

RED LOVELAND PLEAD GUILTY TO EMBEZZLEMENT AND PLACED ON PAROLE

Fred Loveland, former clerk at the Belle hotel, who late in January ran away with a married woman and $970.60 of money belonging to the Pennsylvania Greyhound Bus company, appeared in court, Tuesday afternoon, entered a plea of guilty to embezzlement, the only charge preferred against him, and was sentenced to pay the costs, make restitution of the money taken and placed on parole for three years. It is understood that the young man's father, J. Blaine Loveland, of Mansfield, Pa., has been in Bellefonte this week, settling up his sons obligations. The first case taken up when the special session of court convened, on Monday morning, was one against Raymond Harpster, of State College, charged with a violation of the vehicle code, chief of police A. E. Yougel being the prosecutor. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty but by the costs.

M. W. Zeigler, state highway policeman, was tried for aggravated assault and battery, W. A. White being the prosecutor. A verdict of guilty was returned and the costs divided between the prosecutor and defendant.

When the case against C. G. Lear, state college, charged with a violation of the liquor laws, was called for trial the defendant failed to respond and a bench warrant was issued for him.

Joseph L. Mitchell, charged by Annie Booth with being the father of her child, stood trial, was convicted and given the usual sentence imposed in such cases.

Philip Dagan plead guilty to assault and battery and was sentenced to pay the costs and placed on parole for two years.

LeRoy Bechtel, the Woodward young man who recently was caught in the act of robbing the T. B. Everett store, at Madisonburg, plead guilty and was sentenced to pay the costs and placed on parole for two years.

TYRONE GIRLS TO PLAY M. E. TEAM HERE SAT. NIGHT

Tomorrow night, Saturday, at 8:15 in Bellefonte M. E. girls' basketball team will meet the St. Matthew's girls of Tyrone in what should prove a very interesting game.

The Bellefonte girls have the impressive record of having won seven out of eight games played against teams representing Lewistown, Spring Mills and the local Tri-Hi-Y. The visitors have also had a very successful season in the Tyrone-Altoona league, so that the records indicate a good game here.

Admission will be 10c for children, 5c for adults.

LOVE.—Miss Helen K. Love, a cousin of John G. Love, district attorney, of Bellefonte, died at her home in Tyrone, Saturday morning, following a long illness with a heart ailment.

She was a daughter of Harry C. and Mary McKee Love and was born in Tyrone on August 3rd, 1886, hence was in her 46th year. Her parents are both natives of Halfmoon township, Centre county. She is survived by her mother, one sister, and a brother, Mrs. Sue Woodbridge, of Tyrone, and Robert A. Love, of New York city.

She was a member of the Methodist church and Rev. Elmer F. Igenitz had charge of the funeral services which were held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Astlawn cemetery, Tyrone.

The W. L. Stonesifer family, who moved here from Williamsport and are occupying the east side of Mrs. John Porter Lyon's house; Mrs. Frances Musser and her mother, Mrs. Ellerman, who went from Petriken all, to Mrs. John Lane's apartment near the Hat Shop, and Mrs. Frank Weaver, who moved from the James Furst building to the Decker apartments, corner of High and Spring streets, are among those who changed homes during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dawson, Overbrook, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Louise Dawson, to Henry Lyman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lyman, also of Overbrook. Mr. Dawson is an old Bellefonte boy and his friends here will be interested in this bit of news.

The big brown trout that Commissioner Deibler presented to Bellefonte for its natural aquarium will be here early next Monday afternoon. They are coming by truck and will be placed in Spring creek, just below the falls.

"The Triad," a national publication of the Acacia Fraternity, in its March issue contains a page story and picture of George T. Bush, Bellefonte, devoted almost entirely to his activities in Masonic circles.

The opening meeting of the Bellefonte Garden Club, for the season of 1932, will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Yeager, on Spring street, on Wednesday afternoon, April 13, at 3 o'clock.

INTERESTING EVENTS IN BELLEFONTE SCHOOLS.

Bellefonte High debaters advanced one step closer to the County championship by winning two well-earned victories last Friday evening. The Bellefonte affirmative was adjudged the victor over an exceptionally strong and well-coached Millheim negative. The Bellefonte negative won a close contest from Port Matilda in the high school auditorium.

The results of the contests to be held this Friday evening, April 8, will determine the county championship. The Bellefonte affirmative will debate the Port Matilda negative here, while the negative will journey to Millheim. All other Centre county schools have been eliminated.

PUNISHMENT
A movement to punish high school pupils, who deliberately refused to participate in the conventional "Kids Day" idea, observed a few weeks ago, was instituted and carried out during the assembly period last Friday morning. Non-participants were arrayed on the platforms and forced, under oath, to promise participation in all school activities in the future.

CHARLES P. LONG.

Charles P. Long, the well known merchant of Spring Mills, wants to go to the Republican National convention to be held in Chicago in June. Two delegates are to be chosen to represent the 23rd Congressional district and Mr. Long is the only aspirant in Centre county.

Two years ago he unselfishly withdrew from the race for Congress in the interest of political harmony and materially assisted his party in some rather important matters.

He is one of the representative citizens of his community and has probably done more for his fellowmen during the past few years than any other individual. He is entitled to recognition and why not send him to the convention?

He's neither envious nor greedy, and manages to attend to his own affairs when discord is fomenting in the ranks of his party.

He'll be instructed, no doubt, by the people themselves, and if county Republicans want a voice in the convention the only way they can get it is by electing Mr. Long.

Political Advertisement
