Palm Sunday in the Bellefonte Methodist church was characterized by most inspirational singing. The splendid program offered by the church choir was supplemented by the Kentucky Harmony Singers, who were in town for the day, and a male chorus of thirty-six voices from First church, Lewistown. The latter under the leadership of Charles Hartzell, chorister, came over to sing at the western penitentiary and took advantage of the opportunity to make a surprise visit to worship under their former pastor, Dr. Horace Lincoln Jacobs. Incidentally, in the Sunday school the men of this church attend the average Sunday enrollment is well over a thousand. The Bellefonte school had 411 present that morning and regarded that attendance something to be joyful for.

aids to faster, easier ironing
In spite of three big improvements, the price of this famous iron has not been increased. On the contrary we now, for a limited time only, allow you $1 for your old iron—any make or condition.
1 Heavy, damp clothes don't cool off the new "American Beauty." The 1000-watt element ensures fast heat recovery, enabling you to make real time.
2 The "American Beauty" heat-control is also adjustable to a lower heat than ever before—for the safe ironing of "flimsies." And any other heat you want as long as you want it.
3 The new chromium finish won't tarnish. Its gliding smoothness makes the gliding ever so much easier.
