

INK SLINGS. BY GEORGE R. MEEK.

-Fifty hunters and fifty-four thousand deer are estimated to have been the casualties of the ruthless carnage that was brought to a close in the woods of Pennsylvania last Tuesday.

-John Garner, the new Speaker of the House, will not ride in the car that his predecessor, Nicholas Longworth, used after all. There will be no expensive gas chariot and DEPRESSION HAS HAD liveried chaffeur at the government's expense for the fighting Texan. His renunciation of a perquisite his position entitles him to indicates that More Marriage Licenses Issued Dur-Mr. Garner is going to go in for economy and is beginning by practicing what he expects to preach.

flusher when he asked what he last year. would do for the needy in Pennsylvania.

its fetish, but it seems that its been about on a par with 1930. and Walnut streets.

-Really we ought to be in a more amiable mood at a time so close to the season of "Peace on Earth and more executions issued so far this on the heavy rope to pull the sub-Good Will to Men," but we are not. We have come from a walk along total last year was 375 while this onto land. A pulmotor was used of the paving makes pockets for wa- Of course all the executions issued but he had been under water too ter to gather in in wet weather. did not result in a sale of property long and all efforts to revive him Everyone of them was full and every as the majority of them were set- proved futile. motorist on that busy thorofare seem- tled, ed to arrive at a pocket simultaneously with us. The splashing we got made us wonder whether the people who have to use that street daily swear as much as they are probably justified in doing.

table looking as to arrest our own attention about a month ago. It was a comfortable old hat that had adjusted iself perfectly to the vari-

PINE GLEN MAN DROWNS

WHEN HE BACKED HIS CAR

A hurried call was sent to Phil-

BELLEFONTE, PA., DECEMBER 18, 1931. NO. 50.

LITTLE OR NO EFFECT IN COUNTY OFFICES.

VOL. 76.

ing 1931 Than in the Year 1930. resident of Pine Glenn, was drown-

"Puddler Jim" Davis is the patron the court house shows little differ- ped at the station to make repairs. saint might be inspired by Governor ence between 1931 and 1930, with Anxious to get to Philipsburg where Governor look something like a four-cense bureau, which ran far ahead of the son secured a ride in another

. car. To be exact, last year only 173 li- The elder Bowes undertook to Philadelphia, the fountain from so far this year the number issued bank of the dam with the result the help. which slush funds have flowed to is 246, an increase of 73. In all that the car toppled over and sank bankruptcy. High tariffs has been business in the register's office has the driver with it. twenty-six hundred protectionist In the recorder's office 1394 deeds ipsburg for help and members of phia county are about to pounce crease of 94. This decrease is most- company made a quick run to Morupon their tottering temple at Broad ly accounted for by the reduction in risdale. A grappling hook was the sales of farms and other real thrown into the water and on the estate. The execution docket in the pro- rear axle of the car. It took the Back in the county commissioner's was 73 years old. His wife has for several years became so disrepu- for 1931 are also short of last year. Askey cemetery.

t	LEGION	AUXILIARY
	a allerate to	MEETS	IN	BELLEFONTE.

SNYDER COUNTY HUNTER VICTIM OF FATAL SHOT IN CENTRE COUNTY

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES HELPING 38 FAMILIES.

REBEKAH LODGE WINS IN

"Mother's Old Home" was the

INTO MORRISDALE DAM. More Money Needed to Carry the Work Through the Winter. George W. Bowes, well known

The Associated Charities of Belleed in the dam at Morrisdale, about fonte has completed its first month the hall of Progress Grange, at a deer crossing the road in front of him. There is no arguing the fact that noon on Sunday, when he backed his of activity with the realization that Centre Hall, on Monday evening of He shot at it, but only wounded it slightthe year now drawing to a close Ford roadster into fifteen feet of icy a hard winter is ahead. Thirty- this week, under the auspices of ly, the impact of the shot against one of -The Moose of Pennsylvania are has been one of deep depression, water. Mr. Bowes and his son eight families are now being provid- the Centre county Agricultural Ex- its horns knocking it down. The anibeing raided so frequently of late and with the characteristic pes- John were on their way to Philips- ed with food, clothing and coal, and the centre county Agricultural and mal attempted to get up, but several of tension Association. A large au- mal attempted to get up, but several of that many are in a quandary as to simism of Americans generally the burg. On nearing the filling sta-contrary to general belief these fam-dience was present to witness the the school boys ran to it and held it whether the special attention the most of us fail to see any hope for tion at the entrance to Morrisdale ilies are not all the so called "old contest. enforcement officers have been pay- the immediate future. But busi- park something went wrong with timers" who will always need help, ing to the lodges of which Senator ness in the various county offices in the motor of the car and they stop- good times or bad.

The Association is making a des- Rebekah club. The judges were Pinchot. Jim, you know, made the exception of the marriage li- he wanted to catch a bus to DuBois, of aid but is powerless without the Agnes Geary, of Centre Hall, and cashier and director of the hands of tional bank. Aveila, now in the hands of censes were issued at the office of turn his car around and in doing so the central bureau. If this is not Rebekah lodge, though both the Judge F. P. Schoonmaker sentenced him -The Manufacturer's Club, of register Harry A. Rossman, while accidentally backed too close to the done the right people will not secure Penn State and Halfmoon Grange to three years in the Petersburg, Va.,

which slush funds have nowed to is zio, an internet of the into fifteen feet of water, carrying been as remunerative as should be, Carrie Wieland, Kathryn Dreibelbis, he was interested. and individual contributions are Clair Irvin, Ruth Frank, Edna M. urgent to carry over the Christmas Albright, Mrs. Mary Walker and broke from his stall and overturned a program of providing baskets. With Foster Musser. They have been lantern, destroyed a barn, silo and crops members have gotten so poor on and mortgages were entered of rec- the State highway patrol, the fire the $250 secured as a result of the coached by Mrs. Caroline Peterson, at the farm of Joseph Zeisloft. West their own favorite diet that both ord during 1930 while so far this department and the rescue crew of Elk's minstrel show barely $500 is while the director of the club is Hemlock township, near Strawberry their own ravorite diet that both out during the director of the wolf and the Sheriff of Philadel- year the number is 1300, or a de- the Associated Gas and Electric available and nearly $1000 was Mrs. Alfred Albright.

> the barrel of pennies. Ten deer carcasses were dressed tournament at the Farm Products ing before it was enveloped in flames.

Cross drive the following has been representatives.

Post Office employees . $49.60 ONE MAN PAROLED 10.00 25.00 46.00 Contributions from the following individuals: W. L. Daggett, Wm.

Sieg, Dr. J. L. Seibert, Mrs. Trome Harper, T. B. Hamilton, John Love

SPAWLS FROM THE KEYSTONE.

-After losing his job as a salesman, Neal Sackett, 41, well known Johnstown man, ended his life by hanging. The body was found in his home. It was believed he committed suicide on Saturday, shortly after he had been discharg-

-Mrs. Ethel Stanley Potter, 43 years old, of Pittsburgh, has asked Judge John P. Egan to grant her a divorce from Dr. Joseph L. Potter, 40, Middleburg, Pa. She said he attempted to choke her and that she had found their cook in her husband's room. The Potters were marin Greensburg, in 1922.

-The body of Andrew Bassett, 42, was found early on Monday at the bottom of a coal dock in the yards of the New York Central railroad, at Clearfield. GRANGE PLAY CONTEST Bassett had been unloading a car of coal into the dock. It was assumed he The dramatic club of the Pine lost his balance, fell into the chute and Grove Mills Rebekah lodge won was smothered. first place in the second annual -While driving a school bus to Galerural dramatic tournament held in ton, O. A. Champney, of Knowlton, saw by the feet and horns until Champney could reach it and cut its throat. The animal had a large rack of horns with name of the playlet presented by the 10 points.

perate effort to eliminate duplication L. R. Lenhart, of Bellefonte; Miss cashier and director of the Lincoln Naco-operation of every individual. Frank Millward, of Pleasant Gap. receivers, pleaded guilty to misapplication Any clothing, food or money to go They had a difficult task in making of $100,000 of the bank's funds in Fedto charity should be cleared through a selection but finally decided on the eral court at Pittsburgh, on Saturday. clubs were close seconds. The reformatory. The court was told Irwin The financial response has not Rebekah club members are Mrs. used about 45 per cent. of the bank's money in financing companies in which

-Fire started by an angry bull which Ridge, Montour county, Friday evening spent last year for far less work This group will represent Centre at 6:45 o'clock with an estimated loss of than there is to do this week. So county and the central district, in-far but $11 has been secured from cluding Clinton, Mifflin and Centre counties, in the State-wide dramatic ceeded in freeing four mules and 10 head of cattle and drove them from the build-the needy cases in the past week. week of January 18th. At the State against Charlotte Carr, deputy Secretary year than were issued in 1930. The merged car out of the water and The deer were secured through the tournament they will compete with of Labor and Industry, were dropped on offices of game protector Mosier and farmers in other districts from all Monday. The indictments were quashed over the State. Centre county peo- after a "substantial" cash settlement was Aside from the money derived ple are urged to follow the play at made by Miss Carr with the family of from the Elk's show and the Red Harrisburg and support their local Daniel S. Peters, 63, of Campbelltown, who was killed by her automobile October 14, near Hershey. The Bureau of Motor Vehicles suspended Miss Carr's driver's license for reckless driving fol-TWO OTHERS SENTENCED, lowing recommendation by the coroner's jury that Miss Carr be prosecuted for At a session of court, Monday af- manslaughter.

ternoon, Elmer Aukerman, of Gregg -A quartette of bandits, driving a township, was granted a parole from sedan with Illinois license plates on the Allegheny county work house Saturday night entered seven business so he can return home and take places in Somerset county, including the care of his family, who are in dire First National bank of Sipesville. Their need of his support. On Septem- total loot was two revolvers, taken from 42.00 ber 10th Aukerman plead guilty to entering and larceny and was sen-there in the bank, and $12 worth of candy and cigarettes, obtained at a filling station at Somerset. Marie Manges, a clerk in the tenced to pay the costs of prose- Zeppelin restaurant at Jennerstown, is HAVE NAMED DEPUTIES. cution, a dollar fine and serve nine the only person who saw the quartette. to eighteen months in the Allegheny They entered just as she was closing for On occasion we have spoken of this reaction to new apparel and invari-ably have been told that it is all Rev. Robert Thena. George R. child. "For you," turning to the hushad refused to go to housekeeping. -Here is a story of a workman finding $5000 in gold pieces that were not buried by Captain Kidd. It was hidden, so -Last Thursday afternoon a the legend goes, some 60 years ago by So far no announcement has been well known attorney in Bellefonte the owner of an historic brick tavern, made of the selection of janitors for was the instrument through which about five miles east of Honeybrook, Lancaster county. It was discovered the court house or attorneys for the the purchase of a piece of property last Thursday by a workman engaged Sheriff and County Commissioners. at sheriff's sale was consummated. in repairing the tavern, erected in 1806. The purchase price was $450, and The workman, his pockets bulging with the purchaser paid over the money the shining pieces, has disappeared. in real, honest to goodness green- Other workmen revealed his finding of A CHRISTMAS PARTY. backs. The attorney laid the mon- the hidden treasure to Thomas Kelleher. most of the time as janitor in the The Bellefonte Mother's Club held ey down on his desk and wrote a of Philadelphia, owner of the property. think they are deceiving us when they say they want to get some-State College: historian Mrs. Brum-State College: historian Mrs. Brummitted suicide, about seven o'clock Monday evening, at the home of then asked if it wouldn't be the rold in three money bass in the third floor laboratory of the and three guests present. Follow- the attorney told him to do so by money offered for the antiture of Mer building. His body was found by ing a short business session, pre- all means, and volunteered to go Irene Schroeder and W. Glenn Dague. Prof. D. M. Stover when he went to sided over by Mrs. J. Millard Harts- with him to an insurance office and A court order, handed down last week, GET WEST PENN CONTRACT the laboratory at nine o'clock to wick, all joined in singing "Silent help arrange for same. While in provides the money he paid to the court Night" and "Hark the Herald An- the latter office the disciple of Black- and all claimants should file their rea-The contract covering the con- From indications Ewing had gone gels Sing." This was followed by stone happened to think of the $450 sons at once. The first Monday in Febto the old hat or go into bankrupt-struction of the store-room and ga-to work as usual, that morning, and a musical program. Carrie Jacobs paid him a few minutes previous. He turn Six sheriff's deputies of Phoenix. rage to be used by the West Penn had swept and dusted the laboratory Bond and Mrs. W. R. Cliffe sang felt in one pocket, then another, but turn. Six sheriff's deputies of Phoenix. -We close our thirty-sixth con-ecutive year as "Ink Sling" maker ecutive year as "Ink Sling" maker without any preliminary leave-tak-beal contractors, who will use mather and dusted the laboratory Bond and Mrs. W. R. Cliffe sang vocal solos, Mrs. W. R. Shallcross playing the accompaniment. No motive playing the accompaniment. for the Watchman with one thought local contractors, who will use ma- Ewing was a son of Hezekiah and Mary Jane Maloy gave a toe ing, he dashed from the office and Mrs. Schroeder and Dague were captured uppermost in our mind. It is that terials supplied by dealers in this Margaret Ewing and was born at dance, Mrs. J. C. Ocker playing the made a hot trail to his own office. In Arizona after highway patrolman Fairbrook 54 years ago. His only accompaniment. Donald McCor- He found the door standing wide Brady Paul had been shot to death near an of its readers may be able to look above the clouds of depression The new building will occupy the survivor is his widow. He was a mick played two violin solos, his open and hurrying to his desk stood New Castle. They were convicted of that lower over the earth and see present site of the West Penn ga- member of the Presbyterian church, mother playing the accompaniment. with mouth agape and eyes bulging murder and executed at Rockview last Co. Funeral services were held at mas carols, a reading by Mrs. Ar- en, it laid on the desk just where he -A state trooper who hunted a murvalue set by man, but times like The building will be 119 feet long his late home at 10 o'clock on Wed- thur C. Dale and a playlet, "The had placed it. But it didn't lie derer for three years is on his way to these disclose their fallibility. The and 58 feet wide, constructed on a nesday morning, burial being made Christmas Idea," rendered by Mrs. E. there longer than it took the attor-J. Maloy, Mrs. J. Millard Hartswick, ney to grab it and chuck it in his his man. He is Corporal John A. Carr, . Troop B, Wyoming. Carr was assigned in 1928 to hunt the slayer of Alex Campbell and Peter Wiley, killed in Pitts------Christmas holidays for stu-ton in 1928 during a feud between rival creatures in the same abundance as has been started and, when finished, the Herr and Heverly grocery store, candy and toys, and choice refresh- dents at the Pennsylvania State Colthe richest. If we have nothing will be one of the most up-to-date left early in the week for Hunting- ments were features of the gather- lege start Saturday at noon and continue to noon Monday, January 4. the case. He traced the suspect, Peter Students held their traditional De Luca, through several Southern States. papers were forwarded to the State Department at Washington and the state fourth attempt it fastened on the Water street, where the unevenness year to date 378 have been recorded. in an effort to resuscitate the victim Burgess Harris. He was a native of Pine Glenn and received:

office the one indication of depres- been dead for some years but he is Men's Bible Class First Presbysion was the fact that the various survived by four children, John, of terian church collectors throughout the county re- DuBois; Mrs. Meyers, of Centre Community Thanksgiving Offering. 7.15 turned a total of over $30,000 of un- Hall; Berenice and Henry, at home. American Legion paid taxes on the 1930 duplicates. The funeral was held on Wednesday Willing Workers class of the Luth--The old gray lid we had worn In Bellefonte borough tax collections afternoon, burial being made in the eran church ly projects its newness into the vis- ington, D. C., in February. with such frequency that we can Parker, Jersey Shore. account for it only because the new hat gives the appearance of opulence that isn't. If the thing keeps up GEORGE RHOADS SONS there are only two courses left open to us: We'll either have to go back cy.

all of its readers may be able to district. silver might be the standards of damaged by fire last spring. Christ. The one unfailing treasure and a precase concrete slab roof that never shrinks in value and is carried on steel beams. vouchsafed the poorest of God's Construction work on the building number of years was employed in A brilliantly lighted tree, with else through the coming festal sea- and completely equipped garages don, where he has secured a posi- ing. son to point us into the New Year and store-rooms in West Penn ter- tion in the industrial reformatory. with hope let us be happy in the ritory. Christmas morning.

ous protruberances on our cranium The tri-county council of the that have at times suggested char- American Legion Auxiliary for the Carson Heimbaugh, 19-year-old acteristics to the fingers of phren- district composed of Centre, Clinton hunter of Hummel's Wharf, Snyder ably have been told that it is all Rev. Robert Thena. George R. Leitzek shot at a deer which ran Charles E. Freeman, of Philipsburg, for the payment of the costs. you know what we mean-that fair- defense congress to be held in Wash- pened on the scene. ion of others. And a new hat in Wednesday's session being the first the hospital at Lewisburg but he of D. R. Foreman. times like these must look like real of the new auxiliary year the new died within four hours. money, for since we discarded the officers were in charge. They are:

old boy we can scarcely get to or President, Mrs. Fred J. Bush, Wilfrom our home without being "pan- liamsport; first vice president, Mrs. handled" by some stranger. It is R. J. Moquin, of Lock Haven; secalmost a daily experience for us to ond vice president, Mrs. Nelle Deckour large circle of acquaintances Miller, Montgomery; treasurer, Mrs. among the local characters who Raymond Hill, Hughesville; sergeant they say they want to get some- State College; historian, Mrs. Brumers have gotten to singling us out Motter, Bellefonte, and Mrs. Isaac secutive year as "Ink Sling" maker been let to George E. Rhoads' Sons, for the suicide could be uncovered. playing the accompaniment.

spirit of Christmas is the spirit of concrete foundation with brick walls, in the Pine Hall cemetery.

Joe Messmer and "Wesley."

STATE COLLEGE JANITOR TAKES LIFE BY HANGING.

be "tapped" for a quarter or so by er, Bellefonte; secretary, Mrs. Paul nineteen years has been employed David H. Ewing, who for the past MOTHERS CLUB HELD by the Pennsylvania State College, thing to eat, but lately utter strang-gard, Avis; directors, Mrs. M. L. Monday morning, by hanging him-Mrs. E. J. Maloy, on east Linn proper thing to take out insurance -The Lawrence county c hold class exercises.

the spirit of Christmas. Gold and rage on Lamb street, which was the Odd Fellows and the Alpha Fire The program also included Christ- -no, the money had not been stol. February.

---Edmund Eberhart, who for a liam Kline and Mrs. Harry Yeager.

per vote was about 89cts. long time.

COUNTY-OFFICERS-ELECT

ologists that we never knew we pos- and Lycoming counties held a meet- county, died at the Evangelical hos- The Democratic county officers county work house. Attorney John the night and left when she told them sessed. New hats or new shoes al- ing in Bellefonte on Wednesday of pital, Lewisburg, shortly before eight who will be sworn in on January J. Bower presented the petition for the proprietor had gone home with the ways have had the effect of making last week. An executive meeting o'clock on Saturday evening, as the 4th, have made selection of their his parole and read a letter from night's receipts. us self-conscious. Every time we of the board was held at 11.30, at result of a gunshot wound inflicted deputies and clerks, according to the superintendent of the work "-"Cut out the lipstick and other exstart to break in either we have the the Legion home, on Howard street, by a fellow hunter, Max Leitzek, 18 announcement this week. Sheriff- house who stated that Aukerman tras, if you want to make ends meet." feeling that all the people we meet where the members were also en- years old, while hunting in the Four- elect John M. Boob will have as his had been a model inmate during the Judge Forrest R. Shanaman told a on the street are looking at them. tertained at dinner. Bellefonte teen Mile Narrows, Centre county, deputy John Bower, a World-war three months he had been there. young wife in domestic court at Reading.

imagination, that probably not one Lamade, of Williamsport, gave an between him and Heimbaugh. The as chief clerk, and Boyd Vonada, of F. A. Howe and F. E. Weaver, arin a hundred people notice whether interesting account of the unemploy-bullet missed the deer, struck Heim-Bellefonte, second clerk. Register rested last January for violations of self-denial and sacrifice, if you are earnwe are wearing our Sunday or our ment relief work in that city, and baugh in the hip, was deflected on John L. Wetzler will retain the serv- the liquid fuels act and who failed ing only $12 a week." The couple. fishing clothes. All of which may Mrs. Fred E. McEntire, district di- the hip bone and coursed upward ices of Miss Geraldine Bilger, as his to appear in court, when notified to though married, are living apart, each at be so, but things have been happen- rector, gave some valuable sugges- through the body, causing a fatal deputy. As mentioned last week do so, were brought in on bench the home of parents. An order for $3 ing lately that lead us to believe tions on the work of the auxiliary. wound. When Leitzek realized what Recorder D. A. McDowell will have warrants and were sentenced to pay a week was made until the wife, who that our reassuring friends don't Mrs. McEntire was considerably sur-had happened he attempted to shoot Hoy Royer as his deputy. So far the costs, one hundred dollars each know what they are talking about. prised when informed that she had himself but was prevented from do- County Treasurer Robert F. Hunter for the benefit of the county and agrees to do so. Our new hat is one of those kind been selected to attend the national ing so by another hunter who hap- is the only one who has not made placed on probation for one year. any selection. Prothonotary S.

The wounded youth was rushed to Claude Herr will retain the services

---Harry M. Armstrong, aged Christmas carol sing last night on Finally the trail led to Belize. State po-----The recent election in Centre 60, and a native of Milesburg, kill- the terrace of Old Main, the music lice wired British authorities who arplagues, neither panics nor deflations ——Christmas is coming without county, the primaries included, cost ed himself in Altoona early Tuesday being conducted by Richard W. can take from us the spirit of the a doubt, as the yard in front of the the county $10,904.12. The pri- morning, using a revolver to shoot Grant, head of the department of priceless gift our Creator sent us court house is filled with Christmas maries cost $4,970.73 and the gen- himself in the head. He had been music. The student Christian Asthirty-one hundred years ago next trees, brought there this week by eral election $5,933.39. The cost suffering with melancholia for a sociation assisted in preparing the trooper started on the journey to get his program.

man.

Mrs. W. T. McCormick, Mrs. Wil- pocket.