

Don't forget John Smith next Tuesday. He's the Legislature's candidate for Sheriff, and he's the only fellow who won't be afraid to fight for the good of the people who played at home and are now trying to stick a knife in his back.

In 1917 John Smith, the single candidate for Sheriff, was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

With about 100,000 votes in 1917 John Smith, the single candidate for Sheriff, was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

John Smith was one of the many who were for the good of the people and the best of the people.

Democratic Watchman

STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION.

VOL. 76, HELLERSFONTS, PA., OCTOBER 30, 1931, NO. 43.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE HELD INTERESTING MEETING AT STATE COLLEGE

Representatives Present From 24 Local Clubs, Judge Fleming Took Part In Informal Court Work

From the reported accounts given by members representing their local clubs, at the first day of the annual county conference of the Women's League at State College, Saturday, Oct. 24, it was learned that the program of the day was given to the women who were interested.

In the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

The meeting was held in the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At the closing of the conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

BEARS ARE BEHAVING WATER WORKS' FISH AND FLOCK OF SHEEP

Water Authority, the report says, has been notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

A few years ago it was the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

On the morning of the 24th, the water authority was notified of the fact that bears have been seen near the water works.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE HELD INTERESTING MEETING AT STATE COLLEGE

Representatives Present From 24 Local Clubs, Judge Fleming Took Part In Informal Court Work

From the reported accounts given by members representing their local clubs, at the first day of the annual county conference of the Women's League at State College, Saturday, Oct. 24, it was learned that the program of the day was given to the women who were interested.

In the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

The meeting was held in the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At the closing of the conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE HELD INTERESTING MEETING AT STATE COLLEGE

Representatives Present From 24 Local Clubs, Judge Fleming Took Part In Informal Court Work

From the reported accounts given by members representing their local clubs, at the first day of the annual county conference of the Women's League at State College, Saturday, Oct. 24, it was learned that the program of the day was given to the women who were interested.

In the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

The meeting was held in the afternoon of a further women's conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At the closing of the conference, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

At a recent meeting of the Women's League at State College, Judge Fleming presided over the informal court work, which was held in the Presbyterian church.

BEHAVIOR FROM THE REYNOLDS

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.

—Speaking of the fact that the Reynolds family has been in the news for some time, it is interesting to note that the family has been in the news for some time.