

KIWANIS REVUE

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1932 8:15 P. M.

STATE THEATRE BELLEFONTE

MINSTRELS AND MUSICAL COMEDY

BENEFIT

Every penny raised by this performance will be used to correct crippled limbs, defective teeth, tonsils, etc., of the underprivileged children of Centre County. Last year approximately 20 crippled children were cared for and about 20 had dental work done. This work includes all children whose parents are unable to pay for surgeon's and hospital fees, braces, casts and other expenses involved.

The show is also being staged in Philipsburg and Tyrone and is being produced by Kiwanians. Proceeds of each performance to be used by the Kiwanis Club in the respective towns for similar purposes. This is a wonderful humanitarian work and your assistance is urgently needed.

Cook Electrically

...the Good Flavors can't escape!

Any housewife can prepare foods properly for cooking. But no woman, no matter how nimble, can keep some of the good flavors from escaping an old-fashioned oven.

Cook with a 1932 automatic electric range! The oven DEVELOPS FOOD FLAVORS to the full extent of their natural goodness—it's practically air-tight and HOLDS THEM IN.

Better flavors with the same recipes—you'll be amazed!

FREE...
"Simplified Cooking Chart"
