An Ordinance.

Appropriating, under the right of eminent domain, certain real estate in the Borough of Bellefonte to be used in the extension of and the safe and economical operation of the water works and water system of the borough of Bellefonte and which said real estate is the property of Amelia O. Gamble, Rose R. Ostertag, G. McClure Gamble, Elizabeth A. Talbott and Ruth E. O'Brien.
WHEREAS, it is necessary that the Borough of Bellefonte should become the owner under the right of eminent domain for use in the extension of and the safe and economical operation of its water works and water system, of a certain tract of land situate in the Borough of Bellefonte, and hereinafter more fully described, which under the last will and testament of George M. Gamble, deceased, became vested in Amelia O. Gamble, Rose R. Ostertag, G. McClure Gamble, Elizabeth A. Talbott and Ruth E. O'Brien, subject to the powers and authority of the Northern Central Trust Company of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, as Executor and Trustee of said will.

AND WHEREAS, the corporate authorities of the said Borough have been unable to negotiate a purchase of the property hereinafter described from the legatees of the said George M. Gamble, deceased, and it is necessary for the purposes hereinabove stated that the Borough of Bellefonte should become the owner of the hereinafter described property under the right of eminent domain.

NOW THEREFORE:
SECTION ONE.—Be it ordained and enacted by the Council of the Borough of Bellefonte, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Borough hereby take and appropriate and does hereby take and appropriate under the right of eminent domain for the purpose of the extension of and the safe and economical operation of the water plant belonging to said Borough, which said lands so as aforesaid appropriated and taken are situate in the Borough of Bellefonte, in the County of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, and are bound and described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING at an iron post at the Southern end of Guard rail along Spring Creek on South Water Street in the Borough of Bellefonte at the Northeastly corner of land of Darius Waite; thence along the Northern line of said Darius Waite lot 68 degrees West 130 feet to post on Eastern side of overflow channel from the Big Spring; thence South 9 degrees West along the Eastern side of said overflow channel from the Big Spring, 72 feet to a post a line of Big Spring property; thence by said Big Spring, South 68 1/2 degrees West approximately 180 feet to a post on the West side of said overflow channel from Big Spring; thence by lands of the Bellefonte Lumber Company, North 53 degrees West 6 1/2 perches to a concrete post, corner of said Bellefonte Lumber Company property; thence by same South 72 degrees 30 minutes West approximately 150 feet more or less to concrete post corner of lands of Bellefonte Lumber Company, aforesaid, at right of way of the Lewisburg and Tyrone Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; thence by and along the Eastern side of said right of way of said Pennsylvania Railroad to the water's edge of Spring Creek; thence in a Northerly direction along the Southeastern bank of said Spring Creek to a point on the bank of said creek, at the extreme Northern end of what is known as "The Island"; thence South 7 1/2 degrees East along said Spring Creek at the Northern end of said "Island" to an iron post to a point on Water Street distant 150 feet North of the North eastern corner of Darius Waite aforesaid; thence by and along the Western side of North Water Street along the top of stone wall to an iron post at the corner of Darius Waite property, the place of beginning.

Being the same premises excepted and reserved by George M. Gamble and Amelia O. Gamble, his wife, by deed, dated the 29th day of June 1923 and recorded in Deed Book Vol. 129 page 480 conveying certain premises therein recited to Ammon G. Bashoar, Alter K. Ullah and Karl W. Bashoar, reference to the same being had will more fully and at large appear.

SECTION TWO: That upon the passage of this ordinance the Borough Solicitor is hereby authorized and directed to prepare a bond as provided by law for the payment in full of all damages as compensation for the appropriation of the lands hereinabove described which said bond shall be executed by the President of Council and attested by the Secretary thereof, under the common seal of said Borough, and shall thereafter be delivered to the parties in interest or filed in the Court of Common Pleas as provided by law, whereupon the said Borough will take immediate possession of the lands so appropriated.

ORDAINED AND ENACTED into an Ordinance at a regular meeting of Council this 4th day of January, A. D. 1932.
JOHN S. WALKER, President.

ATTESTED:
W. T. KELLY, Borough Secretary.
And now, to-wit, January 6th, A. D. 1932 the foregoing Ordinance is hereby approved.
H. P. HARRIS, Burgess.
