stricken with paralysis, at 6.15 o'clock on Wednesday evening, landlord M. A. Landsy, of The Markland, passed away at 10.25 o'clock the same night without regaining consciousness.

He was a native of Posen, Germany, where he was born on January 1st, 1873, hence was 58 years, 4 months and 5 days old.

It was while traveling over the State soliciting orders for portraits that Mr. Landsy first came to Bellefonte about twenty-eight years ago.

On May 29th the series will be closed with a talk by Mr. F. F. Rockwell, author of the "Home Garden Handbook" series.

Other honor guests included L. G. Treadway, of Williamstown, Mass., managing director of the corporation that is operating the Nittany Lion.

When the next session of court is held in Centre county new rules will be put into effect in connection with the people in attendance.

NEW RULES PROMULGATED FOR COURT HOUSE CROWD.

The signs in the lower corridor read: "Jurors, litigants, witnesses and spectators use these stairways."

The purpose of the new rules is to keep the crowd out of the bar enclosure.

Now, if someone in authority would also see that a table is installed at a convenient place for newspaper men it would be an additional good feature.

EAGLEVILLE GIRL DIES FROM AUTO INJURIES

Struck by an auto as she darted across the road in front of the car Jean Wells, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wells, of Blanchard, was so badly injured on Monday morning, that she died while being brought to the Centre County hospital.
