UNIONVILLE MAN DIES
AFTER BEING HIT
BY PASSING AUTO

George W. Murray, well known resident of Unionville, died at the Centre County hospital, at 5:10 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, as the result of injuries sustained about an hour previous when he was hit by an automobile driven by Walter R. Cliffe, of Bellefonte.

Mr. Cliffe was returning from a trip to Union Furnace, consequently was driving east on the concrete highway which passes through Unionville. Mr. Murray was standing on the highway talking to the driver of a truck parked opposite the filling station near the Triangle about the centre of the town. When Murray saw the approaching automobile he attempted to get out of the way but was too late and was hit by the machine and thrown some distance. He was brought to the hospital as quickly as possible where it was found that he had sustained a fractured left leg, chest injuries and suffered from shock. He died in less than an hour after reaching the hospital.

A coroner's inquest was held on Sunday afternoon which resulted in a disagreement, four of the jurors advocating absolving Mr. Cliffe of all blame for the accident while two demurred on doing so.

Mr. Murray was 62 years old and had been in the employ of the P. R. R. for a number of years. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. McDonald, of Coleville.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Williams cemetery.

OUR TRANSPORTATION
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Recently in its "100 Years Ago Today" column the Philadelphia Inquirer published the following paragraph noting a change in the schedule and routing of the stage coach line that was then Bellefonte's only means of transportation and communication with the outside world. It is as follows:

Philadelphia and Erie Stages—A new arrangement of the Bellefonte and Meadville stages has been adopted by which the passage from Philadelphia to Erie is accomplished in four and a half days. Passengers leave Erie for Meadville on Monday, Tuesday and Saturday, in the evening stage; also leave Harrisburg Monday, Wednesday and Saturday for Bellefonte, at 8 o'clock p.m. The advantage this route possesses over others is the shortness of the distance, it being 62 miles less than any other route—170 miles are of a clay and gravel road, with a smooth surface—the fare is $20 from Erie to Philadelphia, a distance of 370 miles. This line passes through the villages of Franklin, Shippensburg, Brookville, Lewisport and Harrisburg to Philadelphia.

MANY "STATE" STUDENTS DROPPED FOR LOW GRADES

Ninety-five students were dropped automatically from the Pennsylvania State College at the end of the first semester for failure to maintain the scholastic standards required by the college. Ninety advanced and graduate students enrolled for the second semester, offsetting this loss in resident enrollment.

Fifteen of the ninety-five who were dropped were reinstated by faculty action upon review of their individual cases. Students are automatically dropped after making unsatisfactory records in half of their subjects. Any extenuating circumstances are considered by the faculty in reviewing the action.

CAMBRIA COUNTY MAN
ELECTROCUTED MONDAY

The second electrocution at Rock view penitentiary this year took place on Monday morning when Joseph Roman, 39 years old, was put to death for the murder of his wife, at Amsbury, Cambria county in May, 1931.

Roman displayed pronounced nervousness as he went to the chair but was able to walk without being supported. Prior to leaving his cell he was profuse in his thanks to his guards and Rockview officials for their kind treatment during the two days he was in the death house. Roman's body was unclaimed and was buried in the penitentiary cemetery.

The killing of Mrs. Roman followed her husband's release from the Cambria county jail where he had served a sentence for desertion and non-support. During his term in jail Mrs. Roman had been at the home of her parents. As soon as released Roman sought her out for the alleged purpose of effecting a reconciliation. His wife met him on the back porch of her parents' home. After talking a few minutes Roman pulled a gun out of his pocket and shot her in the right shoulder. She turned to go into the house when he shot her in the neck and she dropped dead at his feet.

Roman escaped but was caught in the vicinity of Tyrone three days later. He was tried in June and convicted, the death penalty being recommended. No application was made to the Board of Pardons for clemency.
