UNIONVILLE.

J. F. Bower, of New Cumberland, brother of Mrs. Arista Lucas, died of pneumonia March 7th. Last week was the ice harvest for a number of our people who got busy and filled their ice houses. The condition of Mr. John Askins, who was operated upon for a tumor of the stomach, is reported as being as well as can be expected. Miss Hannah Thompson celebrated her 84th birthday, on Monday. Quite a number of her friends and relatives called during the afternoon. The Ladies Aid society of M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Brugger, Monday afternoon. They planned for a doughnut sale to be held next Wednesday. Anyone wishing to get some can give their orders to the Mrs. Estella Parsons or Mrs. Anna Finch. After the meeting Mrs. Brugger served very nice refreshments. Mrs. Margaret Groves and children, little Margaret and Frances, who have been visiting their aunt, Miss Hannah Thompson, for several months, started for their home in Florida, last Friday, by automobile. Their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona, accompanied them. Mrs. Stevenson will remain in Florida for an indefinite visit. The revival meetings in the M. E. church, at Milesburg, closed Sunday evening. They were very interesting and helpful and much good was accomplished. Monday evening, Rev. Crawford, assisted by Mr. Mossholder, started in with revival services, started in with cordially invited. After several weeks of revival services in the Free Methodist church here, in charge of Rev. William Kerry, the meetings closed last Thursday evening. Much interest was manifested by the large number in attendance. Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Arista Lucas were her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. William Bouch and two children, Mrs. George Yapp and son Daniel, all of Kittanning. They returned to their homes, one day last week, traveling by automobile, and when within twenty miles of their home their car upset and the women were seriously injured. One of several ribs broken. Mrs. Lucas, who met with an accident at her home a few months ago, receiving fractures of the hip, is convalescing very nicely, and always is pleased to have her friends visit her.

HOWARD.

Miss Laura Miller, of Lock Haven, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey. Mrs. Mary Mayes Hoffman entertained at a family dinner, at her home last Sunday, in honor of her little daughter, Suzannah's birthday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. and for another in Tyrone March 23rd before Kiwanis Club and Pennsylvania Railroad Clubs of that city. At the regular monthly meeting of school directors Saturday evening at Secretary G. E. Corl's home, the following teachers were elected for the coming term as first instructors in the new building: Principal H. S. Illingsworth, Alton B. Corl, Mary Burwell, Ella Livingstone, Armina Hemminger, Mabel Bressler and Maud Miller with two for high school work to be chosen in the future. The sad passing of a sweet little girl Sarah L. Musser, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Musser of Mill Hall died at her home Thursday at 3:30 P. M. after an illness of only 10 hours from diphtheria. She was born at Rock Springs December 11, 1927. Her bereaved parents and two sisters, Anna Jane and Isabelle Kathryn survive to mourn her loss. The family has the sincere sympathy of their many friends in the valley. Better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all. Interment this Friday P. M. in Graysville cemetery with Rev. Conrad Bluhm, Presbyterian minister of Mill Hall, in charge assisted by Rev. S. R. Brown of Graysville.
