

WESLEY'S CHRISTMAS

WAS A HAPPY ONE.

It has just occurred to us that we have thus far failed to make any report of our stewardship of the funds sent to us with which to help make the Christmas season a happy one for Wesley.

Because we felt that everyone was more or less in Wesley's depressed condition we made no special plea for him. Our surprise was therefore all the greater when so many voluntarily sent remembrances through us. We had prepared Wesley for a death and when a deluge came he was quite overwhelmed.

It is needless to say that he is profoundly grateful to his good friends, one of whom, Mr. Fielding, probably doesn't even know him, except through the Watchman's occasional references to him.

His benefactors will be interested in hearing that he has added a room to his mansion on Fifth avenue. This was necessary because a homeless woman, with a little boy, decided that she would become his housekeeper and Wesley hasn't "the heart to put them out when they have no place else to go."

Those who contributed to the fund this year were:

- Harold B. Gardner, Washington $1.00
M. I. Gardner, Clearfield 1.00
Mrs. Harry Keller 1.00
W. C. Coxe 2.00
W. H. Fielding, New Dorp, N. Y. 5.00
A friend in Punksutawney 1.00
Miss Carrie Harper 1.00
Terry S. Linn 1.00
Mrs. W. T. Twitmore .50
I. M. Cunningham 1.00
Mrs. John M. Shugert 1.00
Hugh N. Crider, Venter, N. J. 1.00
His self-appointed guardian 5.00

In addition to the cash above Mrs. Fred Hollabaugh gave us a basket of groceries for him.
