"LEST WE FORGET."

In 1917, when the flower of the young manhood of Centre county was marching away to fight battles that were just as much ours as theirs we patted them on the back, clasped hands and pledged everlasting gratitude to them.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CENTRE COUNTY

Items taken from the Watchman issue of October 21, 1881.

The Catholic fair closed on Tuesday evening last after a most successful season. It netted the local church about $1500.00.

Falling from a carriage while at the fair last week Miss Mary Yeager broke a small bone in her right forearm.

The fire in the ax manufactory of C. K. Essington at Milesburg, last week, was not as serious as at first reported.

There are some fast horses at the Philadelphia races this week from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Williamsport.

Mr. Calvin I. Lose, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. A. Emma Ness, of Martinsburg, were united in marriage by the Rev. R. Crittenden at his residence on Linn street, last Monday evening.

Simon Harper, of Centre Hall, is all smiles and the happiest man in Centre county.

The venerable Isaac Miller, one of our oldest citizens, being in his 80th year, died on Tuesday morning at his residence, beside the Methodist church.

Mr. Daniel Derr is around with a subscription paper to raise sufficient money to place a set of chimneys in the tower of the new Reformed church in this place.

Bauland & Newman, of the Bee Hive stores, have sold their business to the Goldsmith Bros., of New York, who will take possession with the beginning of next week.

The Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. is considering employing a general secretary who is to give all of his time to the work.

Valentine & Co., are closing out their stores in this place and many bargains are to be had.

The Hon. S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, has sued E. C. Humes, of this place, for libel.

Vote for J. M. Keichline for Justice of the Peace. He is the only nominee on the Republican and Democratic ballots.

Among scholarships awarded at the Pennsylvania State College during the week were the five McAllister memorials apportioned to the counties of the State in order of the ratio of students from each.

The Woman's club of Bellefonte will hold a card party at the Elks home Thursday evening, Oct. 20, at 8 o'clock.

That Centre county is a community of peaceable citizens is evident from the fact that, up to last Saturday, Sheriff H. E. Dunlap had issued only 180 permits to carry firearms.

We have always been an "Afaletic" rooster, but we are glad St. Louis won. It will do us good to realize that nothing is so good as that there is no danger of something better bobbing up.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. 9:30 A. M., Church school; Herman Hazel, superintendent.

St. Louis won the world's series because she had, in Hallahan and Grimes, two pitchers who are just as good as Grove and Earnshaw and she had something more!

A HODGE-PODGE OF NEWSY INCIDENTS.

Not a professional man of any kind has been drawn on the list of 144 men and women to serve as jurors at the November term of court.

From all reports the nut crop is unusually large this year—chestnuts, hickory nuts, walnuts and the ordinary run of street nuts.

And speaking of chestnuts, they are quite plentiful in Bellefonte markets now, if one is willing to pay the price, but they are not Pennsylvania grown.

Belleville barbers are all back to the old-time price of 25 cents for a hair cut and 15 cents a shave.

The fox, the mink, weasel, muskrat and the lowly skunk will probably live in comparative ease and safety during the coming winter.

An announcement from the United States Treasury says that there were $193,000,000 more in circulation in September than in August.

Why is it that seventy-five out of every one hundred automobile drivers when they see a man start over a crossing, instead of slowing up a little, invariably step on the gas and beat him across?

A Clarence woman is under bond for her appearance at the next term of court to answer to the charge of being a "common scold."

This is the season of the year when it is an easy matter to catch cold. In fact it is easier to catch one than to keep from doing it.

For automatic heat in your home and at least 30% saving in your coal bill, buy an Iron Firearm automatic coal burner.

Centre county pedagogues will be here in force, next week, for their annual institute.
