

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Rev. W. E. Gibbons, pastor of the Bellefonte A. M. E. church, is 82 years old and has made his plans to retire from the active ministry at the close of his pastoral year here.

Word was received in Bellefonte, this week, of the marriage, at Toronto, Canada, of Miss Helen Martha Otto, of Niagara Falls, but formerly of Bellefonte, and Frederick Joseph Pitz, of Toronto.

Austin Furst, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Furst, of Linn street, will enter the Gillman school for boys, near Baltimore, on the 29th. He will do special work preparatory to taking examinations for college in the fall.

Mrs. Sarah J. Boak, widow, of Pine Glenn, was fatally injured when knocked down by a hit-and-run motorist, at a street intersection in Williamsport last Saturday. The driver of the machine was not apprehended.

The customary session of court was not held in Bellefonte, last Saturday. Judge Fleming, who has been holding court in Philadelphia, got caught on a case of some length and was unable to return home on Friday evening, as usual.

The district board of control of the Central Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's association has ratified the dates selected by the Phillipsburg fire department for holding the annual convention in that place, namely, August 17th and 18th.

Wallace King, 43 years old, of Millheim, was arrested in Williamsport, Saturday evening, for annoying women in the shopping district. He was given a hearing in police court, Sunday morning, and fined $7.00. Being unable to settle he was sent to jail for five days.

W. C. and J. C. Shoemaker, of State College, have filed a petition with the Public Service Commission requesting permission to operate a call on demand freight bus service to and from State College, Bellefonte, Tyrone, Lewistown and other points in Pennsylvania.

The Keystone Gazette property, both building and printing plant, has been legally transferred from the ownership of Thomas H. Harter to that of Charles F. Mensch and his son Charles Jr., with Mr. Harter's name flying at the masthead as "editor emeritus," and will bet dollars to doughnuts that he'll still continue to dictate its political policy.

Dr. O. E. Baker, national authority on land economics in the United States Department of Agriculture, will speak at the second annual short course for Grange lecturers at the Pennsylvania State College, today. His subject will be "Economic Changes and their Effect on Present Problems in Agriculture."

Doctor Baker will speak also at the lecturer's banquet this evening.

Winners of the annual livestock judging contest conducted by the animal husbandry department of the Pennsylvania State College were announced last Saturday. Two Centre county boys are on the list, Roy D. Shoemaker, of Pine Grove Mills, won the contest for students who have had more than one course in judging, while William P. Campbell, of Centre Hall, stood sixth in the amateur contest.

Through an error that this office has been unable to account for the wrong attorney has been advertised as being the legal advisor in the matter of the settlement of the estate of the late Capt. Wm. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills. Arthur C. Dale Esq., is the attorney in the case and all matters in reference thereto should be referred to him and not to the one advertised during the past two weeks.

King Morris, who is one of the traffic superintendents in the Pittsburgh district of the Bell Telephone Co., recently served on the committee that judged the quality of the voices of thirty-six hundred women. The purpose was to select the one voice best adapted for radio broadcasting. The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph conducted the audition and the committee made its selection without seeing any of the contestants.

In the Potter county court, last week, William Johnson, of Howard, was sentenced to ten months in the Allegheny county work house, and Ray Nihart, of Castanea, Clinton county, was placed on probation for three years in charge of the Clinton county probation officer for breaking and entering a hunting camp, near Galeton, in company with two girls. One of the girls was sent to an industrial home while the other was returned to her parents.

Dr. W. A. Barrett, physician at Rockview penitentiary, has filed with the county commissioners a bill for $100 for assisting coroner W. R. Heaton in performing an autopsy on James Araeri, the Italian inmate at Rockview penitentiary, who died on August 2nd, 1931, as the result of a fractured skull sustained by being hit on the head by John Denmark, another inmate of the psychopathic ward. The fee for such services in Centre county during the past twelve years has been $10 minimum and $15 maximum.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK HERE AND ELSEWHERE

WEILAND.—John M. Weiland, for many years a well known resident of Harris township, passed away at his home at Palmyra, Lebanon county, last Friday. Seventeen years ago he was stricken with paralysis and since then had suffered several additional strokes and, though he was always optimistic regarding final recovery, he finally succumbed to the inevitable.

He was a son of David T. and Catherine Wieland and was born at Cedar Creek in March, 1863, at his death being 69 years, 2 months and 2 days old. When a boy the family moved to Boalsburg and it was there he learned the trade of a coachmaker. Eventually he and his brother Calvin and Al Gingerich opened a shop of their own, building buggies, spring wagons and farm wagons, all of their product finding ready sale among the farmers of Centre and adjoining counties. They finally retired from the business and eighteen years ago John and family moved to Palmyra where they have lived ever since. He was a lifelong member of the Reformed church.

Surviving him are his wife and the following children: J. Guy, Boyd O., Daniel A., Mrs. William Klingler, Dorothy, Charlotte and Rebecca, all of Lebanon county. Two daughters, Grace and Mrs. McElwain preceded him to the grave. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. O. L. Rishel, of Factoryville; Mrs. Joan F. Zeigler, of Altoona; Mrs. John Garbrick, of Bedford; Mrs. M. E. Leitzel, of Miami, Fla.; Frank E., of Linden Hall; A. P. and W. S., of State College; Samuel W., of Palmyra; Calvin N., of Orbisonia; Clyde F., of Scott's Bluff, Neb., and Daniel T., of Thalheim, Cal. All the brothers and sisters were present at the funeral except Mrs. Leitzel, Samuel, Clyde and Daniel.

The remains were taken to Boalsburg, on Monday, where funeral services were held in the Reformed church on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Limback, of Palmyra, had charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. Link, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

RUPERT.—Mrs. Candace Rupert, widow of William Rupert, for many years residents of Beech Creek, died on Wednesday of last week, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Sherlock, in Altoona, as the result of general debility.

She was a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Ridge and was born at Beech Creek on May 31st, 1850, hence was almost 82 years old. She was a member of the Baptist church, at Blanchard, most of her life. As a young woman she married William Rupert who died five years ago but surviving her are the following children: Harry Rupert, of Williamsport; Edward, of Snow Shoe Intersection; William, of Eagleville; Ernest, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. William Sherlock, of Altoona; Fleming Rupert, of Julian; Joshua and Clair of Beech Creek. She also leaves three brothers, Virgil Ridge, of Blanchard; Henry and Jesse, of Lock Haven.

The remains were taken to Blanchard where funeral services were held in the Baptist church on Friday afternoon, burial being made in the Fearon cemetery, at Beech Creek.

SMULL.—Mrs. Ellen Breon Smull, wife of Charles C. Smull, died at her home at Smulton, on Thursday of last week, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Her maiden name was Ellen Breon and she was born in Miles township 59 years ago. She was a member of the Reformed church, at Rebersburg, for many years.

In addition to her husband she is survived by the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Harry Zeigler, Mrs. Paul Winters, Mrs. Palmer Bierly and Mrs. R. C. Brungart, all of Rebersburg; Mrs. Lester L. Meek, of Bellefonte; Clarence Smull, of Philadelphia; Eugene, of Pittsburgh, and Earl, of Jenkintown. She also leaves three brothers and three sisters, George Breon, of Ogden, Utah; Ezra, of Columbus, Ohio; Miles, of Rebersburg; Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg, of Spring Mills; Mrs. E. F. Swope, of Nittany valley, and Mrs. Daniel Sheehan, of Smulton.

Funeral services were held in the Reformed church, at Rebersburg, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by Rev. Arthur J. Miller, burial being made in the Rebersburg cemetery.

EARON.—John B. Earon, of Beech Creek, died at the Lock Haven hospital last Thursday night, following a brief illness with pneumonia. He was born in Beech Creek township 77 years ago. He engaged in farming most of his life but retired a few years ago and became a resident of Beech Creek. He was a member of the Methodist church and the P. O. S. of A.

He married Miss Anna Quay, who survives with two sons and two daughters, Joseph C., of Beech Creek; Clarence, of Altoona; Mrs. Stella Packer, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Jesse Glossner, of Beech Creek. He also leaves one brother and three sisters, Adam Earon, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Annie Waite, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Emma Salmon, of Mill Hill, and Mrs. William Wren, of Juniata.

Funeral services were held at the Earon home at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. David Neilson, burial being made in the Disciple cemetery.

ROWE.—Following an illness of only four days J. Samuel Rowe died at his home in Centre Hall, at 5 o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week, the direct cause of death being a stroke of paralysis.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowe and was born at Howard on March 23rd, 1858, hence was within a few days of being 74 years old. As a young man he worked for a number of years as a tanner and about 45 years ago located in Centre Hall where he operated a tannery for a number of years. Later he secured a job with the Power and Mining Machinery Co., installing stone crushers and it was while at work on a plant at Hamilton, Can., that he had his right leg so badly crushed that it had to be amputated above the knee. When he recovered he engaged in plumbing and the sale of pumps, in which he was quite successful. He also served a number of terms as assessor in Centre Hall borough. He was a member of the Reformed church and the Centre Hall lodge I. O. O. F.

He married Miss Catherine Harriet Stump, who survives with five children, Bruce D. Rowe, of Newark, N. J.; John L., of Atlantic City; Mrs. J. W. Bradford, Miss Verna and Mrs. J. S. Boozer, all of Centre Hall. He also leaves one brother, George W. Rowe, of Boalsburg, and a half brother, Daniel E. Rowe, of Beech Creek.

Funeral services were held at his late home at 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, by Rev. D. R. Keener, burial being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

FLACK.—George S. Flack, well known resident of Bellefonte, was found dead in bed at his home on Reynolds avenue, last Saturday morning. Ordinarily he was the first to get up in the morning. Failing to do so Saturday members of the family went to his room to see if he was sick and found him dead. His death was evidently the result of a heart attack.

He was a son of Thomas and Catherine Flack and was born at Howard 79 years ago, though most of his life was spent in Bellefonte. As a young man he learned the trade of a puddler and for years worked at the old Valentine rolling mill. His health finally broke under the strain of such hard labor and he spent more than twenty years in a State hospital.

He married Mildred Ginter who passed away many years ago but surviving him are three daughters, Miss Nellie and Miss Blanche Poorman, at home, and Mrs. C. P. O'Brien, of Cleveland, Ohio. He also leaves one brother, Harry Flack, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held in St. John's Catholic church, of which he was a member, at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, by Rev. W. E. Downes, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

GUISEWITE.—Franklin P. Guisewite, a well known resident of Haines township, died on Wednesday morning of last week, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Miles Stover, near Woodward, following an illness of some months with a complication of diseases.

He was a son of William and Mary Wert Guisewite and was born in Haines township on October 8th, 1863, hence was 68 years, 5 months and 8 days old. As a young man he learned the trade of a blacksmith and followed that occupation most of his life. He married Miss Annie Rebecca Stover who died a few years ago but surviving him are one son and two daughters, Fred S. Guisewite, of Long Island; Mrs. Mary E. Bowersox and Mrs. Stover, of Woodward.

He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Grant Miller, of Green Burr.

Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church, at Woodward, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by Rev. A. C. Paulhamus, burial being made in the Woodward cemetery.

FYE.—Mrs. Margaret Jane Fye, widow of James W. Fye, died at her home near Curtin, last Friday afternoon, as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained three days previous, aged 75 years.

She is survived by seven sons and two daughters, Samuel H. and Walter R. Fye, at home; Harry O., Franklin A., Jesse R., and Clayton H., all of Lock Haven; Orrin, of Jacksonville; Mrs. J. W. Thomas, of Montoursville, and Mrs. Clyde McKinley, of Clymer, Indiana county.

She was a member of the Brethren in Christ church and Rev. L. F. Sheetz had charge of the funeral services which were held in the Church of Christ, at Romola, at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, burial being made at Romola.

GLENN.—Mrs. Sue Burd Glenn, wife of William Glenn, passed away at her home at Brookville, on Tuesday, following an illness of some weeks. She was a native of Centre county and prior to her marriage to William Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Glenn, of Bellefonte, lived with the family of Edward Tyson, who conducted a butcher shop in the building now occupied by the Centre Democrat. Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Glenn moved to DuBois and about twenty years ago to Brookville. Mrs. Glenn's only survivor is her husband. Mr. and Mrs. George Glenn and son James went to Brookville, yesterday, for the funeral.

THOMPSON.—Daniel Bush Thompson, youngest son of George B. and Magdalene Callaway Thompson, of Bellefonte, passed away at the Centre County hospital, shortly after one o'clock on Wednesday morning, as the result of post-flu pneumonia. Both he and his mother were victims of the disease at their apartment in the Bush Arcade. Daniel had suffered several attacks and his final relapse came, on Friday after he got up out of his bed to minister to the wants of his mother. He was taken to the hospital, Saturday morning, pneumonia advanced and his death followed.

He was born in Bellefonte on August 5th, 1915, hence was in his seventeenth year. His childhood was spent on the farm at Alto. Later he lived at Centre Furnace and was a member of the sophomore class in the Bellefonte High school. Of a rather retiring disposition he spent most of his time when not in school at home with his mother, consequently was not generally known among the people of the town. He was a member of the Episcopal church and Sunday school.

In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers, John I. Thompson, of Westfield, N. J., and George B., of Jersey Shore. Funeral services will be held at the Thompson apartment this (Friday) afternoon, by Father Gast, burial to be made in the Bush lot in the Union cemetery.

GRAY.—Miss Mabel Eugenia Gray, a graduate nurse, died at her home at Julian on Saturday morning, following a week's illness with pneumonia.

She was a daughter of Irvin G. and Mina Goheen Gray and was born at Stormstown about 33 years ago. She took a course in nursing at the Altoona hospital and for a number of years practiced her profession in Altoona. Her mother died over twenty years ago but surviving her are her father, three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Pearl Chase, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ruth Knori, of New York City; Helen, married and living at Media; Jean and Clyde, of Halfmoon township.

Funeral services were held at her late home at Julian at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon, burial being made in Gray's cemetery.

RIDER.—George Rider, a lifelong resident of Marengo, in West Ferguson township, died at the Phillipsburg State hospital, Monday morning, following several months' illness with a complication of diseases.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rider and was born near Marengo on August 2nd, 1856, hence was in his 76th year. He was a farmer by occupation, a member of the Lutheran church and the Knights of Malta. He married Miss Mary C. Naragon who survives with three sons and one daughter, L. H., O. W. and A. U. Rider, and Mrs. Nancy Barr, all of Marengo.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in the Lutheran church at Gagesburg, by Rev. J. S. English, burial being made in the Gagesburg cemetery.

COLPETZER.—Mrs. Malinda Colpetzer, wife of William Colpetzer, died at her home in Spring township, on Sunday evening, following a brief illness with the grip.

Her maiden name was Malinda Tressler and she was born in Centre county on June 3rd, 1841, hence was almost 91 years of age. She married Mr. Colpetzer fifty-seven years ago and he survives with three children, Keturah Elizabeth, at home; John, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and William H., of Bellefonte. She also leaves one brother, William Tressler, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held at her late home, at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. C. A. Metzger, assisted by Rev. C. C. Shuey, burial being made in the Meyers cemetery.

Mr. Colpetzer died on Wednesday night, a few hours after his wife's funeral, and will probably be buried tomorrow.

WAY.—Following an illness of some months with a complication of diseases Mrs. Thomas B. Way died at her home, near Stormtown, on March 12th. In addition to her husband she is survived by eight children, Stanley Way, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Arlene Wren, in Virginia; Emily, Kenneth, Boyd, Martha, Pearl and Donald, all at home. The funeral was held on Tuesday of last week, interment being made in the Friends burying ground.

Flick.—Lewis Flick, nineteen year old son of James B. and Eva Russ Flick, of Union township, died last Thursday following an illness of some weeks. In addition to the parents several brothers and sisters survive. Funeral services were held in the Free Methodist church, at Unionville, at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, by Rev. William Kerry, burial being made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

Rev. J. Ellis Bell, a retired minister of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at his home in York, on Monday, at the age of 84 years. He was at one time superintendent of the Altoona district and during his active ministry was regarded as one of the ablest pastors in the conference.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Garman have returned to open their home in Tyrone, after having spent the winter in Miami, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Johnston and family will drive to New Castle for an Easter week-end visit with the Wayne Stitzinger family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bilger drove to Renovo last week, where they spent a day visiting with Mrs. Bilger's parents, at their home in that place.

Clarence Hamilton, who is again in Bellefonte with his uncle T. B. Hamilton, on north Allegheny street, returned early in January, expecting to be here indefinitely.

The three members of Bellefonte's college set, who are students at Hood, Louise Meyer, Mary Louise Walker and Elizabeth Herr, are all home to spend Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. West were called to Latrobe, last week, by the death of Mr. West's brother-in-law, James N. McBride, whose funeral was held there Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Baum have had with them for the week their daughter, Mary, who is home for the Easter vacation from Ohio State University, at Columbus.

Catherine Irwin, a student at Miss Hillman's school, Philadelphia, arrived home, Saturday of last week, to spend the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. W. U. Irwin.

Georgette Purnell and a school friend are here from the Sargeant school, at Boston, Easter week guests of Georgette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Purnell, of east Curtin street.

Mrs. Charles Kurtz has with her her two children, Lola, a senior at Bucknell, and Frederic, of Penn State, both of whom arrived home Wednesday, for their Easter vacation.

W. Harrison Walker, who has been a dental patient at the Geisinger hospital this week, went over to Danville, Monday, to be under the care of dental surgeons for several days.

Miss Celia Moerschbacher, who was brought to Bellefonte two months ago for an appendicitis operation, has now entirely recovered and expects to return to Pittsburgh, Sunday, to resume her work in the McCreery stores.

Mrs. A. D. Sutherland is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartwick, having come in from Ambridge Sunday, hoping by the change to benefit her health. Mrs. Sutherland came to Bellefonte without any definite plans as to the length of her stay.

After a ten day's visit with her brother, Judge Donald McPherson and his family, in Gettysburg, Mrs. David Dale returned to Bellefonte Tuesday. The honor guest for Easter at the Dale home will be their daughter, Anne, a student at a private school in Washington, D. C.

The Misses Helen and Anita Shollenberger, who were guests, early in the week, at the John M. Keichline home, on east Bishop street, drove up from Philadelphia, Sunday, remaining in Bellefonte until Tuesday. The Misses Shollenberger were school mates of Miss Anne Keichline, at Cornell.

Miss Ruth Wetzel returned home to Milesburg, this week, from a visit with friends near Philadelphia. Miss Wetzel went to Philadelphia three weeks ago to enter the Protestant Episcopal hospital as a patient for several days, and since being discharged from there had been visiting with friends.

Mrs. A. O. Furst and Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin drove to Milton for the week-end, spending it there as guests of the James Chamberlain family. Easter guests at the Curtin home on Linn street will include Mr. and Mrs. Curtin's elder daughter, Caroline, who is at school in Washington D. C.

Penn State students who are spending their Easter vacation at home include Virginia and Jackson Spangler, William Curtin, Ross Beatty, John Smith, Reynolds Shope, Robert Bottorf, David Locke, Margaret Hassinger, Ralph Hang, William Thomas, William Brown, Peter Meek, Frederick Kurtz and Samuel Brieker.

Mrs. Albert E. Blackburn, who joined her sister, Mrs. James A. McClain here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Col. Spangler, at their home on Allegheny street, came up from Philadelphia a week ago, expecting to be in Bellefonte until after Easter. Mrs. McClain has been with her mother since the late fall.

Mrs. Wells L. Daggett went out to Cleveland, Monday afternoon, as a guest of her niece, Mrs. Maynard Murch, with plans for spending Easter and the early part of April with the Murch family and Mrs. Murch's sister, Miss Georgia Daggett. Miss Daggett went from New York to make her home in Cleveland with the Murch family, several years ago.

Theresa Shields, superintendent of nurses at the Braddock hospital, drove in from there, Saturday, for a short visit in Bellefonte with the family, the Michael Shields' of Logan street. On her return trip to resume her work Miss Shields was joined, in Ebensburg, by Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, who accompanied her to Pittsburgh to be a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ebe and the family, until today, when she expects to return home. Mrs. Shoemaker had been at Ebensburg for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Renner, of Altoona, stopped in Bellefonte Sunday for dinner at the Penn Belle on their way to Jacksonsville, for an afternoon visit with Mrs. Renner's mother, Mrs. James Bartley. Mr. and Mrs. Renner, both former residents of Bellefonte, are very actively interested in the relief work at Altoona; Mr. Renner as superintendent of one of the divisions of the P. R. R. shops, and Mrs. Renner as chairman of the woman's relief auxiliary of the same division.

Mrs. E. J. Cunningham has returned to Bellefonte to open her home on south Water street, after having spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Leopold in Akron, Ohio. Her son, H. M. Swabb, who lives in Cleveland, motored down to Akron for his mother and sister and brought them here on Monday. In consequence of the storm that day they had very rough traveling through western Pennsylvania, but Mrs. Cunningham stood the trip very well. Mr. Swabb and Mrs. Leopold will remain with her for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foster were up from Aaronsburg, Tuesday, on one of their occasional buying trips to Bellefonte.

Mrs. Walter T. McCormick went to her former home in Waynesboro, Wednesday, where she spent several days of the week with friends.

Mrs. James Clark and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Josephine Clark, were week-end guests of the latter's daughter, Miss Margaret Clark, at Ridgway.

Dr. Edith Schad came in from Pittsburgh, yesterday, expecting to be here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Warfield, for a part of the month of April.

Charles Dorworth Jr., a senior at Lehigh, is home for the spring vacation and will be here on west Linn street.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Meek were in Bellefonte for several hours, Tuesday, having driven up from Avis to look after some of Dr. Meek's Centre county business interests.

At the N. E. Robb home, on east Curtin street, the guests for Easter will be Miss Lelia, from Ardmore, and Miss Mary, from Phillipsburg, both of whom arrived in Bellefonte on Thursday.

Mrs. Harry Murtorff and Mrs. Willis M. Bottorf accompanied Mrs. Murtorff's daughter, Eleanor, to Camp Devitt, Wednesday, for Eleanor's weekly visit to her physician, under whose care she has been for a year.

Eugene Robb, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is among those home for the school vacation, having arrived here from Philadelphia, yesterday, to spend Easter with his mother, Mrs. C. Edward Robb.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Evans, and their daughter, have been here from Philadelphia, this week, guests at the R. Linn Mallory home, on Spring street. Mr. Mallory is now recovering from his recent illness.

Basil Mott, who has been in Bellefonte for a year or more convalescing from a long illness in a New York hospital, has been confined to the Mott apartment during the winter on account of climatic conditions.

Miss Helen Lyons drove over from Mt. Carmel, Saturday, for one of her frequent short visits here as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lyons, at their home in Bush addition. Miss Lyons returned home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Edna Kilpatrick, dental hygienist at Turtle Creek, will be accompanied home by a friend, both women to be guests, while in Bellefonte for Easter, of Miss Kilpatrick's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Kilpatrick, of Curtin street.

Miss M. C. Snyder went down to Washington, the fore part of the week, expecting to spend two days or more there with her niece, Mrs. Daly and her family, then go on to New York to do some buying for her Bishop street millinery store.

Mrs. Robert Hoy will come over from Brooklyn, Sunday, intending to spend a week here with Mr. Hoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hoy. Mr. Hoy will join his wife in Bellefonte, Saturday of next week, both returning home together the following day.

Miss Nellie Armor returned to Bellefonte, Saturday, from McKee's Rocks, where she had been for several weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Proudfoot and the latter's sister, Miss Mary Gross, of Axe Mann, who has been with the Proudfoots for the winter.

Miss Mary Dale, dietitian at Allegheny College, accompanied by Miss Buey, dean of women of the college, will drive in from Meadville, Saturday, with plans for spending Easter and next week, as guests of Miss Dale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dale, of east Curtin street.

Mrs. W. E. Weaver and her small daughter, Patty Lou, have been in Bellefonte for the week, guests of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mokie, of east Bishop street. Mr. Mokie drove to Pittsburgh, Saturday, and brought his daughter and granddaughter in on Sunday.

WITH THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN ENTERTAINING

The woman's auxiliary of the Brooks-Doll post celebrated St. Patrick's day with a card party at which nineteen tables of bridge and "500" were in play. The bridge prize was won by Mrs. N. A. Decker while the two "500" prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Wagner and Joseph Hazel.

At the St. Patrick's day tea sponsored by the young women's guild of the Presbyterian church, and given in the chapel Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Cliffe and Mrs. Denithorn poured, while Mrs. Shalcross played several piano selections. One hundred and twenty-five guests were present.

Miss Della Cross was hostess at a three table bridge party given at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor, on east Linn street, on the evening of St. Patrick's day.

The pupils of the sixth grade at the Bishop street school were the originators of the kitchen shower given, Friday afternoon, for their teacher, Mrs. Frank Lyon, formerly Miss Catherine Gardner.

Ten of Mr. and Mrs. Hays Mattem's close friends were their guests, Saturday night, when they entertained with three tables of bridge at their apartment in the Hart building.

Guests at the birthday dinner given by Mrs. Guy Lyons for Mr. Lyons, at their home in Bush Addition, included Mr. Lyons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyons, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mallory.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Table with 2 columns: Grain type and Price. Wheat .40, Corn .40, Oats .30, Rye .40, Barley .45, Buckwheat .35.