ARMISTICE DAY WAS PROPERLY OBSERVED.

The thirteenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice which put an end to the greatest war of all times was properly observed in Bellefonte under the auspices of Brooks-Doll post of the American Legion. The exercises were held in the Diamond and in addition to the Legion, the crowd included several platoons of Troop L and the public school children.

Commander Walter Gherrity was in charge. Prayer was offered by chaplain C. F. Lauer and the address was delivered by Dr. George P. Bible.

In the evening the Legion, headed by Wetzler's band, marched to the Penn-Belle where they had their annual banquet. Covers were laid for one hundred and thirty and every place was taken. They nearly raised the roof with their rousing yells and songs and the five Civil war veterans, who were their guests, enjoyed it as much as they did. The speakers were Rev. Wm. E. Downes, Judge M. Ward Fleming, W. Harrison Walker Esq., and Chas. E. Dorworth, Nate Cartmell, track coach at the Pennsylvania State College, had been expected to be present and make an address but was unable to keep the engagement.

After the banquet some of the Legionnaires and a remnant of the band paraded the streets and made the welkin ring. It was quite some day for staid old Bellefonte.

NEWS OF INTEREST IN BELLEFONTE SCHOOLS.

Some very fine projects have been completed in the upper four grades of both Bishop and Allegheny buildings to demonstrate the subject of "Music Appreciation" of the past month.

"The Funeral March of a Marionette," by Gounod, was one of the selections studied. Some interesting miniature stages with elaborate stage settings were made by the pupils, the story acted by puppets provided by the students and directed by them to represent the characters of the episode presented.

To provide variety other stories were enacted, and some very clever marionette shows were displayed. Some of these little stages are so cleverly done that a space in the Variety Shop window has been reserved for the showing of a few of the best ones.

On Friday morning, November twentieth, at ten o'clock, the assembly period will be devoted to a "Peace Pageant," by members of the High school. The public is invited to this short but interesting program.

Three episodes will be presented. The first depicts the feast of the "Ingathering," a Hebrew custom; the second "The Pilgrims' Thanksgiving;" the third, "Columbia's Thanksgiving."

MOTHER'S CLUB MEETING HELD MONDAY EVENING

The November meeting of the Mother's Club was held, Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. James Leitzell, on Reynolds avenue, with twelve members and one visitor present. The president, Mrs. J. Millard Hartwick, presided. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and reports of the various committees were given. Mrs. Samuel Shallock presented a check of $10 from the Delphian society to the club to be used for the well baby clinic. Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held at the December meeting, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Maloy, and the members were asked to take toys and candy to be given to the Associated Charities.

Mrs. Robert Thena read a very interesting paper on "The Bad Book Menace," and Mrs. Leif Olson told a "Thanksgiving story," "The Empty Lunch Basket." A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Epworth Leaguers and the young people affiliated with the Bellefonte group of Methodist churches will go to Beech Creek tonight to attend a young people's council to be held in the church at that place.

The Franklin name on the moth-proof Verona velvet 3-piece living room suites offered for $134.00, this Friday and Saturday only, by W. R. Brachbill's furniture store, is your guarantee of high quality. 45-11
