BOOSTER STORES WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY THURS-DAY IN OBSERVANCE OF THANKSGIVING DAY.

Thanksgiving.

Next Thursday the God-fearing, God-loving people of our land will observe Thanksgiving day. Some might be wondering what they have to be thankful for. To such skeptics it could be said that they can at least be thankful that their state is no worse than it may be. However gloomy the prospect all classes, from the lowliest to the most exalted, have had blessings during the discouragements of the past two years that they might have been unmindful

In the New York American, of October 29, B. C. Forbes marshals many things for which the people of the United States might well bow their heads in thankful prayer next Thursday.

"LEST WE FORGET"

The health of this country never was better. Adversity unquestionably has had a salutary effect upon our

Our will to work hard, honestly, conscientiously has been quickened and strengthened. War has not been waged on our soil in two-thirds of a century and today we are at peace with the world. The infinity of our natural resources becomes more clearly established year by year.

The productive capacity of the United States exceeds that of any other country on earth. The science of management has been mastered more thoroughly here than in any other land. The inventive genius of America is unmatched.

The science of management has reached heights not approachd by any other nation Our industrial facilities and efficiency lead the world.

Our transportation and distributive equipment is unexcelled. We have the greatest storehouse of gold ever accumulated by

Our currency-the gold dollar-has become the world's supreme

Our Federal Reserve Bank system is impregnable. Currency and credit could be expanded by billions without impairing our banking stability and strength.

Our savings deposits overtop those of every other people, not excluding the proverbially thrifty French. American investments, once European and domestic hysteria has died out, will be recognized as the most desirable on the face of the globe. We will attract investment funds and bank deposits from most corners of the earth. Our national credit, as well as our national wealth, is the greatest and best extant. There are more security owners here than in any other two countries combined. American labor admittedly is the most capable and energetic of Production per man in the United State is far ahead of that of any other nation.

We are the undisputed leaders in mass production, the secret of modern industrial dominance.

American management is more responsive to new ideas, new inventions, new machinery, new appliances than management in any

Despite the fact that America has been drawn into the vortex of world-wide business depression, creating widespread unemployment here as elsewhere, the American standard of living is the envy of every other people.

So are the loyal relations which rule here between employers and employed. No government is less threatened than ours by Socialistic or Communistic propaganda or tendencies. Nowhere else can so large a percentage of the citizenry afford to give their sons and daughters a college education. In no other country can so many individuals and families enjoy up-to-date personal transportation and the broadening benefits of home and foreign travel. Under no other governmental and industrial system can or do so many men and women of humble birth rise to positions of responsibility, power and wealth. American philanthropy and generosity are the wonder and envy

Slums are disappearing from this continent.

Nowhere else are such sums voluntarily contributed to ease the lot of the unfortunate

The abject poverty prevailing in so many parts of both the Old World and the New World is scarcely known here. The masses here are better fed, better clothed, better housed, better entertained than the masses under any other flag.

We come nearer being a self-contained, self-supporting, selfsufficient land than any other. Instead of having reason for discouragement or despair, we have more profound reason than any other people for thankfulness,

Our greatest prosperity, our greatest achievements, our greatest power, our greatest progress lie, not behind us, but ahead. Let us, therefore, cease whining and repining. Let us regain for confidence and for facing the future with buoyant courage and characteristic American faith and resume characteristic American energy and daring and initiative.

'Ye shall reap if ye faint not."

And we add to Mr. Forbes presentation of blessings that many might be unmindful of this beautiful poem by Robert Davis

I thank Thee, Lord, for strength of arm To win my bread, And that beyond my need is meat

For friend unfed. I thank Thee much for bread to live, I thank Thee more for bread to give.

I thank Thee, Lord, for snug-thatched roof In cold and storm, And that beyond my need is room

For friend forlorn. I thank Thee much for a place to rest,

But more for shelter for my guest. I thank Thee, Lord, for lavish love On me bestowed, Enough to share with loveless folk To ease their load. Thy love to me I ill could spare, Yet dearer is the love I share.

The first thing they did was to go over the names remaining in the wheel from last year. If any person whose name was in the wheel died during the year, the name was discarded, othand was credited to the quota for the district it represented.

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES COMMUNITY CHURCH SERVICE ON THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving Day will be cele-brated in Bellefonte with a community church service in the Evangelical church, the Rev. A Ward Campbell, pastor. This service will be held at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving Day morning, and the sermon will be preached by the Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacbos D. D., pastor of the Methodist church. Other pastors of Bellefonte will participate in the

According to the custom instituted last year the entire community will be given an opportunity to express thanks to Goa in a material way. Envelopes will be distributed over the entire town to receive an offering for the work of the Centre County hospital, or any other designated charitable object in Belle-fonte. Members of St. John's Roman Catholic church will return the envelopes to their own church; those associated with St. John's Episcopal church will take their envelopes to the parish Thanksgiving celebration, which will be held in that church on Thanksgiving morning; members and friends of the other churches and those who do not belong to any of the Bellefonte churches will deposit their envelopes on the offering plates at the community service or send them to one of the churches on or before November 29th. Due to business and industrial conditions the Centre County hospital is being compelled to do much more charity work than the appropriation from State funds allows. The more fortunate citizens will have to come to the rescue to prevent a serious deficit in the funds of this meritorious institution. The sick must be cared for and a liberal thank offering will help in this good Those who wish to contribute to some other charitable fund will find a blank on the envelope, will find a blank on the envelope, where such an allocation of their gift can be noted, and such funds will be turned over promptly to the organizations in charge.
