WINGATE

Wesley Weber spent Sunday night in his wife and family, in Holysburg. Quite a number of people from the neighborhood attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed Smoyer, last week. Mrs. H. B. Witherite and daughter Ruth, accompanied by Mrs. Phil, her daughter and little son, and Mr. Roy Fisher and son, called on the Edgars at their home, last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Broyles, of State College, and S. Ida Witmer attended a W. C. U. meeting, at Snow Shoe, last week. Chicken thieves raided the hen pens at the Etridge and Irwin farms, last week and made away with a number of fowls. Mrs. J. D. Neidigh, J. F. Musser, Eugene Irvin, Clay Houck and J. H. Gilliland are attending the farm show, in Harrisburg, this week. Funeral director H. N. Koch was taken violently ill, Saturday, and rushed to the Geisinger hospital for an operation. Until he recovers his son Herbert is in charge of the business. Grover E. Harper expects to go to farming in the spring and will be assisted by his son Earl. Charles Graham will leave the farm in the spring and return to his home at Beech Creek. W. C. Frank will

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. C. K. Brugger has been suffering from gripe for several days. No improvement in the condition of Mr. Abednego Williams can be noticed. Mr. H. D. Lindenmuth is improving his home by adding a laundry and porch. Mrs. William Bauder and daughter Alice spent the week-end in Altoona with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger. Quite a number of friends and relatives here attended the funeral of H. D. Rumberger. Mrs. Kathrine Flick is among the folks of our town who are not in their usual good health. Mrs. Ralph Moran, of Altoona, visited her grand-mother, Mrs. Arista Lucas, on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Holderman, of Huntingdon, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Laura Rumberger. Clarence Bauder, of Williamsport, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bauder. George Brugger, of Cannonsburg, attended the funeral of his uncle, Harry Rumberger, at Phillipsburg on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robison, of Lock Haven, called at the home of their friend, Miss Gertrude Lucas, on Tuesday. Mrs. Alma Alexander, of Milesburg, who assisted in the care of her mother, returned to her home on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Erhard, of Phillipsburg, were week-end callers at the home of Mrs. Erhard's sister, Mrs. Roy Calhoun. The doughnut sale by the Ladies Aid society, last week, was well patronized and several dollars added to the treasury. Charles Keatley is getting along fine after about three weeks in the hospital. He is able to be out by being very careful of his steps. Mrs. Thomas McClellan and daughter Helen were week-end visitors of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Tingue and family, of Pittsburgh.
