

S. Claude Herr--What Manner of Man?

It seems almost presumption to undertake to tell the voters of Centre county anything about S. Claude Herr, Democratic candidate for Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts. As clerk to the County Commissioners he had contact with a large number of taxpayers and voters of the county, and in the past four years, during which time he has so efficiently filled the office of Prothonotary, he has cemented friendships begun in his former position.

A native of Nittany valley he was forced to leave the place of his birth in order to make a living for his family, and coming to Bellefonte he went to work in the limestone quarries. Whatever of success he has achieved has been through honest effort and fair-square dealings with his fellowmen.

As examples of the character of the man, he is a member of the official board of the Methodist church, a member of the Board of Directors of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., and treasurer of the Bellefonte Building and Loan Association. These are evidences of the confidence and trust reposed in him by his neighbors, who know him best.

It is an incontrovertible fact that every man who has ever had dealings with him, either personal or in his capacity as Prothonotary, has the utmost regard for his integrity and efficiency.

Mr. Herr is asking the support of the voters of the county in his candidacy for a second term. If elected he will give to the office the same conscientious service that has so consistently characterized his work there during the past four years. His name will be found in the Prohibition column as well as in the Democratic. Give him your vote on Election day.

HOWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McDowell moved to Indiana, on Sunday. Miss Grace Schenck, of Milesburg, spent the week-end at her home here. Miss Violet Butler, who has been suffering with a bealed face, is much improved. Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner and daughter, Hilda, visited friends at State College, Sunday. Edwin Robb, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hall. Mrs. T. A. Pletcher and daughter, Irma, visited friends in Williamsport several days last week. Miss Gertrude Lucas, a nurse of New York city, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Harry Butler. Rev. and Mrs. Husler, of Milton, spent several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kane. The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Kunes, last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Harold J. Mayes spent several days, last week, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nunn, at Picture Rocks. Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Mayes, Mrs. Mary Mayes Hoffman and daughter Suzanne, spent Saturday in Williamsport. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Williams, of Renovo, spent last Wednesday at the home of the latter's brother, G. E. Ekdahl. Hewitt Confer's small son passed away at his home, Tuesday morning, following an illness with indigestion and convulsions. Mrs. Flora Cluston and daughter, Mrs. Robert Bowes, of Lock Haven, visited at the homes of Mrs. Clara Butler and Mr. Frank Butler, last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Confer, and her latter's brother, Charles Askey, visited at Niagara Falls and spent the week-end there with relatives and friends. Mrs. Zella Holt and daughters, Madeline and Marie, moved their household goods to State College, Saturday afternoon, where they expect to make their future home. Dr. D. W. Gates, who is taking a special course at Cornell University, left Ithaca, spent Sunday with his wife and little son, who are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fietta Harter. Misses Nelle and Helene Weber and Anna Muffly left Tuesday for Philadelphia. Miss Helene Weber will resume her duties as a nurse after spending several months at her home here. A wagon belonging to Blair Fletcher, of Howard township, was struck, Tuesday afternoon, at the farm and Walnut street crossing, by a car occupied by Rev. and Mrs.

Boggs, and friends, of Williamsport. After a few minor repairs to the car the motorists were able to continue on their trip to Altoona. Mrs. Nelle King and daughter, Beryl, Mrs. Fred Beiser and Mrs. Sarah Wise, of Williamsport, and Miss Helen Flanagan, of Mill Hall, were Sunday guests at the home of Frank Butler. Mrs. Kline Yearick, while canning tomatoes at her home, last Tuesday afternoon, was painfully burned around the head and shoulders by the steam from a can of tomatoes which exploded. Mrs. Gladys Wentzel entertained the members of her Sunday school class from the Reformed church at her home, last Friday evening, at a masquerade party. Mrs. Jennie Myers and Mrs. C. A. Yearick were the prize winners. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdahl and children, Carroll, Harry and Carolyn, and Mrs. Clara Butler visited the latter's daughter, Mrs. Bessie Bennett, at Mill Hall, Sunday. Miss Kathleen Bennett, who spent several days at the Butler home, accompanied them to her home. Sylvester Myers, of Jacksonville, who received an injury to his eye, Sunday afternoon, at Curtin, left Sunday night, accompanied by Ted Dixon, for Philadelphia, where he entered the Wilkes hospital and underwent an operation for the removal of the eye, on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdahl entertained at a birthday surprise party for their son, Harry, the occasion being his 6th birthday. The guests were entertained with games and contests, Dorothy Winkieblech, Mary Virginia Stoltz, Harry Edgar Butler and Frederick Wensel being the prize winners. Delicious refreshments were served, including a large birthday cake, the color scheme being pink and white. The guests were Beverly Vonado, Harry Edgar Butler, Donald Schenck, Robert Schenck, Chester Coder, Alta Jean Coder, Dorothy Winkieblech, Robert Fletcher, Frederick Wentzel, Mary Virginia Stoltz, Sarah Wentzel, Myrtle Johnson, Nelle Wyland, Lillian Helbley, Nancy Yearick, of State College; Kathleen Bennett, of Mill Hall, and Harry, Carroll and Carolyn Ekdahl. Quite a number of people from here attended the funeral of A. W. Mitchell, at Milesburg, on Sunday afternoon. Two weeks ago today George Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davidson, and Miss Berenice Murray, daughter of the late P. G. Murray, motored to Cumberland, Md., where they were united in marriage, returning home the same evening. They were accompanied on the trip by Daniel Barnhart, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

AARONSBURG

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. Sarah Brown, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here. Mrs. Lewis Kask, of Bellwood, was a visitor with relatives here one day last week. Mrs. Abednego Williams has been on the sick list for several days, suffering with neuritis. Mrs. Ida Bressler, of Curwensville, spent several days, last week, with her sister, Mrs. Josephine Singleton. Mrs. Francis Hall spent last Thursday in Howard, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Pletcher. Mrs. W. B. Parsons attended the W. C. T. U. convention, at Johnstown, returning home Monday evening. The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met, Monday evening, at the home of the vice president, Mrs. Hannah Iddings. Union Grange is planning for a Halloween party on October 30th, in the Grange hall. A jolly time is expected and good eats, too. Mrs. Ward Tate, of Salona, and her sister, Mrs. Harold Wagner, of Harrisburg, visited their relatives here during the first part of the week. Mrs. John Askins went to Johnstown on Monday, and expects to spend about two weeks in visiting friends and relatives in the western part of the State. The ladies of the M. E. church are busy making arrangements for their chicken and waffle supper October 24th, at the Hotel Union 30 and 50c per plate. Ice cream and cake extra. Owing to unexpected circumstances Clark Williams, who had intended disposing of his property here and household goods at public sale, the latter part of this month, has postponed the sale indefinitely. A few days ago Mrs. Estella Parsons went to Tyrone to visit her brother, Joseph Stover and family, and from there will be accompanied by Mrs. Stover on a visit to relatives in different parts of the State. A fine display of Larkin products was held at the home of Mrs. Anna Finch, on Tuesday. An interesting meeting of secretaries was held in the evening. Refreshments were served and all enjoyed a pleasant social time. Our station agent, G. W. Bullock, is having his vacation now. He and his wife left, Saturday afternoon, for Buffalo where they will visit their daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Keeler, then go to Pittsburgh, and visit with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bullock. A meeting of the cemetery board of the lower (Stover) cemetery will be held next Tuesday, October 20th, at the Community hall. All those interested in the improvements of this cemetery are requested to be present to help arrange for a benefit supper during the early part of November.

Mrs. Harry Kerchner and Mrs. Dora Fisher spent a day, last week, at the home of Mrs. Millie Kepler, near Pine Grove Mills, and were very much interested with the wonderfully fine crop of potatoes that were being harvested there and the different kinds of machinery used in grading and preparing them for market.
