

BOALSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Meyer returned to their home in Medina, N. Y., at week.

Mrs. A. J. Hazel went to Madisonburg, Sunday, to spend a few days among friends.

Miss Dorothy Lonerbarger, instructor in the schools at Athens, spent several days at her home in town. Lester Brouse and family moved to the apartment vacated by Paul Ouse and family, who moved to Harrisburg.

Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller were Thanksgiving day guests Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Homan, at Pennsylvania Furnace.

Miss Roselle Meyer, a student at insfield teachers' college, enjoyed few days' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Meyer.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Goheen visited their son and daughter, Mr. and s. Richard Goheen, in Indiana, at week.

William Sweet, principal of the Limestone High school, enjoyed a few days visit at the home of his in-d parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer.

Mrs. Anna Pifer, of Wilkinsburg, 1 Mrs. Clayton Royer, of Bellefonte, were guests of their sister, s. Wagner and Rev. Wagner, on Saturday until Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Kirkpatrick will conduct paratory services in the Presbyterian church, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, and Communion services Sunday, December 6th, at 11 o'clock.

Edward Burchfield, of Altoona, spent several days with his sister, s. Edie Jacobs, and Monday accompanied a party of friends to the hunting camp for a few days.

Lester Brouse, accompanied by his ther, Mrs. Emma Brouse, and s. Charles Kuhn drove to Danville, Thursday, to visit friends. Mrs. Brouse went on to Harrisburg to t until Sunday with her son Paul t family.

Capt. and Mrs. Ramsey and daughter, s. of Philadelphia, were guests of t. and Mrs. Vincent James, from rdsday until Sunday. The Ramsey family spent part of last summer in this vicinity and enjoyed re-ning for a short visit.

A civil service examination will be d at State College, in the near ure, for the purpose of selecting an or woman to fill the position postmaster at Boalsburg. The pension of the post master for last fiscal year was $885. All dlications must be filed by Fri-, December 18th.

fr. and Mrs. Harry McGirk, of lefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Forest McK and daughter, Miss Jane, of cement, and Mr. and Mrs. Mil- i McGirk and daughter, of Alto- na, were visitors at the home of s. Anna Dale, on Thursday. Mr. Mrs. Finn McGirk, of Altoona, e also callers on Sunday.

AARONSBURG.

fr. and Mrs. Raymond Ard are eliving congratulations on the ar- d of a daughter.

fr. and Mrs. Ed. Bohn, of Akron, o, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. in's grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. es Wert.

ermitt Orwig, of Akron, arrived own, Sunday, to be with his par- s. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orwig, ing the deer season.

rs. Thomas Hull and daughter, s Jennie, were Thanksgiving sts of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kes- er, at State College.

fr. and Mrs. A. S. King spent a days, recently, with their son- aw and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. ace Henry, in Milroy.

rs. Charles Harter and sons, ert and Kenneth, have been ading some time with her elder Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Harter, Wolfs Store.

rs. Fay Saunders and daughter nice and Mrs. Brown and daugh- of Akron, were Thanksgiving sts of Mrs. Saunders' parents, and Mrs. Charles Lambert.

r. and Mrs. Paul Bartges, ac- panied by the Misses Catherine Esther Krape and Olive Orwig, re to Harrisburg, Saturday, re they spent their time in the as.

r. and Mrs. William C. Mingle daughter Ruth, of Akron, Ohio, e Thanksgiving guests of their ective parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mingle and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. ver, on Main street. Mr. and Carl Stover and small child, of Akron, have been here for e time.

HOWARD.

rs. Maude Hamer, of Altoona, d on friends in town, Tuesday. r. and Mrs. Alta Pletcher and rter, Miss Alma, spent Thanksg- ing with friends at Berwick. r. and Mrs. Ed Warg and son, Bethlehem, are visiting Mrs. g's mother, Mrs. Allen Smith. hn Weber, a student at the t Chester Normal school, spent week-end with his mother here. r. and Mrs. Harry Williams, of ona, spent the week-end with former's mother, Mrs. Kathryn iams.

rs. Lot H. Neff, who has been a ical patient in the Centre Coun- ospital, returned to her home lay.

ie Keystone Bible class of the 2. church met at the home of Emma Pletcher, last Friday ing.

r. and Mrs. P. C. Cauffiel and ly, of Johnstown, and Mr. and Robert Lyman, of Coudersport, t Thanksgiving with the ladies' er, Mrs. Stella Williams.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Mrs. Susan Bechdel is visiting her son Harry, near town. Dr. George Dannley and wife are here from Ohio for the hunting sea-son.

Mrs. Emma Decker spent last week with the Christ Decker family, in Tyrone.

Prof. Cyrus Hoy and wife, of Zion, were callers at the H. C. Dale home, last Thursday.

Brooks Fry drove a big Mack truck from Altoona to New York city, last week.

L. E. Ripka, of Boalsburg, was in town, last Friday, on business con- nected with the Ed Moore estate.

Miss Virginia Dale, teacher in the Abington High school, spent Thanksg- iving at her home on the Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ewing spent the early part of the week visiting the sick at the Centre County hos- pital.

J. L. Shank and family motored to Zion, Friday, to assist at the big butchering at the G. B. Gummo home.

The organ that has been in the Bethel Reformed church for fifty years has been replaced with a Cur- tis piano.

Mrs. John S. Dale and Mrs. Viola Smith, spent Thanksgiving with the Marcellus Sankey family, at Wil- liamsburg.

J. C. Corl and family, of Juniata, are guests of Mrs. Ada Krebs while Mr. Corl is out on the deer trail as a day hunter.

Gene Fry, a High school boy, is recovering from a siege of the mumps and will soon be able to re- turn to school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irvin are planning to attend the annual meet- ing of the State Grange, at DuBois, December 8th to 12th.

Mack Fry and wife, with their son Hugh and lady friend, spent Sunday in Altoona with their other son, Brooks Fry and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Miller, of Hol- lidaysburg, are spending a few days with his sisters, Misses Gertrude and Maude Miller, in the Glades.

C. M. Fry and Miss Esther Ritchie and daughter Joan, of Altoona, were Thanksgiving day guests of Mrs. Hannah Osman, at Pine Hall.

H. C. Fluke, of Barto, is here for his annual deer hunt on Tussey mountain. He also will go into the Alleghenies in the hope of getting a shot at a bear.

Members of the ladies Bible class of the Lutheran Sunday school were entertained, on Friday evening, by Mrs. Laura Krebs. Miss Sue Dann- ley is teacher of the class.

John English, of the Mont Alto forestry school, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. English. Miss Dorothy English, of Harrisburg, was also home for the day.

A public meeting will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening in the interest of the school bond issue which is to be voted on at a special election to be held Decem- ber 19th. A full turnout is desired.

Every person who owned or could borrow a gun was out after deer on Tuesday, including the following women: Mrs. A. C. Kepler, Mrs. Hoffman and Miss Ella Goss. And it was a good day for the sport. Among those who came in with deer, on Tuesday, were M. C. Wieleand, G. C. Corl, Harry Gearhart, George Burwell, Jacob Kocher, J. M. Keller, Irvin Keller, Roy Eyer, Homer Phillips, Ed Johnson. Most of them were does. A hunter by the name of Hongast killed an 18-point buck in the Barrens, which is be- lieved to be the monster that many hunters have been after for a num- ber of years back.

UNIONVILLE

Mrs. Nora Grimm, of Altoona, spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Harry Stere.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wagner, of Harrisburg, are visiting her sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McElwain.

Mrs. Beulah Eckley, who has been boarding at the Hotel Union for some time, is on the sick list.

Warren Wilson, of State College, was a guest recently of his friend, Miss Helen Barton, at her home here.

John Brown, of Trafford City, was a guest over the week-end in the home of C. R. Eckenroth and other friends.

William Buck, of Williamsville, N. Y., was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Buck, over the Thanksg- iving vacation.

James Stere, of State College, and lady friend, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stere.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barton and little daughter, of Saxonburg, ar- rived, on Sunday, at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Spotts and son Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. Mil- ford Spotts, of Chili, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. Arista Lucas and other relatives here.

Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Barton, of Hastings, are visiting at the home of his brother, Hughes Barton. Laurie is enjoying a few days with his friends hunting for deer.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Mag- gie Keatley, over Thanksgiving, were her daughter, Miss Emily, from school at Carlisle, and son Gilbert and Glenn Blackwood, of Pittsburgh.

Among the many lucky hunting crews were the E. T. Hall crowd, who got three deer the first day, and Roy Eckley, Cliff. Alexander, Charles Stambaugh, and Clair Harp- er each one.

George Parsons spent his Thanksg- iving vacation with his aunt and uncle, Prof. and Mrs. Robert Lan- nen, at Chester, and accompanied his sister, Miss Viola, home on Sun- day evening. She had gone a week before for a visit with relatives and friends.

Somehow in giving the list, last week, of those who attended Pomona meeting in the Grange Hall, at Centre Hall, on November 21st, the name of Mrs. Bertha Lindenmuth was missed, for which we are sorry as she very kindly drove her car and took some of her friends along.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cleaver, of Kennett Square, arrived in town, Thursday evening and are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fox. Edgar spent his boyhood in this town and it is a great pleasure to his friends to hear his pleasant voice again. He is enjoying hunt- ing with his old friends over the hills here.

The sauer kraut supper, last Fri- day evening, was quite well patron- ized, considering the weather condi- tions, and a nice sum added to the Aid Society treasury. They have a number of articles left from the bazaar, among them a nice quilt. Any one wishing to purchase any of these articles can do so by calling at the home of Mrs. Hannah Idd- ings.

Mrs. Lydia Baker, who made her home with her niece, Miss Carrie Neiman, for a number of years, and after Miss Neiman's death stayed a while with Mrs. Samuel Hoover and then came to the Hotel Union, left a few days ago for Des Moines, Iowa, where she will be cared for in the home for aged under the man- agement of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Baker has been blind for several years. She is a member of the so- ciety of Eastern Star.

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH.

Church Bible school, C. C. Shuey, Supt., 9.30, goal for attendance 330, special offering; members of Wom- ens Volunteer Class have extra program. League, 6.30, has fine program and vital topic. Worship 10.45, preachment from Scriptures for pre-Christmas meditations. 7.30, evangelistic service. Official board, Monday, 7.45. Young peoples coun- cil, church, at 8, and Woman's For- eign Missionary Society, at 8, par- sonage, Friday, Dec. 4. Tuesday, Dec. 5, church, Ladies Aid Society, very urgent matters.

Pastor responds to all calls for his services. Strangers, week-end vis- itors and commercial travelers usu- ally worship with this congrega- tion. Everybody welcome.

Last Tuesday evening 80 women attended the monthly meeting of the Volunteer Bible class, Mrs. H. L. Jacobs, teacher. The class presi- dent, Mrs. Frank West, received from the class a bouquet of beauti- ful chrysanthemums in recognition of her birthday anniversary. For real enjoyment through helpful exercises and good features this meeting has first rank.

The White Cross, which is the Conference organization of the Amer- ican White Cross, this churchwide activity promoting all the 52 homes and hospitals, together with the Deaconess work of the Methodist church, has now the attention of Bellefonte Methodists.

Horace Linclon Jacobs, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Shibli, of State College, will occupy the pulpit in the Presbyter- ian church on Sunday, morning and evening.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

9.30 A. M., Church school. 10:45 A. M., The service and ser- mon: "The Church and Our Atti- tude is it Fair?" 7.30 P. M., Vesper service and sermon: "Making Our Calling and Election Sure." Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor.

—Read the Watchman every week and get all the news.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

UNFURNISHED APARTMENTS.—Two room suite, with bath; four-room suite, with bath; four-room suite; all steam heated. Crider's Exchange Building. CHAS. E. DORWORTH, Agent. 76-46-3t.

STRAY.—Came to residence of un- derigned red steer, 1½ yrs. old. No. 58412—$1. b. tested. Owner's tag lost from right ear. If not claim- ed in three weeks will be disposed of. WALTER BOONE, Romola, Pa. 76-46-3t.

FOR SALE.—Restaurant equipment. Includes tables, chairs, two refriger- ators, dishes, kitchen utensils, cof- fee urn, cash register, two counters, large coal range. CHAS. E. DORWORTH, Agent. Bellefonte, Pa. 76-46-3t.

AGENTS WANTED

For Fast Selling Specialties

Widely known manufacturer wants an agent in every community to sell money and labor-saving household products. Quick sellers, 50% profit, constant repeats. Agents protected for business in their territories. Write today for full information.

Amazol Products Co.,

P. O. Box 3464, Station O, 48-49 PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Man or Woman

Wanted At Once

If you are out of work, or look- ing for a chance to better your- self, have mighty attractive propo- sition to offer the right man or woman, a resident of Bellefonte, Pa. Good steady earnings right from the start, experience un- necessary. See Mr. L. R. Dunkle, RFD 1, Box 78, Petersburg, Pa., or write The J. R. Watkins Com- pany, 231 Johnson Avenue, New- ark, N. J. 76-47-2t

The Gift Supreme FURNITURE

From BRACHBILL'S

Hundreds of Gifts at the Lowest Prices in Years

Furniture and Rugs are the lasting Gifts that add so much to the joy and comfort of the hours spent at home.

Smokers

He'll certainly like a Smoker. Pedestal Smokers as low as $1.00.

Cabinet Smokers $3.95 and upwards

Cedar Chests

Assure her of your good taste with a Cedar Chest in Natural or Walnut Finish—

Prices Commence at $14.50

Chairs Built for Comfort

Lounging, Cogswell, Windsor and Reed. We special a quality Occasional Chair, upholstered in pleasing colors at $8.50

Desks

A 32-inch width Spinnet Desk, with drawer, brown Mahogany finish—

A Real Value at $12.75

Also showing a fine line of Governor Winthrop Desks and Secretaries.

Living Room Suites

A Delightful Gift for the Family

Genuine Franklin Co. A Grade 3-Piece Living Room Suites, with the guaranteed "Crown Sagless" Spring construction. Verona Velvet moth-proof covers. The last word in quality and comfort,

Regular Price $158.00

Now at $135.00

A Nine-Piece Dining Room Suite

A Timely Christmas Suggestion

Buffet, Table, China Closet, and 6 Chairs with Tapes- try Seats. Dust-proof construction. Walnut veneer with maple overlays.

Our Regular Price $122.00

Special Price $95.00

Lamps

Lamps convey the true Christmas spirit. Three-Light Candelabra, Junior Bridge or Table Style, bases in Pewter or Bronze Finish, Genuine Parchment Shades—

Complete for $6.75

Other Christmas Suggestions

FOOT STOOLS
MIRRORS
MAGAZINE RACKS
END TABLES
SMALL LAMPS
COFFEE TABLES

WINDSOR CHAIRS
BOOK CASES
HOOSIER CABINETS
TEA TABLES
TEA WAGONS
GLOBE WERNICKE

CARD TABLES
CHILD'S ROCKERS
HIGH CHAIRS
SEWING CABINETS
RUGS
SECTIONAL BOOK CASES

W. R. BRACHBILL

Spring Street

Established 1841

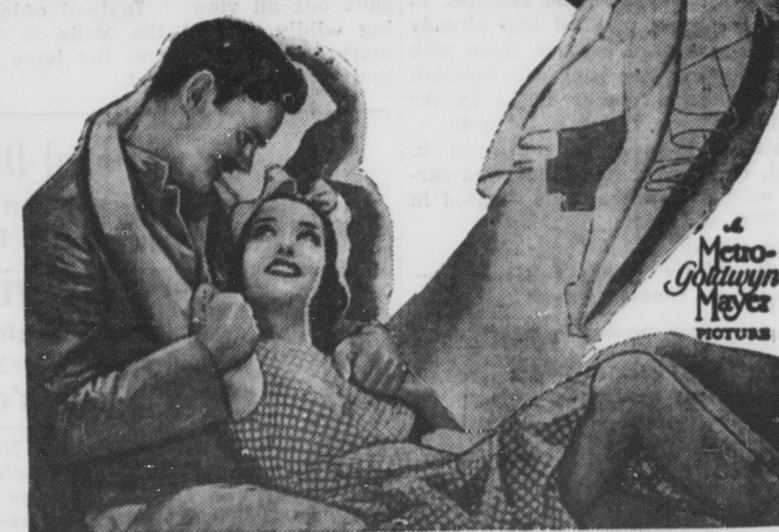

BELLEFONTE, PA.

How could he remember the girl back home?

Singing and Love-Making
Under Tropical Skies.

HIBBETT
THE CUBAN
LOVE SONG

With LUPE VELEZ
ERNEST TORENCE
and Madcap Jimmie Durante in an Action Story with a Million Laughs!

CATHARTIC
THEATRE
STATE COLLEGE

Monday--Tuesday
December 7 and 8

Matinee Daily at 1:30