

F. GRAY MEEK - Editor

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance - $1.50

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CENTRE COUNTY.

Items taken from the Watchman issue of June 10, 1881.

—There were twenty delegates at the "Temperance" convention held in the court house yesterday. It was called for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Associate Judge.

—According to an ordinance just passed by council and approved by John Powers, chief burgess, it is unlawful "for any non-resident person or persons to expose to sale any goods, wares or merchandise of whatsoever kind, either at public auction or outcry or at a fixed price or in any other way, temporarily, without first procuring a license from the chief burgess."

—Dr. Coolidge, of Scranton, spent a few days in town during the past week.

—June has been extremely wet and cold so far, but everything seems to be growing nicely.

—Beezer's distillery has closed for the present and operations will not be resumed until next fall.

—Robert Doak went to Snow Shoe on Monday to paint, grain and paper the offices of Berwind, White & Co., in that place.

—Port Matilda residents are going to try to grow sweet potatoes. Rev. L. W. Stahl has ordered a thousand plants for himself and neighbors.

—The Snow Shoe Coal Co.'s, big steam saw mill, now operated by P. B. Crider & Son, was totally destroyed by fire last Sunday morning.

—The school board of Snow Shoe township organized on Monday last by electing W. F. Holt, president; Abel Campbell, secretary, and Patrick Kelley, treasurer.

—Philip Teats, of Altoona, formerly of this place, and brother of Harry Teats, died on Wednesday last. His remains were brought to Unionville for interment yesterday.

—Rain, rain, rain; nothing but rain all week and only occasional streaks of sunshine.

—The Legislature has dissolved the old judicial district which comprised Clearfield, Centre and Clinton counties and hereafter Centre and Mifflin will form the district over which Judge Orvis will preside.

—Howard Spangler and Mike Cooney are down on the Bald Eagle on a fishing excursion. Before going they promised the writer a mess of fish, so we are praying that good luck will be their lot.

—Chas. Brown has his vegetable and fruit market in the old Linn building, corner of High and Spring streets, where Agnew's tobacco shop was recently located. The room in question is the same used by Dr. Linn as his study and there many a good old orthodox Presbyterian sermon was prepared.

—Miss Mame Tripple, daughter of W. S. Tripple Esq., of Spring street, is an accomplished pianist, and although quite young, has become a music teacher. She has quite a class under her instruction.

—Thomas Hull, of Aaronsburg, fell from the scaffold around the new Evangelical church there and injured himself severely.

—Geo. McGaffey, L. S. Lingle and W. P. Duncan, of Phillipsburg, were in Bellefonte on Monday to inspect our water works. Phillipsburg citizens have raised $30,000 and are going to have a modern water supply.

—The long talked of wedding between Mr. Theodore Gordon and Miss Esther Graham was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents last Thursday evening, after which the happy couple departed for a honeymoon at the seaside.

—Montgomery Brewer was found dead in the hay mow of the Lloyd house barn, in Phillipsburg, last Monday morning. He had been drinking and it is supposed he crawled up there to sleep it off, but never wakened up.

—At the crippled children's clinic at the Phillipsburg State hospital, last Thursday, thirty-seven children were given re-examinations, seven new cases were examined, three operations performed and six cast cases given treatment. Most of the cases were from Phillipsburg, Bellefonte and vicinities. Clearfield county cases will be given attention at the next clinic.

CAMPBELL.—Mrs. Edith Patton Campbell, wife of J. Milo Campbell, of Fairbrook, passed away at 11:30 o'clock on Wednesday night of last week following an illness of several months with a heart affection.

She was a daughter of John T. and Rose Rye Patton and was born in Altoona on June 15th, 1871, hence was 60 years and 5 days old. In October, 1899, she married Mr. Campbell and all her life since had been spent on the farm, at Fairbrook. She was a member of the Methodist church, the Grange and other organizations, and an active worker in church and community affairs. She had many friends throughout the western section of the county and her death is cause for universal regret in her home locality.

She is survived by her husband and four children, Mrs. Mildred Black, of Allentown; Charles Henry, Robert Paul and James Milo Campbell Jr., all at home. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Charles E. Patton, in China; Mrs. Helen Hutchinson, of Bloomsburg; Roy J. of Philadelphia; Lulu R., in China; Mrs. Gertrude Geist, of Juniata; and Miss Mary E. Patton, of Hollidaysburg.

Funeral services were held at her late home, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, by her pastor, Rev. Charles W. Rishel, burial being made in the Fairbrook cemetery.

DELANEY.—Miss Mary Anne Delaney passed away, quite suddenly, at her home in Milesburg, at six o'clock on Sunday evening. Along about the Holidays she suffered a stroke of paralysis but had recovered sufficiently to be up and around. Saturday evening she complained of not feeling very well and remained in bed on Sunday morning. At noontime, however, she ate her dinner but shortly after grew rapidly worse and sank gradually until she died.

She was a daughter of John and Caroline Delaney and was born at Curtin 77 years ago. The family moved to Milesburg in 1877, and for fifty-four years she had been a resident of that place. She was a member of the Catholic church and a splendid woman in every way. Her only survivors are one sister, Miss Nancy, with whom she lived, and three nephews, Fred, Harry and John Parks, all of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were held in St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, by Rev. W. E. Downes, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

PLETCHER.—Mrs. Susan Wyers Pletcher, wife of Charles Pletcher, died at her home in Howard township, on Monday last week, following a lingering illness with tuberculosis. She had spent some time at the Hamburg sanatorium, in the mountains of Berks county, but failing to respond to the treatment there, returned home and there, surrounded by members of her family and friends patiently awaited the inevitable end, which came peacefully on the morning of May 25th.

Her maiden name was Susan Wyers and she was born in Ohio 46 years ago. All her married life, however, had been spent in Bald Eagle valley. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and two sons, Miss Evelyn, Mrs. Norma Fetters, Melvin and Stewart Pletcher; also her mother, Mrs. Lydia Wyers and two sisters. She was a member of the P. O. of A., which organization had charge of the funeral services held in the Baptist church, at Milesburg, last Thursday afternoon, interment being made in the Schenck cemetery, at Howard.

IMMEL.—Mrs. Rosie Elizabeth Immel, wife of Paul R. Immel, of Bellefonte, passed away at the Centre County hospital, at 5:25 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, as the result of uraemic poisoning, following about eighteen hours' illness.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weader and was born at Farmer's Mills 25 years ago. She married Mr. Immel about five years ago and since then had been a resident of Bellefonte. She was a member of the Lutheran church at Centre Hall. In addition to her husband she is survived by a three year old son, Paul Jr., she also leaves her father, now living in Bellefonte, one brother and a sister, Joseph and Virginia Weader, both of Linden Hall.

Funeral services will be held at her late home, in Bush's Addition, at one o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, after which the remains will be taken to Farmer's Mills for burial in the cemetery at that place.

SHROYER.—William Shroyer, the well known track walker on the Pennsylvania railroad between Bellefonte and Milesburg, died quite suddenly at his home in Milesburg, at 6 o'clock on Monday evening, as the result of a heart attack.

He was a son of Emanuel and Mary Shroyer and was born in Milesburg 63 years ago. He had worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad company all his life.

He married Mrs. Catherine Emehizer who survives with one brother, Samuel Shroyer, in the South, and three step-sons, Charles, Alfred and Milton Emehizer, all of Milesburg. Mr. Shroyer was affiliated with the Methodist church and was a good citizen in every way.

HOY.—Miss Mary Wekerle Hoy passed away at her home on north Spring street, at 4:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. About fifteen years ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis and while she recovered to that extent that she was able to be up and around, she was always more or less of an invalid. The last week in April her condition became so serious that she was compelled to keep to her bed and she gradually grew weaker until she died.

She was a daughter of Judge Adam and Louise Harris Hoy and was born in Bellefonte on April 10th, 1869, hence was 62 years, 1 month and 23 days old. She was educated at the private school of Miss "Mallie" Petrikin and the Bellefonte Academy. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and the Woman's Missionary society and always took an active interest in the work of both until she was stricken by illness. Her death occurred just about two months following that of her sister, Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds.

Her only survivors are one sister and two brothers, Miss Anna H. Hoy, of Bellefonte; J. Harris, of Chicago, and Randolph H., of Crafton. The latter came to Bellefonte for the funeral which was held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon from her late home. Rev. W. C. Thompson officiated and burial was made in the Hoy lot in the Union cemetery.

FOHRINGER.—Mrs. Eliza Fohringer, widow of Robert Fohringer, of Romola, died at the Lock Haven hospital, on Wednesday morning of last week as the result of a broken hip sustained in a fall almost two months ago.

Her maiden name was Eliza Bower and she was born at Hublersburg on September 10th, 1846, hence was in her 85th year. When she was quite young her family moved to Romola and that had been her home ever since. She was a member of the Reformed church of that place. Her husband died some years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Annie Fike, of Mill Hall; Jerome Fohringer, of Johnsburg; Mrs. Emma Houser, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Bessie Bower, of Beech Creek; Robert, of Rochester, N. Y.; George, of Danville, and Albert, of Orlando, Fla. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, Daniel Bower, of Hublersburg; John, of Dunbar, Pa., and Mrs. Alice Simanau, of Charlevoix, Mich. Her survivors also include 29 grandchildren, 27 great grand-children and four great, great grand-children.

Funeral services were held at the Fike home, at Mill Hall, at 9 o'clock on Sunday morning, after which burial was made at Romola.

ERTLEY.—George A. Ertley, well known farmer of Jacksonville, died last Friday morning, following an illness of some months with a complication of ailments.

He was a son of Enos and Margaret Ertley and was born at Jacksonville on June 17th, 1856 hence was almost 75 years old. He followed blacksmithing for a long time and for a number of years had charge of the shop at Scotia when the ore mines there were in operation. When they closed he returned to Jacksonville. He married Miss Jacksonville. He married Miss Mary A. Kling who survives with the following children: Guyer G. Ertley, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Walter Daley, of Altoona; Paul C. and Deemer P., at home. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, William Ertley and Mrs. Harry Strunk, of State College, and Mrs. Albert Tate, of Cortland, Ohio.

He was a member of the Reformed church, of Jacksonville, where funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Harry Hartman, burial being made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

FULTZ.—Mrs. Annie Frances Fultz died at her home at Woodward, on Monday evening of last week following a fortnight's illness with complications resulting from an attack of grip.

She was a daughter of William and Mary Emerick Smith and was born at Farmers Mills on July 17th, 1881, making her age 49 years, 10 months and 8 days. She is survived by her husband, one brother and a sister, Albert H. Smith, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Edward J. Morrison, of Cedar Run.

She was a member of the Lutheran church and Rev. L. V. Leshner had charge of the funeral services which were held in the Evangelical church, at Woodward, last Thursday morning, burial being made in the Woodward cemetery.

MEYERS.—Mrs. Jennie Margaret Meyers, wife of John J. Meyers, died at her home, at State College, on Tuesday morning of last week, following a lingering illness. Her maiden name was Jennie Probst and she was born at Jersey Shore over sixty-three years ago. She is survived by her husband and three children, Earl E., Edna and Blanche, all of State College. She also leaves one brother, L. E. Probst, of Jersey Shore. Burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery last Thursday afternoon.

ACKER.—Abner H. Acker, of Boalsburg, died on Sunday, May 24th, as the result of an attack of

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM AT PENNA STATE COLLEGE

Because of the many changes in time of the various events of Commencement week at the Pennsylvania State College we publish the complete program as follows:

FRIDAY, JUNE 5 7:45 p. m.—Musical Club's Concert—Auditorium

9:30 p. m.—Fraternity Dances SATURDAY, JUNE 6—ALUMNI DAY 9:00 a. m.—Alumni Golf Tournament—College Course

11:00 a. m.—Election of Trustees; Delegates in Auditorium; Alumni in Old Main

12:00 noon—Alumni Luncheon—Armory 2:00 p. m.—Alumni Council Meeting—Little Theatre, Old Main

2:00 p. m.—Meeting of the Board of Trustees—Board Room—Old Main

2:30 p. m.—Baseball—Temple Univ. vs. Penn State—New Beaver Field

6:00 p. m.—"Reely and Truly" by the Penn State Thespians—Auditorium.

9:30 p. m.—Fraternity Dances SUNDAY, JUNE 7 9:30 a. m.—Alumni Breakfast—"The Nittany Lion"

4:00 p. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon, "Finding Ourselves" by Dr. George A. Butterick, Pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church, New York City—Auditorium

7:00 p. m.—Concert by the Blue Band and the Penn State Glee Club—Old Main Terrace

ALL DAY CLASS REUNIONS MONDAY, JUNE 8 9:00 a. m.—Senior Class Day Exercises—Auditorium

10:45 a. m.—School Receptions to Seniors and Parents

12:15 p. m.—Senate Luncheon to Trustees and Speakers of the Day

3:15 p. m.—Commencement Procession (Forms in front of College Library and marches to Recreation Hall led by College Band)

3:45 p. m.—Commencement Exercises. Address "The Communication of Ideas" by Dr. David A. Robertson, President of Goucher College, Baltimore, Maryland

7:15 p. m.—"Broken Dishes" by the Penn State Players—Auditorium.

10:00 p. m. to 10:45 p. m.—Commencement Reception for Faculty, Seniors, Juniors, Candidates for advanced Degrees and Guests—Recreation Hall

10:45 p. m. to 2:00 a. m.—Commencement Dance—Recreation Hall.

DR KILPATRICK TO TALK TO LADIES ON GARDENS

The June meeting of the Garden club will be held at the home of Mrs. George Beezer, on Curtin St. on Wednesday, June 10th, at 3 P. M. If members have any extra seedlings, they are asked to take them for distribution; as well as cut flowers for display and award of prizes. If possible these flowers should be at Mrs. Beezer's at one o'clock.

Garden problems presented in query form are in order for the Question Box.

At 4 P. M. Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick will give an informal talk on his own experiences in gardening. All interested in joining the club are invited to attend.

TWO WEDDINGS HELD IN THE COURT HOUSE.

On Wednesday afternoon Orrin Frink Jr., and Miss Aline Huke, both instructors at State College, came to Bellefonte, took out a marriage license, and going to the library had the wedding ceremony performed by Rev. W. C. Thompson. Misses Geraldine Bilger and Rowena Crawshaw were the official witnesses.

On Tuesday Harold A. Moyer and Miss Anne J. Stover, both of Waddie, were married in the vault, at the register's office, by justice of the peace Charles Slack, of Centre Hall.

Cooper—Furey.—A fashionable event in Pittsburg society was the wedding, on Monday, of Miss Virginia English Furey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morris Furey, of Philadelphia. The ceremony took place in the Shadyside Presbyterian church and was performed by Rev. Dr. Hugh Thomson Kerr. There were sixteen attendants, including the matron of honor, maid of honor, bridesmaids, best man and ushers.

A reception at the Longue Vue Country club followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will be at home at Alden Park manor, Germantown.

—The baby clinic, which has been held in Bellefonte every Friday, has been discontinued until further notice.

pleuro-pneumonia. He was a native of Haines township and was 75 years old. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ray Strickler, who made her home with him at Boalsburg. He also leaves one brother and a sister, Howard E. Acker, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Emma Beaver, of Williamsport. Burial was made at Boalsburg on Wednesday morning of last week.

AUTO ACCIDENT RESULTS IN DEATH OF WOMAN.

Mrs. Anna Donley Rees, wife of William P. Rees, of Indiana, Pa., died at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident the evening previous. She had not been in good health for a year or two and, on Monday evening, her daughter, Miss Margaret, took her and some friends on an automobile drive. In some way the young woman lost control of the car which crashed into a telephone pole at the side of the road. The car did not upset but Mrs. Rees was thrown violently against the front of the car and sustained injuries which resulted in her death. Miss Margaret was also injured, but so far as can be learned, not seriously.

Mrs. Rees was a daughter of William and Margaret Donley and was born in Phillipsburg about 45 years ago. From Phillipsburg the family moved to Patton and it was there she met and married William Rees, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wash Rees, of Bellefonte. Some twelve or more years ago they moved to Indiana, Pa., and that had been their home since. Mrs. Rees was quite well known in Bellefonte through her frequent visits at the Rees home here.

She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Margaret. She was a member of the Catholic church and funeral mass was held at Indiana, yesterday morning, after which the remains were brought to Bellefonte by auto hearse and buried in the Rees lot, in the Union cemetery, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

PHILIPSBURG MAN KILLED IN FALL FROM TRUCK.

Charles E. Squires, of North Phillipsburg, was fatally injured in a fall from a lumber truck, on Wednesday morning of last week, and died while being taken to the Phillipsburg State hospital. Squires, a carpenter by occupation, had been engaged in tearing down several houses at New Liberty. Paul McDowell, of Hawk Run, was hauling the lumber from New Liberty to Phillipsburg. Unknown to McDowell, Squires jumped on a load of lumber for a ride to Phillipsburg. He fell off and sustained a badly fractured skull.

Squires was almost fifty years old and unmarried. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Catherine Squires, four brothers and three sisters. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon burial being made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

BIGLER CHILD FATALLY INJURED BY LOCOMOTIVE

Ethel Louise Washburn, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Washburn, of Bigler, Clearfield county, while playing on the railroad tracks near her home was struck by the locomotive of a passenger train, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, thrown from the tracks and injured so badly that she died while being taken to a physician's office. The little girl's brother, Earl Washburn, attempted to rescue his sister as he saw the train round a curve. He pulled her from the track but his hold slipped. The engineer was unable to stop the train in the short distance he had after rounding the curve.

CLARENCE WOMAN INJURED BY PLANE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pachipko, a crippled woman of Clarence, was seriously injured, on Monday evening, by an airplane while it was making a landing on the government emergency field at Snow Shoe. She was struck on the back of the head by the lower wing of the plane, in which her 18-year-old son Philip was a passenger.

In making a landing Carrol McQueigh, of Philadelphia, instructor of aviation at State College, the pilot, was forced to allow his plane to taxi toward a crowd standing on the field. Mrs. Pachipko's infirmities prevented her from fleeing with the others.

The airplane belonged to Orvis Gillette, Snow Shoe, whom McQueigh was visiting.

It is said that the accident was unavoidable. The skillful piloting by McQueigh, in attempting to divert the course of the plane from the crowd, is reported by witnesses to have prevented the injury of other bystanders.

Mrs. Pachipko was rushed to the Phillipsburg State hospital in an automobile.

Attaches at the hospital report her condition as unfavorable. It is believed that she sustained a fractured skull, internal injuries and a punctured lung.

HOWARD.

Mrs. Willard McDowell spent Monday in Williamsport.

Dr. Kurtz spent several days, last week, in Philadelphia.

Dr. W. J. Kurtz recently purchased a Buick coupe.

Miss Martha Kerrin, of Moshannon, is visiting Mrs. Anne Kane Smith.

Mrs. Briggs Kingsley is a surgical patient in the Centre County hospital.

Miss Jennie Holter, of Williamsport, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mr. Chester Caseman, of Waterville, was a week-end guest of Miss Emma Fletcher.

Mrs. Annie K. Smith and guest, Miss Martha Kerrin, were Renovovisitors, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stutzman, of Williamsport, called on the latter's sister, Mrs. S. I. Reber.

Mrs. Nelle Watt, of Williamsport, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mary DeHaas.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holter, of Lewisburg, were guests at the home of P. C. and D. A. Holter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warg and son Thurlow, of Philadelphia, visited her mother, Mrs. Alice Smith.

Mrs. D. M. Waite and daughter Caroline, of Tyrone, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Confer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wagner, of Ephrata, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. Wagner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner.

Dr. and Mrs. William Hensyl and family, of Berwick, are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. W. J. Kurtz and Mrs. William Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pletcher, Misses Alma Pletcher and Myrtle Johnson spent several days in Erie, the guests of Mrs. Ellen Rumberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bennett and daughter Kathleen, of Mill Hall, spent several days with Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. A. M. Butler.

The senior class of the local high school left Wednesday morning, by bus for a tour of Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Gettysburg.

Prof. Lloyd Kemp, who has been assistant principal of the High school for the past two years, was recently elected principal for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden and children, Barbara and Doris, of Clearfield, called, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Ogden's aunt, Mrs. A. M. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson and Mr. Hubert Vonada, of Detroit, Mich., spent several days with Mrs. Hubert Vonada and children, at the home of Mrs. Vonada's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler.

Mrs. George Robb and Mrs. Clara Hicks, of Altoona, and Prof. and Mrs. Eugene Robb, of Bedford, called at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McDowell, on Saturday.

Miss Mary Weber, who taught in the schools of Somerset the past year, spent Wednesday at her home here, leaving Thursday morning for Peterboro, N. H., where she will teach in a summer camp during the month of June.

Mrs. Clara Hicks and Mrs. Cora Robb, of Altoona, Mrs. Isaac Cornwell and Miss Nellie Kline, of Williamsport; Mrs. Richard McNealley, of Atco, N. J., and Mrs. H. T. McDowell have recently had a memorial stone placed on the family plot, in the Methodist cemetery, for their brother, Eugene Kline, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident near his home in Nebraska.

—Another restaurant is to be opened in the Crider Exchange building, in the room formerly occupied by the Governor Cafe.

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH. 9:15, Sunday school, Wm. M. Osman, Supt. 10:30, Morning worship with sermon, "Fruit Bearing." 6:45, Christian Endeavor. 7:30, Evening worship with sermon, "Disturbing Dreams." A. Ward Campbell, Minister.

ST JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 11 a. m., Sunday, by the Rev. Edward M. Frear, of State College. Church school will be held at 9:45 a. m. No other services.

ADVENT CHURCH. Rev. Robert McCay and Rev. Waggoner, missionaries in India, will speak in the Advent church Sunday morning, at eleven o'clock, and in the Dix Run Baptist church in the evening at 7:30. Everybody invited and urged to share in the benefits of the services.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. R. R. Davison, Supt. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Morning subject, "The Believers Position in Christ." Evening subject, "The Inscription of the Scriptures." Brotherhood Monday at 7:30. Prayer and Bible study Wednesday evening at 7:30. Junior Endeavor Sat. at 3 o'clock. Special music by the choir at all preaching services. The Men's chorus will sing at the Sunday evening service. Rev. G. E. Householder, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. 9:30 A. M., Church school, Herman Hazel, superintendent. 10:45 A. M., Morning service; sermon: "Self and Others." 7:30 P. M., Vesper service; sermon: "Afraid of God?" Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor.