He was educated in the Bellefonte public schools and as a young man went to work as a clerk in the clothing store of Montgomery & Co. Later he was placed in charge of the Montgomery store at State College and finally went into business for himself at the College. During the summer he had been in charge of the Quiggle Inn, a road house below Lock Haven. He was in Bellefonte on a visit, last week, when he became seriously ill. He was a member of the Lutheran church, the Bellefonte lodge of Elks and the Logan Fire company.

On August 18th, 1915, he married Miss Sarah Kellerman, of Bellefonte, who survives with one son, Richard Musser. He also leaves two brothers, Boyd A. Musser, of Altoona, and Lester, of Bellefonte. Roy Patton, of Moore, Pa.; Miss Lulu R. Patton, of Canton, China; Mrs. Gertrude Geist, of Juniata, and Miss Mary E. Patton, of Hollidaysburg.
