

Bellefonte, Pa., September 18, 1931.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Checks are being mailed out this week to all depositors of the Pennsylvania Banking company, which closed some weeks ago, whose deposits were fifty dollars or less.

"Bad Girl", which will be shown at the Richelieu next Monday and Tuesday is an especially good picture. While all the offerings for the week are good we pick "Bad Girl" to be the best of them.

The new hydraulic pump wheel at the Gamble mill has been losing so much speed lately that Supt. Selbert started an investigation of its cause. Yesterday he found it choked up with eels that it could scarcely go at all.

While on a visit with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Hannah Kellerman, on Monday, Francis Musser, who conducts the Quiggle Inn, near Avis, became violently ill and was taken to the Centre County hospital. While his condition is serious he has a chance of recovery.

Rally day in the Methodist church school will be held on Sunday, September 27th. It will be different this year, less in program but more of school, its departments and classes. The intermediate and junior leagues of the church have resumed weekly meetings, every Wednesday, at 6.30.

While on a trip to Lock Haven, recently, Lloyd Vonada, of Spring Mills, had a purse containing $30 stolen from his car. Later it developed that it had been stolen by four children of rather tender age. When caught they had spent all the money but $9.65, which was returned to Mr. Vonada.

"Dirigible" will be shown all next week at the State theatre. Here is really a wonderful picture. In fact some of the film magazines proclaim it the best one that has ever been made. It holds interest and thrills for all classes. We think any of our readers who have not already seen "Dirigible" would enjoy it very much.

Announcement was made last week by the Rev. and Mrs. John Ralph Woodcock, of Syracuse, New York, of the marriage of their daughter, Anne, to William Elmer Lawrence, the wedding having taken place at the manse, on the tenth of September, with only the immediate families and a few close friends present. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will live in Syracuse.

At a meeting of the directors of the Farmer's National bank, held in the banking rooms on Monday evening Harry M. Smith and Munser D. Gettig Esq., were elected directors of the institution to succeed Dr. S. S. McCormick and John P. Eckel, both deceased. Inasmuch as Dr. McCormick was also vice-president of the bank A. Frank Hockman was chosen to succeed him in that position.

A qualified engineer of the Underwriter's Association was in Bellefonte, on Monday, supervising the test of the new Buffalo pumper recently purchased for the Logan Fire company. The test was made from the point of land in the rear of the Beauty Motor company garage and to the casual bystander the pumper seemed able to do all that was claimed for it. It will probably be a week or more before an official report of the test will be received from the Underwriter's Association.

Last Thursday night the railroad station, at Milesburg, was broken into by somebody unknown who evidently was an amateur. Various things scattered on the floor near the safe indicated that the man had devoted most of his time to trying to open it but there was no evidence of any attempt to blow it open. Nothing of any value was taken. On Saturday morning a strange negro was arrested as a suspicious character and taken to the Centre county jail. There he gave his name as Julio Hermaiz, which is more Mexican than negro. While officers are skeptical as to his being the right man pending an investigation he is being held as a suspicious character.

Monday was cleaning up day at the Askins and Snoke peach orchards, up Bald Eagle valley. Of the crop of sixty-five hundred bushel all the choice fruit had been picked and disposed of and word was sent out that on Monday any one who wanted peaches could have them for 35 cents a bushel if they picked them themselves. Mr. Askins also sent word to the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. that he would give the Association two truck loads of peaches, free, for distribution to families in Bellefonte unable to purchase the fruit, if the Association would provide the trucks and pickers. Consequently two school boys as pickers, went up, Monday afternoon, but the orchards had been so overrun with pickers that they were able to get only one truck load of rather inferior fruit and it was not nearly enough to supply the demand when distribution was made at the Y. M. C. A. late Monday afternoon. It might also be added that the Askins orchards were cleaned out entirely of fruit by Monday evening.

Most of Wednesday was taken up in the trial of the case against John Denmark, a psychopathic inmate at Rockview penitentiary, for the killing of James Areri, a fellow inmate by crushing his skull with an iron bar. The principal question at issue was the man's sanity, and the jury, in its verdict, pronounced him insane.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS A GENERAL CLEANING UP.

The grand jury for the September term of court, which completed its deliberations and inspection of county property on Friday afternoon, submitted the following report to Judge M. Ward Fleming.

Of sixty-seven bills of indictment presented to the jury, fifty-eight were found to be true bills, and nine were not true bills. Concerning inspection of the jail and court house buildings, the report read:

"The jury room needs a ventilating system. The court house building is generally dirty, showing a lack of janitorial care, especially the toilets and lavatories in the men's and women's rooms, both of which are unsanitary. We find, also, the need for a screen in front of the men's room in the main corridor. In the jail the majority of the cots and mattresses are beyond use. Plumbing shows extreme deterioration. The building, generally, is in bad condition. The walk leading from the court house to the jail is badly broken. The sheriff's quarters have very dirty walls.

We recommend that a ventilating system be installed in the jury room. Sanitary towels should be provided in the men's and women's rooms. This body strongly recommends that general repairs in the jail and correction of all the conditions in the court house, referred to above, be made."

THE BELLEFONTE Y. M. C. A. SUPPLIES A GREAT NEED.

From September 1, 1930, to September 1, 1931, there were 53,891 persons at the various activities conducted by the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. That represents a mass over ten times as large as the entire population of Bellefonte and may be surprising to many who do not realize what a busy community center the Y has come to be.

All manner of recreative activities for the body, the mind and the soul are going on there every day and night. Especially is the Y. being the haven of the unemployed. Numbers of men and boys out of work seek the advantages it offers in the way of books and magazines with which to while away idle hours. And it is a splendid environment for them to be in.

However the depression that has brought about this demand for reading matter and other entertainment has affected the Y. by reducing its sources of revenue. It is having a hard time meeting increased needs with decreased funds.

Soon the drive for membership will start and if there is one institution in Bellefonte that is spending the money that is given it in a broad and constructive program for the general welfare of the community it is our Y. M. C. A.

Glenn H. Walizer and family moved, on Monday, from one of the Schad houses, on North Spring street, into the Wilson I. Fleming house, on the same street.

FIRST ACOLYTE FESTIVAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Seventeen parishes from four Dioceses were represented by more than one hundred and twenty boys and priests at the first Acolyte festival to be held in the Diocese of Harrisburg in Saint John's parish, Bellefonte, Friday and Saturday of last week. Following registration in the parish house the opening service was held in the church at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening.

The Rev. Dr. John Rathbone Oliver, of John's Hopkins University, preached the sermon. Father Brace and Father Maynard assisted in the service with Father Gast, the rector of Saint John's officiant. Charles M. Bullock, of Bellefonte, was master of ceremonies. Including the augmented choir, which sang the service, there were nearly one hundred and fifty in the solemn procession following the sermon.

After the service the boys and clergy enjoyed a swim in the pool at Hecla park.

On Saturday there was a low celebration with the rector as celebrant and Father Sayre, of Williamsport, assistant. Breakfast was served in the parish house, which was followed by a conference in the church conducted by Father Oliver.

The remainder of the morning was given over for recreation on the athletic field of the Bellefonte Academy, and the groups started for their home immediately after luncheon.

The priests in attendance were Fathers Brace, Saint Luke's church, Lebanon; Maynard, Grace church, Ridgway; Van Elden, Saint Matthew's church, Sunbury; McCoy, Trinity church, Williamsport; Sayre, Saint Mary's church, Williamsport; Hatch, Saint Luke's, Altoona; Cannon, All Saints church, Selinsgrove; Due, Our Saviour's church, DuBois; Gottschall, Christ church, DuBois; Davis, Saint Stephen's church, Mt. Carmel; Frear, Saint Andrew's church, State College; Gaat, Saint John's church, Bellefonte; Oliver, Mt. Calvary, Baltimore; and Banks, of Toledo, Ohio.

All of the above priests, except Father Banks, had acolytes with them, and in addition to these parishes there were boys in attendance from Saint Paul's, Philipsburg; Saint Paul's, Lock Haven, and Church of Our Saviour, Montoursville.

The guests were given hospitality overnight in the homes of the community, while Father Oliver was a week-end guest at the rectory, preaching at the eleven o'clock service Sunday morning. The rector wishes to take this opportunity to express his thanks to the friends in the community who were so generous in offering overnight hospitality to his guests. Also to Mr. Frank Hockman and Mr. James Hughes for making possible their periods of recreation.

THE LEWISBURG FAIR WILL START NEXT WEEK.

California Frank's Rodeo and Wild West, coming direct from Young's Million Dollar Pier at Atlantic City, will be one of the free attractions at the Union County Fair at Lewisburg Sept. 22nd to 25th, with performances afternoon and evening.

This is one of the best attractions ever shown in this part of Penna. It has just closed a summer's engagement at Atlantic City, and you know that the Million Dollar Pier does not show anything but the best. It will be a rare exhibition of horsemanship, rifle and pistol shooting and dare-devil stunts on the horse, giving a reproduction of early western life.

Mr. Frank will give $50.00 in cash to any person bringing a horse or mule to that fair which he cannot ride.

Fast racing will be staged Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, with liberal purses, and the free acts between heats.

The school children's parade at 11:00 a. m. Friday will be a real feature. The Association will give $100.00 in prizes, $50.00 first; $25.00 second; $15.00 third and $10.00 fourth prize, for the best four features in the parade.

The horticultural display promises to excel previous fairs, and the stock exhibit will be better than before.

Free parking space for automobiles, while the Mid-Way will provide entertainment for all ages. Why not pack up the family and friends in the auto, go to the fair, see the races, the free acts and have a good outing.

At Centre Hall, on Tuesday, Bellefonte again won the game 2 to 1. The fourth game was played on Hughes field, yesterday afternoon but the Watchman went to press too early to give the result.

Geo. W. Wolf, of Altoona, was in Bellefonte last Saturday and when we asked him what brought him out on such a swelteringly hot day such a funny look came on his face that we became suspicious of something. And the something turned out to be more than we imagined. He was down here with the then future Mrs. Wolf getting a marriage license. George is an old Bellefonte boy, now a high-up in the Altoona fire department, and since he has reached his fifty-third year and has saved a considerable competence he has decided to have a home of his very own. And we hope it will be a very, very happy one.
