

PINE GROVE MILLS

Prof. J. B. Shaw is a surgical patient in the Centre County hospital. James Burk, of Howard, was a Sunday visitor at the W. R. Port home.

One of Fred Fry's guernsey cows resented him with twin calves, both eifers.

Dr. Fleming, of Boston, is visiting his brother, J. F. Fleming in the Hades.

Mrs. Basil Frank is suffering with an infected arm, the result of a wire uncture.

The Baileyville ball players defeated our nine, on Nixon field, last Friday, 6 to 4.

Mrs. W. L. Swartz spent last week as a guest of Harry Miller and family, in Philipsburg.

W. J. Dean has been discharged from the Centre County hospital and is convalescing at his home.

Rev. Harry N. Walker and son, Ralph and wife, of Bellwood, are visiting relatives in the valley.

Holy Communion will be administered in the Reformed church, here, Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock.

W. K. Goss and son Hugh, of Tyone, are making some repairs at the Waldo Cori home, at White Hall.

P. M. Cori, wife and sons, motor-d to Franklinville and spent Sunday with Wilbur McIlvain and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Krumrine are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son, Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gates are visiting relatives in the State of Indiana, where Mr. Gates formerly lived.

W. R. Port and Reed Randolph took a motor trip to Lock Haven, on Sunday, stopping at Hecla park on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Homan, who went to California a quarter of a century ago, are back for a visit among old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Homan, who are Presbyterian Sunday school at the county convention to be held at Centre Hall next Monday and Tuesday.

Prof. G. B. Snyder, of Pittsburgh, has been visiting Centre county friends, making his headquarters at the Robert M. Foster home, at State College.

S. A. Homan was in town, this week, trying to dispose of some of the surplus stock left on hand when the Farmer's Cooperative Association quit business.

Walter Woods and wife, of Philadelphia, were here for a brief visit at the Dr. Woods home. Miss Virginia Woods accompanied them back to the Quaker city for a visit.

H. A. Elder and J. E. McWilliams, for a number of years employed on the Centre Hills golf course, have been laid off and are now among six or seven million others looking for jobs.

While inspecting an old lumber pile, last Friday, Wilbur Heffner uncovered a mink's nest and captured six young ones. Six scalps at $2.00 a scalp means $12.00 extra for his day's work.

Owing to the rain storm the Odd Fellows parade was abandoned, Saturday evening, and the memorial exercises held in the hall. The program, as outlined last week, was carried out in detail.

C. H. Meyers and family took a motor trip through Buffalo Run valley, on Sunday, and were surprised to see many changes since Mr. Meyers left there forty years ago, and many of them are not for the best, either.

The State-aid road machinery has all been moved from this section and the indications are that the farmers here will continue to "stick in the mud" another year, regardless of the Governor's campaign promises.

W. H. Glenn and his force of men were ordered to Port Matilda on Monday.

Last Thursday night D. G. Reed's dog dug a hole at the base of an old tree and his continued barking attracted members of the family.

Going to the tree they found the dog had uncovered a small iron box, which, on being opened, was found to contain old coins to the par value of $14.00. Some of them were a hundred years old. Who hid the coins there is not known but members of the Behrer family were the original owners of the land.

Over one hundred and fifty members of the Homan clan gathered at the old homestead, now occupied by Frank Homan and family, last Saturday, for their annual reunion. It was a happy get-together as some were there who had not met in many years. The dinner, a most lavish picnic spread, was served on long tables on the lawn, and was one of the enjoyable features, as the women demonstrated the fact that they are still artists when it comes to preparing good things to eat. Mrs. Mary Brungart, 87 years old, was the oldest person there, while four generations were represented. In the afternoon brief talks were made by H. A. Grubb, B. F. Homan, Howard Homan and Rev. J. S. English. It was decided to hold next year's reunion at Grange park the third Saturday in June.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. H. F. McGirk, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with her sister, Miss Anna M. Dale.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner are visiting their son, Rev. J. H. Wagner and family, at Hudson Heights, N. J.

Mrs. Shuey and friend, Mrs. White, of Cleveland, Ohio, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner, on Friday.

The officers of Victor Grange attended a meeting of Washington Grange, at Pine Hall, on Tuesday evening.

Abner Alexander, of Centre Hall, was a caller at the home of his cousins, Misses Flora and Augusta Murray, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McCreedy and family, of Clearfield, were among the visitors at the home of Jennings Vallmont, on Sunday.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

John Richard Simpson, of Parnassus, and Helen Catherine Detwiler, of Bellefonte.

Alfred Fuller Cooke Jr., of State College, and Emily Halton, of Pittsburgh.

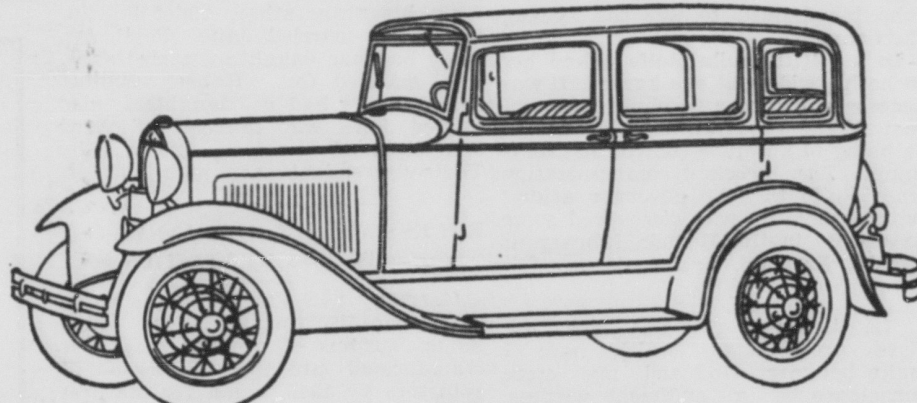

Lester Z. Garbrick and Edna R. Cunningham, both of Centre Hall.

Paul R. Lecrone, of Alexandria, and Harriet Marie McCole, of Huntingdon.

George Robert Sharpless, of London Grove, and Lorraine Eleanor Way, of Stormstown.

As long as the Athletics hold a lead of seventy the country will be safe.
