

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Ideal Manufacturing Co., of this place, makers of "The Magic Mistolator," received an order from one firm, on Saturday, for 135 of their vegetable tables.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Centre county Motor Club will be held at the State College hotel (2nd floor) Friday, May 6th, at 6 P. M.

Next Tuesday afternoon the Danville High school baseball nine will play the Bellefonte Academy on Hughes field, at 2:30 o'clock. Admission, 25 cents. The Danville team is being coached by a former Tri-State pitcher and is said to be very strong. Go out and see the game.

The Bellefonte chapter of the Red Cross has received an additional allotment of garden seeds from the National organization which they will distribute from the W. C. T. U. rooms, Friday and Tuesday afternoons. Anyone unable to buy garden seeds can get them there by applying in person.

The recently organized Jackson-Crisman-Saylor post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, moved, last week, from the third floor of the Watchman office to the Bogle property south of Bellefonte, better known as the Kew Gardens Inn. They have leased the property with an option to purchase the same at a reasonable price.

The May meeting of the Garden Club will be held Wednesday, May 11th, at 3 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Harry G. Witter, east Curtin street. Mr. Manus Curran, of the Orchard Hills Nursery, Mill Hill, will speak on plants suitable for a rock garden. Members are asked to take seedlings for exchange and also cut flowers for exhibit and ribbon awards.

On Tuesday morning an employee of the Bell Telephone company parked one of the company's big trucks in front of Dr. Hoffman's office, on Allegheny street, then went across the street. The brakes on the truck let go and the big machine started down the street and crashed into an electric light standard in front of the Masonic building, knocking it down and causing considerable damage.

The concert given by the Bellefonte student orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Louis Schad, in the Presbyterian chapel, last Thursday evening, was greeted by a large and very appreciative audience. After paying rental for rehearsals and concert music and printing bills, there was a net balance of $22.00, which was turned over to the Associated Charities.

State College is to have an airport. It is to be located between Oak Hill and Boalsburg, which will be several miles from the College town. The field will be 2000x2200 feet in size and located on high ground so that pilots will have no trouble coming down or taking off. A hangar 50x80 feet will be erected and arrangements contemplate lighting the field for night flying.

A list of 101 books suitable for a rural boy's library has been compiled by Willard P. Lewis, librarian of the Pennsylvania State College, and Miss Kathryn Stanford, librarian of the agricultural library at the college. Old favorites, Indian stories, travel stories, western stories and other fiction, poetry, stories about boys, stories of the air, and miscellaneous books compose the selections.

Up to the present time the County Commissioners have been unable to make an apportionment of the money received from the State for the benefit of the unemployed because of the fact that reports have not been received from all of the boards of auditors and overseers of the poor in the county. In the meantime there is a fund of $10,799.77 in the county treasury ready for distribution just as soon as all reports are in.

The Woman's Guild of the Presbyterian church served a supper in the chapel, Monday evening, which was followed by a little play, a farce in one act entitled, "Tel on Parle Francais." The cast of characters included Ethel Crider Mrs. Louise Campbell, Mrs. Julia Noll, Mrs. Hays Mattern, Lenore Capers, Martha Geiss and Virginia Beatty, and those who were fortunate enough to be present at the entertainment felt that it was well worth the price of admission.

Announcement was received in Bellefonte, yesterday, of the marriage of John Clark, a Bellefonte Academy student, and Mrs. Sarah K. Musser, of Bellefonte, but particulars as to where the wedding took place were not stated. Mrs. Musser is the widow of the late Francis Musser, who died less than a year ago. The bridegroom, who is only nineteen years old, is a son of Mrs. Jane Hall, of Warren, by her first husband. He has been a student at the Academy since January 1931. The couple left here on April 24th and are expected to return to Bellefonte some time this evening.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK HERE AND ELSEWHERE

BOOZER.—John F. Boozer, a native of Potter township but who the past forty years has been a resident of Osceola Mills, died on Saturday of last week, as the result of an intestinal hemorrhage, following three days illness.

He was a son of William and Catherine Keller Boozer and was born on a farm, near Centre Hall, on September 10th, 1855, hence was in his seventy-seventh year. His early life was spent on the farm but forty-one years ago he located in Osceola Mills and opened an undertaking establishment, a business he conducted until his death. A peculiar coincidence in his career as an undertaker was the fact that his first funeral was that of J. A. Woodstock and his last, only two weeks ago, was that of Mrs. Woodstock.

Mr. Boozer was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary Dale, of Centre Hall. She left one daughter, Mrs. John Millward, of Osceola Mills. On December 31st, 1908, he married Miss Cora Cassatt, of Lock Haven, who died five years ago, leaving one daughter, Miss Fay Boozer, at home. He also leaves one brother, David A. Boozer, of Centre Hall, who is now seriously ill in the Lewistown hospital. Mr. Boozer was a member of the Methodist church, the Odd Fellows and the Knights of Malta.

Funeral services were held at his late home, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. G. W. Faus, burial being made in the Osceola Mills cemetery.

ROWE.—George W. Rowe, a well known resident of Boalsburg, passed away last Wednesday evening as the result of complications developing from an attack of the flu he suffered some six weeks previous.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowe and was born at Eagleville, Centre county, on January 1st, 1860, hence was 72 years, 3 months and 26 days old. When he was a boy his parents moved to Centre Hall and there he grew to manhood and learned the trade of a blacksmith. He followed that occupation for many years finally moving to near Boalsburg where he engaged in farming on a small scale. He retired several years ago and located in Boalsburg. He married Miss Elizabeth Sweeney who survives with three daughters, Mrs. Harry Kuhn, of Williamsport; Miss Blanche, a government stenographer in Harrisburg, and Miss Daisy, employed at State College in a clerical position. He also leaves one half-brother, Daniel Rowe, of Beech Creek.

Funeral services were held at his late home, at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, by Rev. A. S. Asendorf, of State College, owing to the illness of the regular pastor, Rev. Wink, of the Reformed church, of which he was a member, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

NEWMAN.—Mrs. Lenna E. Newman, wife of Henry R. Newman, died at her home in Tyrone, on Tuesday of last week, following two year's illness with carcinoma.

She was a daughter of Joseph and Rebecca Decker and was born at Port Matilda on August 27th, 1833, hence was in her 98th year. In November, 1900, she married Mr. Newman and they lived at Julian until moving to Tyrone five years ago. She was a member of the Grace Baptist church, in Tyrone, and the Amona Bible class. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Glenn Taylor, of Hughesville; Mrs. Thomas Mason, of Philipsburg; Mrs. Robert Koch, of Pine Grove Mills; Miss Ruth Newman, of Allentown; Paul, Gerald and Glenn, at home. She also leaves three brothers and two sisters: John Decker, of New Castle; Mrs. William Valentine, of Bellwood; H. A. Decker and Mrs. Harry Irwin, of Tyrone, and Joseph Decker, of Sinking valley.

Funeral services were held at her late home in Tyrone, on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. John P. Harris, burial being made in the Julian cemetery.

TIBBENS.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Tibbens, wife of George T. Tibbens, passed away at her home on east Howard street, Bellefonte, at 4:10 o'clock on Sunday morning, following an illness of several years with a complication of diseases.

She was a daughter of George W. and Elizabeth Scholl and was born at Rock Forge on December 27th, 1863, hence was in her 69th year. On August 6th, 1885, she married Mr. Tibbens and they started their married life on a farm in College township. Later they lived in Benner township and for a number of years past had been residents of Bellefonte. She was a member of the Reformed church all her life.

Surviving her are her husband and one son, Earl O. Tibbens, of Bellefonte; also two sisters, and one brother, Mrs. James Miller, of Coleville; Mrs. Clement Dale, of Pleasant Gap, and Elmer Scholl, of Akron, Ohio. Funeral services were held at her late home at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. Robert Thera, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

KREAMER.—John Howard Kreamer, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Harrisburg, on April 21st, following an illness of several months as the result of an attack of the grip.

He was a son of Jonathan and Susan Stroh Kreamer and was born in Penn township on September 30th, 1858, hence had reached the age of 73 years, 6 months and 21 days. The early years of his life were spent on the farm but over forty years ago he located in Harrisburg and engaged in the wholesale produce business in which he was quite successful. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Harrisburg Rotary club and a director in the Camp Curtin Bank and Trust company.

Fifty years ago he married Miss Alice VanOrmer who survives with one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Shergar; of Harrisburg. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. A. A. Frank, of Millheim; Mrs. Mary Miller of State College, and Mrs. Cora Bowman, of Los Angeles, Cal. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon of last week, burial being made in the Harrisburg cemetery.

WOODRING.—Mrs. Phemie Jane Woodring, widow of G. Frank Woodring, died on Sunday afternoon, at her home in Tyrone following ten day's illness with pleuro pneumonia.

Her maiden name was Phemie Jane Cowher and she was born at Port Matilda on February 6th, 1858, hence was past 74 years of age. In 1877 she married Mr. Woodring and they located in Tyrone over forty years ago. She was a member of the Columbia avenue Methodist church. Her husband died 26 years ago but surviving her are the following children: Clark Woodring, Tyrone; Benner, of Williamsport; Mrs. B. C. Bowman, of York; Mrs. Clarence Galbraith, Mrs. Harry Uppdyke, Robert and Hubert Woodring, of Tyrone. She also leaves a half-brother and half-sister, Frank Newman, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. William Oberheimer, of Philipsburg.

Funeral services were held at her late home at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. S. W. Strain, burial being made in the Presbyterian cemetery, at Port Matilda.

FAUST.—Mrs. Rebecca J. Faust, widow of Howard Faust, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Cummings, at Centre Hall, last Friday, following an illness of some months.

Her maiden name was Rebecca Neese and she was born in Pennsylvania 75 years ago. Her husband died eleven years ago but surviving her are four children, Mrs. Harry Schuyler, Mrs. Harry Cummings and Charles Faust, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. James Reeder, of Spring Mills. She also leaves three sisters and a brother, Mrs. James McCool, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Sadie Ohl, of Nittany; Mrs. James Kane, in the State of Washington, and Adam Neese, of Lemont.

Rev. S. A. Greenhoe had charge of the funeral services which were held on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Sprucetown cemetery.

ROYER.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Royer, wife of John H. Royer, died on the night of April 21st, at her home near Sprucetown, following a lingering illness.

She was a daughter of William and Elizabeth Moyer Boal and was born near Colyer in 1858, her age at death being 73 years, 5 months and 9 days. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Fred H., of Potters Mills; Mrs. Charles Eungard and Mrs. Gardner Long, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Lester Goss, of Milroy, and Ray Royer, of Potters Mills. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. William Lingle, of Milroy.

Funeral services were held at her late home on Monday morning of last week, by Rev. W. E. Smith, burial being made in the Zion Hill cemetery.

WALK.—Benjamin F. Walk, for many years a resident of Taylor township, died on Saturday morning, at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Joseph Decker, in Sinking valley, as the result of general debility.

He was born at Hannah Furnace 80 years ago and spent most of his life in that vicinity. He is survived by one son and a daughter, John Walk, of Tyrone, and Mrs. John Quick, of Morrisdale. Funeral services were held, on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of a granddaughter, Mrs. Jesse Light, in Tyrone, burial being made in the Mount Pleasant cemetery, near Hannah Furnace.

FARLEY.—John Farley, who lived a short distance from Bellefonte along the Jacksonville road, died on Saturday morning, April 23rd, from a complication of diseases. He was 78 years old and was born at Hecla Park. He married Katherine Grafmeyer who died several years ago but surviving him are two daughters and a son, Elizabeth and Thomas Farley, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. M. H. Kustaborder, of Bellwood. Funeral services were held in St. John's Catholic church on Monday morning of last week, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

BEEZER.—Elias Beezer passed away at his home in Bush's Addition, on Sunday morning, following an illness of two years or more with a complication of diseases.

He was a son of Alois and Margaret Steinkercher Beezer, who came to this country from Alsace Lorraine, Germany, and was born on Spring Creek 73 years ago. Most of his life he worked as a butcher for the Beezer meat market. He married Miss Sarah Oswald, who survives with three daughters and a son, Mrs. John Gettig, of Swissvale; Mrs. David Miller, of Bellefonte; Ralph, in New Jersey, and Marie, at home. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters, Franklin and Christ Beezer, of Bellefonte; August, of Punksutawney; Mrs. John Garis and Mrs. Charles Kustaborder, of Bellefonte.

He was a lifelong member of St. John's Catholic church and funeral services were held in the church at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning by Rev. W. E. Downes, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

MCKINLEY.—Corbin McKinley, a native of Centre county but who for the past three years has been a member of the Detroit police force, died on Sunday afternoon following three week's illness with pneumonia.

He was a son of William and Chestie McKinley and was born in Boggs township on July 17th, 1901, hence was in his 31st year. He went to Detroit about eight years ago and three years ago was appointed a member of the police force of that city. He married Miss Lethia Richardson, of Detroit, who survives with a little daughter, Betty McKinley. He also leaves his parents, living in Boggs township, one sister and three brothers, Mrs. Roy Rockocny, of Bellefonte; Roy McKinley, of Howard; Claire, of Bellefonte, and Gregg, of Howard.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon and taken direct to the Advent cemetery for burial, Rev. M. C. Piper performing the burial service.

SHUEY.—Henry P. Shuey died at his home at Pleasant Gap, on Tuesday of last week, following an illness of two years.

He was a son of John W. and Mollie Rockey Shuey and was born at Dale's Summit 64 years ago. During the earlier years of his life he engaged in farming in College township, but for some years had been employed at Whitecroft Quarries. When but nineteen years of age he married Miss Emma J. Love, of Tusseyville, who survives with one son, Oliver Shuey, of Huhlersburg. He also leaves four brothers, Harvey Shuey, of Lemont; D. L., of Pleasant Gap; Ira and Jared, of Abilene, Kan.

He was a member of the Methodist church, at Pleasant Gap, where funeral services were held last Friday afternoon by Rev. C. A. Metzger, burial being made in the Zion Hill cemetery, near Tusseyville.

GRAFFIUS.—William E. Graffius, a retired railroad, died at his home in Tyrone, at 6 o'clock on Sunday morning, as the result of a heart attack.

He was a son of Thomas W. and Jane Elizabeth Stephens Graffius and was born in Halfmoon township, Centre county, on January 5th, 1857, hence was past 75 years of age. As a young man he entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, in the operating department at Tyrone, and held the position of general yard master when placed on the retired list five years ago. He married Miss Mary R. Ruffhead, of Jersey Shore, who survives with five children.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Eastlawn cemetery, Tyrone.

LUCAS.—Mrs. Malinda A. Lucas, widow of Capt. William Lucas, veteran of the Civil war, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Grant, at Patton, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, as the result of general debility.

She was born at Karthaus in 1840, hence was 92 years old. For many years the family lived in Philipsburg but since the death of her husband, in 1920, she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Grant. In addition to the daughter, two sons survive, Harry S. Lucas, of Portland, Oregon, and John H. Lucas, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were held at the Grant home on Friday afternoon, the remains being taken to Philipsburg for burial.

Excellent quality 55 lb. two layer cotton felt mattresses, $8.75. Genuine Rome Co. helical top coil bed springs, $8.75. Hand made 72 coil box spring mattresses covered in A. C. A. ticking, $16.00, during "National Invest in Rest Week," at Brachbill's furniture store. 19-1t

Mrs. George A. Miller will hold her annual sale of flowers for Mother's Day at the Miller hardware store, on Allegheny street, all day tomorrow. Of course white carnations will be specialized, but there will be many other beautiful cut and potted flowers to select from.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

T. King Morris Jr., will be one of a party of men from Pittsburgh, who will drive to Louisville, for the Kentucky Derby tomorrow.

The William Hurley's over-Sunday guests were their two daughters, Miss Hazel, of White Plains, N. Y., and Mrs. Paul Kerk and her son William, of Paoli.

Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Nisley, Miss Elizabeth Hart and Mrs. Willis Bottorf, drove to Harrisburg, Tuesday, in the Nisley car, the trip being one of business and pleasure combined.

Newell Long, assistant to the president of the First National bank, and Mrs. Long, drove to their former home at Emporium, Saturday afternoon, for an over night visit there as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shields and their two children, of Reading, Miss Thressa Shields, Supt. of Nurses at the Braddock hospital, and Miss Jean Hay, of Pittsburgh, were all guests at the Michael Shields home, on Logan street, Saturday and Sunday.

The Wayne D. Stitzinger family, of New Castle, and Mrs. Stitzinger's sister, Miss Martha Johnston, a student at Westminster College, drove in from the western part of the State, last week, to spend the week-end in Bellefonte, at the J. K. Johnston home.

Miss Emily Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, came home from Philadelphia this week, after completing her interne work as a dental hygienist. Miss Wilkinson will be in Bellefonte until deciding as to where she will locate permanently.

Henry S. Linn went to Philadelphia, last week, to attend an exclusive board meeting of the Pennsylvania Society of Cincinnati, and remained there for the triennial meeting of the general society, which was held at the Bellevue Stratford, Wednesday of this week.

When in Centre county recently for a visit back home to Half Moon valley, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clemson, of Allentown, spent the time with Mrs. Clemson's mother, Mrs. Frank Clemson, on the farm and with other members of the family here and at State College.

J. O. Brewer drove to Syracuse, N. Y., Saturday, spent the week-end there with relatives and returned home, Monday afternoon, bringing with him his sister, Mrs. William I. Newton, and her daughter, Emma, who will be with the Brewer family for a month or more.

After spending the winter with her daughters, Mrs. John Shaugnessy, of Lewistown, Mrs. H. M. Wood, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Ward Showers, of Pleasant Gap, Mrs. L. H. Wion is expected in Bellefonte this week and will occupy her house on east High street for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas, of Buffalo Run valley, were in Bellefonte, Friday afternoon, for several hours, being here to meet their daughter, Mrs. Van Housen, of Buffalo, who was the former Verna Thomas. Mrs. Van Housen expects to be with her parents for the month of May or longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Jodon, with Miss Belle Johnson as a motor guest, left Sunday on a drive east. The Jodons went to New York on business while Miss Johnson stopped in New Jersey with her sister, Mrs. Hollibaugh, who will leave her home in the care of her sister while she attends the general conference at Atlantic City.

Mrs. James Schofield has returned to Bellefonte to open her house, on south Thomas street, for the summer, after spending the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. G. Ross Parker and her family, at New Brunswick, and Mrs. McGinnis, at Allentown. Mr. Schofield is now with the Charles Larimers, with whom she will be until able to occupy her own home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bixler, who were down from Waban, Mass., the latter part of April, for a visit with Mr. Bixler's parents at Williamsport, were with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shattuck, at State College, and with the Potter family here for a short time while back home. Mrs. Bixler was the former Marguerite Potter, native of Bellefonte. Her early married life, however, was spent in Lock Haven.

The guests of Mrs. William McGowan on her week-end driving party were her daughter, Sister Oliva, of Lancaster, and Mother Francis, of Philadelphia, Miss Katherine McGowan, and Agnes Kellerman. The party, in Charles Miller's car, left Bellefonte Friday, driving direct to Rochester, where they visited with Mrs. McGowan's sister. From Rochester they went to Niagara Falls and then up into Canada, the return drive to Bellefonte having been made Monday.

E. Tirrell Tuten, elder son of Mrs. Earl Tuten, of Harrisburg, is anticipating spending the summer in Florida, having accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Pinedas Park, a suburb of St. Petersburg, for four months' service. Tirrell is a native of Bellefonte, a graduate of Philipsburg high, of Lafayette College and is now in his freshman year at the Theological seminary at Princeton. His plans are for motoring to Florida with friends about the 20th of May.

Mrs. Mary Waddle Adams and her son, Owen K., of Lock Haven, were in Bellefonte for the funeral of Mrs. George Tibbens, on Wednesday. While here Mr. Adams dropped in to make himself acquainted with the editor whom he delights in lambasting on occasion. It was quite a pleasure to meet the young gentleman and a gratification of a very great curiosity to know what manner of man has had the temerity to so frequently tell us "where to get off." We admitted much surprise and, presumably, it was mutual.

G. W. Ward, of Pittsburgh, who is back at his old home at Pine Grove Mills for a visit of several weeks, was in Bellefonte, Wednesday afternoon. He says everything is so flat out in the iron city that men are standing around with nothing to do except wait for the time to come when they can vote for a Democrat for President. Indeed Mr. Ward went so far as to express the belief that, based on what he hears, a man who predicts that Pennsylvania will go Democratic next fall need not be regarded as bordering on lunacy.

Miss Mary Norris, of Bel Air, is making her annual summer visit with Miss Caroline Valentine, at Burnham Place, having arrived here from Maryland Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Laird Curtin spent Sunday in Mercer county, having driven out for a visit of several days with Mr. Curtin's sister, Mrs. T. V. Hodges and her family, at Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beezer and their son Jack, of West New York, N. J., were among the out-of-town relatives here for the funeral of Elias Beezer, Wednesday. Ralph Beezer is the son of Mr. Beezer.

Mrs. Paul D. Sheffer was called to Kingston, N. Y., the early part of last week, by the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Price, and will remain there with her sister, Mrs. Price, for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Furst are entertaining Mrs. Furst's sister, Miss Mabel Harrar, of Williamsport, who came to Bellefonte, last week, expecting to spend a part of the month of May with the Furst family.

James McWilliams, a former Bellefonte Academy student, but now of the University of Pittsburgh, was here as an over Sunday guest of Louise Tanner, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tanner, of east Bishop street.

Last Friday Mrs. Odille Mott and her son Basil motored up to State College, where they picked up Mrs. Mott's two sisters, the Misses Pauline and Sidonia Bronoel and then journeyed on to Littlestown, Pa., for an over-night visit with the fourth sister, Mrs. Adam Redding. They returned to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mrs. Forrest Bullock was brought home from the Clearfield hospital, Sunday afternoon, where she had been for five days treatment by Dr. Waterworth. Mrs. Bullock is recovering from a year's illness, a part of which time she spent in the Clearfield hospital. Her condition now is so much improved that a permanent recovery is anticipated.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM FOR BELLEFONTE HIGH

The baccalaureate service for the graduating class of the Bellefonte High school will be held in the Presbyterian church, May 29th. Rev. Stuart F. Gast, of St. John's Episcopal church, will deliver the sermon.

Graduation exercises will be held June 2nd, in the Richelieu theatre. C. William Duncan, columnist and specialty writer for the Philadelphia Public Ledger, will deliver the address.

NEW TEACHERS ELECTED

Four new teachers were elected at a meeting of the school board, on Monday. They are Miss Kathryn Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy Johnston, as successor to Miss Elision Brion, musical instructor at the Bishop street building; Miss Dorothy Wilkinson, who will teach English and reading in the Bishop street schools, succeeding Mrs. Catherine Gardner Lyons; Miss Edna Kilpatrick, who will take the place of Miss Agnes Matthews as dental hygienist, and Harry A. Fraser, of Lancaster, who will teach biology and general science and serve as assistant athletic coach, taking the place of Donald Cochran.

MOORE.—Mrs. May Bigelow Moore, wife of Miles Moore, died at her home at Julian, last Friday, following a brief illness. She was a daughter of Jacob and Mary Catherine Bigelow and was born on August 8th, 1896, hence was in her 36th year. She married Mr. Moore in 1914 and he survives with the following children: David, Laura, Edward, Grace, Howard, Virgil, Kenneth and an infant son. She also leaves three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Jennie Reese, of Port Matilda; Mrs. Pearl Trimmer, Mrs. Mary Sponser, William and Wilbur Bigelow, all of Altoona. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, burial being made at Martha Furnace.

The Bellefonte High school, on Tuesday evening, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering. To celebrate music week Miss Catherine Johnson and Jack Yeager gave an interesting musical program. This was followed by a celebration of child health day. Dr. John M. Keichline, of Huntingdon, a former Bellefontian, gave an informal and instructive talk on "The Child and His Needs." He traced the development of the child from infancy to maturity, and outlined various physical and recreational necessities for healthful living. The evening was greatly enjoyed by an appreciative audience and Dr. Keichline's talk was especially instructive.

Inner spring filled mattresses as low as $9.00; also Rome Co. Simmons & Dougherty spring filled mattresses at reduced prices during "National Bedding Week," at W. R. Brachbill's furniture store. 19-1t

A special sale of latest style dresses at the low price of $4.00 and $8.00 will take place at Sarah K. Musser's dress shop, High street, tomorrow (Saturday.) A fine assortment to choose from. 19-1t

Subscribe for the Watchman.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Table with 2 columns: Grain type and Price. Wheat .55, Corn .40, Oats .30, Rye .40, Barley .40, Buckwheat .35