

Bellefonte, Pa., June 24, 1932.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Food sale at the Variety shop, conducted by section 4 of the Willing Workers class of the Lutheran church, Saturday morning, July 2, from 9 to 12.

-The six weeks summer school and close with the summer com- saturated the atmosphere in the patient last Monday. mencement on August 11.

-A crew of ten men were put working up stream.

appreciate at this time, daughter, Miss Mildred, to George A. Rothrock 2nd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rothrock, of Bellefonte.

his contract of repairing the Belleer to any section of the town.

- Shertly after noon, last Fri- prior to it's organization. tay, a hard rainstorm passed over a During the afternoon the young portion of Bellefonte. That is, it woman's guild of the Presbyterian rained hard for ten minutes over the church served refreshments. drop on Curtin street.

Bimm, are receiving congratulations fall flowers. on the birth of a daughter, born The judges at the show were A. Sunday, at Youngstown, Ohio. The E. Cloetingh and W. G. C. Thomplittle girl is their second child hav- son, of State College, and they had ing only one sister, Mrs. Bimm, of a job awarding the ribbons. There Charles Cruse.

years, of Potters Mills, is under very difficult. However, the two treatment in the Centre County hospital for face and head injuries the result of being hit by an automobile, ribbon and result of the best as it was possible to do. The list of operated by Donald Cuttshall, a traveling salesman, of Johnstown, last Friday. While the lad's injuries Class 1, Perennials—one variety to a vase, are serious they are not deemed of a critical nature.

in the year, according to the calen- Mrs. H. C. Yeager; consolation ribbon, dar, and it was to us, too. Out in Mrs. Thomas Beaver. hting Mexican beetles before five o'clock in the morning we wound up after ten at night try-Sharkey-Schmelling fight over a Yeager; consolation ribbon, Miss Holter, admitted on Sunday. radio that fairly sizzled with static of Howard. and electrical disturbances.

Caroline, elder daughter of Harry Yeager. Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin, of Linn St., completed the last year at Miss 2nd, Mrs. Harry Williams; 3rd, Mrs. Mick's school in Washington, D. C., Harry Yeager. with signal honors. She won the most coveted prize offered to students in the school; a scholarship tings; 2nd, Mrs. W. J. Emerick; 3rd, for scholastic and athletic excellence, Mrs. Harry Williams; honorable mention, that carries tuition for an advanced course in her chosen work, physical 2nd, Mrs. M. H. Brouse.

Peter and George Meek Jr., Downingtown today. The Meek boys Margaret Cook. will remain there until Monday and Class 2, Container Arrangement; Jacob will go on into Philadelphia
A. One Variety—1st, Miss Pletcher;
2nd, Mrs. W. C. Rowe; 3rd, Mrs. W. to stay with his aunt Sue Garner Harrison Walker. until the party returns. They went Thomas Downing, in Downingtown, Mrs. Charles Schaeffer. for ten days, back home.

---Traffic on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad was completely blocked patrick; 2nd, Mrs. Ivan Walker; 3rd, Titan Metal Co. for five or six hours, on Saturday afternoon, by the derailment of three Jr., 2nd, Mrs. Robert Morris; 3rd, Mrs. was the Pennsylvania-Lehigh trains, Rebecca Valentine. both east and west, were detoured by way of Sunbury and all passen- son; 2nd, Mrs. William Witmyer; 3rd, gers to points on the Bald Eagle read were held in Tyrone until the might train, which was late reaching Bellefonte.

-John B. Griffin, retired mer-Chant of Tyrone, and Mrs. Griffin Class 4, Roses-Container Arrangement: stopped in Bellefonte yesterday at The noon hour for a few minutes. John evidently retired when retire'n was good for he was driving a handsome new Packard and didn't seem to be worrying about anything. And we should say that a man sitting so to his old home in Stormstown, via tion, Mrs. Ivan Walker. Bellefonte, just to keep store so that hasn't much to worry about.

---The milk dealers in Bellefonte are now having troubles of their own. Recently they reduced the price from 10 to 8 cents a quart, honorable mention, Harry Witter. then wanted the farmers who supplied them with milk to assume a Thompson: 2nd, Constans Curtin; 3rd, big part of the cut. One of the Betty Long; honorable mention, Francis farmers, Roy Zimmerman, living Jodon. south of town, demurred. So he de-cided to establish his own milk 2nd, Catherine Cliffe; 3rd, Catherine Kilroute. He fixed up a dairy which is cliffe. a model of sanitary neatness and D, Bouquets-1st, Richard Knapp; 2nd started out by selling two quarts Mary Louise Johnson; 3rd, Betty Grove. The first day. Now he has in the Consolation prizes, Barbara McDowell; meighborhood of one hundred patrons Mary Catherine Walker, Stanley Musser, and has cut the price of milk to 7 Bill Musser, Harry Witter. cents a quart. While the war is on Rose Trellis, Linn Krape. the consumers will reap the benefit. The hand painted posters and pen ed upon it's success.

BEAUTY AND FRAGRANCE MARKED BELLEFONTE'S

One Hundred and Sixty-five Separin Presbyterian Chapel on Tues- on Monday of last week after underday.

show was held in the Presbyterian on Monday of last week. chapel on Tuesday afternoon. It was and quality. One hundred and sixty- a surgical patient. five separate exhibits (we counted spacious auditorium of the chapel.

to work, Monday morning, laying floriculture and inability to give the of a daughter, born at the hospital the new sanitary sewer pipe in names and anything near like an last Tuesday. Spring creek. Operations were start- accurate description of the large Adaline V. Walker, 6-year-old ed at Lamb street bridge, the men number and wide variety of flowers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George exhibited. In the garden we know Walker, of Potter township, was -The dropping of the Belle- onions, pumpkins, sweet corn and admitted last Tuesday for surgical fonte postoffice from the first to the tomatoes. We know roses, marigolds treatment. second class has resulted in a drop and sunflowers, but we are candid in office, a fact that all boxholders will names of one-fourth the flowers expatient last Tuesday. hibited. But we do know quality and best of care and cultivation from discharged on Thursday. the gardener who grew them.

The show was sponsored by the Bellefonte Garden Club but was open to exhibits from any one. The very -When C. A. Talbert completes fact that such a large number of exquisite flowers were shown justi- township, a medical patient, was he is getting only 30 cents. The re- in convention at State College. fonte reservoir the town's water fies assertion that the club, in the basin ought to be strong and tight one year of it's existence, has stimuenough to hold water without leak- lated an interest and wholesome ing, and high enough to furnish watflowers unheard of in Bellefonte treatment.

southern and middle sections of the The show was voted so much of a town. Out on Linn street only a success by all who visited it that small quantity of rain fell and not members of the club are favorably considering the proposition of having -Mr. and Mrs. E. Burnett another one late in the summer for better known in Bellefonte as Re- were so many exhibits that the becca Cruse, daughter of Mrs, tables were crowded and too many flowers were in most of the vases -Walter Palmer, aged eight so that the work of judging was ribbon and prize winners is as follows:

3 stems or sprays:

A, Delphiniums-1st Miss Blanche Underwood; 2nd, Mrs. Robert Morris; 3rd, Tuesday was the longest day Mrs. H. G. Witter; honorable mention,

B Peony-1st S 2nd, Mrs. C. E. Gates; 3rd, Mrs. Ivan Walker.

C, Iris-1st, Mrs. O. B. Malin; 2nd, E. Gaillardia-1st. Mrs. W. J. Emerick: 2nd, Mrs. Harry Williams; 3rd, Mrs. week.

F, Poppy-1st, Mrs. W. J. Emerick;

G. Other perennials not listed: Canterbury Bells-1st, Mrs. D. H. Has-Mrs. H. G. Witter.

Foxglove-1st, Mrs. W. J. Emerick; Miscellaneous-1st, Samuel Rumberger; 2nd, Mrs. Harry Yeager; 3rd, Mrs. Wiland Jacob Bottorf will drive to liam Pletcher; honorable mention, Miss

B, Mixed Variety-1st, Mrs. W. J. down to bring Miss Louise Valentine, Emerick; 2nd, Mrs. N. E. Robb; 3rd, who has been visiting her uncle Miss Helen Harper; honorable mention, Class 3, Roses:

A, Hybrid Teas-1st, Mrs. J. J. Kil-B, Hybrid Perpetual-1st, John Bower freight cars at Julian. The result C. E. Gates; honorable mention, Miss C, Climbing-1st, Mrs. Elwood John-

Mrs. Eben Bower; honorable mention, Samuel Rumberger. D. Best Single Bloom-1st. Mrs. Kilpatrick; 2nd, Mrs. Emerick; 3rd, Mrs. N.

E. Robb; honorable mention, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker. 1st, Mrs. George Beezer; 2nd, Mrs. Melvin Locke; 3rd, Mrs. Kilpatrick; honorable mention, Miss May Crider. Class 5, Plants: 1st, Miss Baldridge; 2nd, Mrs. Alten-derfer. Class 6, Vegetables and Herbs:

pretty that he could motor leisurely Nagle; 3rd, Mr. Nagle; honorable men-The special prize of five dellar's worth his younger brother, who is in busi- of plants and shrubs offered by Manus ness there, could go to a ball game, Curran, Mill Hall nurseryman, for the best all-around exhibit, was awarded to Mrs .Emerick. Class 7, Children's Exhibit:

A, Bird Houses-1st, Franklin Stevens; 2nd, Jack Port; 3rd, Constans Curtin;

B. Miniature Gardens-1st, James

PATIENTS TREATED

FIRST FLOWER SHOW Byrl V. Lose, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred ate Exhibits Displayed to Public Lose, of Bellefonte, was discharged going medical treatment. Franklin B. Harpster, of College Bellefonte's first annual flower township, became a surgical patient

AT COUNTY HOSPITAL

Glade E. Horner, of Potter town-

Edward Kachik, 12-year-old son of session at the Pennsylvania State them) were on display. The sweet Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kachik. of College will open Tuesday, July 5, fragrance of the beautiful blooms Spring township, became a surgical

> Mr. and Mrs. George R. Laird, of We openly admit ignorance of State College, are the proud parents

Miss Edith V. Armagast, of Ben-In the prices of mail boxes in the saying that we did not know the ner township, became a surgical

After undergoing surgical treat--Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. every vase and standard of flowers ment, John H. Johnsonbaugh, 3-Schickling, of Clearfield, have announced the engagement of their evidence that they had received the Joinsonbaugh, of State College, was discharged last Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Fleisher, of Huston

son, of State College, were discharg- told Risen he should make an efed on Thursday.

Charles Shreffler, of Pleasant payments. Gap, became a surgical patient on Thursday.

Pine Grove Mills, was discharged on that township because he failed to Monongahela City. Friday after receiving surgical make good on a court order to pay treatment.

Friday. Mrs. Helen Barron, of Williams-

Friday. Va., was admitted Friday for surgical treatment Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Miller, of Bellefonte, are rejoicing over the and is able to pay. Parole officer became a surgical patient on Satur-

Mrs. Barbara Keeler, of Belle- Judge Fleming stated that he had -Early Tuesday morning Miss Eliza- day of last week they visited here until medical treatment.

after receiving surgical treatment. Mrs. Annie Hoff, of Philadelphia, ing to get the low-down on the Mrs. W. J. Emerick; 3rd, Mrs. Harry is a surgical patient, having been

There were 44 patients in the hospital at the beginning of the

Mrs. W. C. Rowe entertained about two dozen friends at a buffet home, on north Allegheny street, on Robert VonStorch, of Scranton, and Wednesday evening of last week. Miss Agnes Miller Matthews, daugh-Nina Lamb and Mrs. George A. Neshaming Warick Presbyterian Hall tomorrow. Beezer. The decorations were choice church, at Bristol Road, near Philaflowers from her own lovely garden. delphia, the Rev. Ernest Vander-Hunter, Miss Helen Harper, Mrs. A. State College. C. Hewitt, Mrs. J. J. Kilpatrick, The bride is a graduate of the Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. H. H. Pat- Philipsburg High school, class of Blanche Underwood, Mrs. Harry G. versity of Pennsylvania. During the University and to bring her home. Witter, Mrs. Ivan Walker, Mrs. W. past four years she has been dental Harrison Walker, Mrs. Fred Witmer hygienist in the schools of Belleand Mrs. H. C. Yeager.

-Farmers in Centre county have begun cutting their clover fields for hay and one of the best fields we know of in the entire county is one of eighteen acres on the farm of A. C. Grove, just south of Bellefonte. It is an even, heavy stand all over the field and has an average height of three feet, though there are some spots where it is

---Roy Wilkinson motored to Danville, Wednesday afternoon, and brought home John Blanchard Esq., 1st, Mrs. A. O. Furst; 2nd, Mrs. H. who has been a patient in the Geisinger hospital for two months or longer. Mr. Blanchard has recovered to that extent that he walked out of the hospital to the car without any support and showed keen enjoyment of the ride home.

> and ink sketches used to advertise man, son of the late G. W. Rossman, the show were made by Marian of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Miss Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hazel I. Beck, daughter of Mr. and Will Smith, of Howard, and Jean Mrs. Clyde Beck, of Centre Line, McGarvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. motored to Sinking valley, last Wedall drew favorable comment.

Studio, were also much admired.

BELLEFONTE MAN

GRANTED A PAROLE,

the Allegheny county work house aract from her left eye. under a sentence for failure to obey children, Ralph Cole, of Bellefonte, was granted a parole at a special session of court on Saturday with the stipulation that he go to work a decided success both in quantity ship, was admitted last Monday as for L. A. Hill, stick to his job and pay $15 a month to his wife. Cole's low that work as a profession for the case dates back to about four years present. Evan was a third year man at ago when he was haled into court Yale last winter. and ordered to pay $25 a month. He _George McNichol, with the Bell Telenally in December, 1930, he was sent a tonsil operation. George has been to the work house. Mr. Hill was in with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James court when the application for a McNichol, of Howard street. parole was presented and told the -Mrs. William Wallis is expected here, court he will give Cole steady work; next week, for a visit with her mother, will give him board, louis of the Mrs. J. Will Conley, of Logan street.

Mrs. J. Will Conley, of Logan street.

Mrs. Wallis will come to Bellefonte from five dollars a week. Out of the Atlantic City, where she has been with money received he will have to pay Mr. Wallis attending a convention or $15 a month to his wife.

and his wife, Ida M. Risen, entered ton, the Larry Monohans and Mr. and with relatives here and at State College. into an amicable agreement that he Mrs. Burkee, of Pittsburgh, were here pay her $25 a month for the support for one of their frequent week-ends at Pittsburgh again making one of his fre-Risen had a good job with the one time residents of Bellefonte, have Mills, spent several hours in Bellefonte Abramsen Engineering company but many friends about here. a reduction of the force there lost -Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Young and their day after receiving surgical treat- for the American Lime and Stone visit with the children's maternal grand- to New York city, where they lived becompany at 60 cents an hour but re- parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. A fore moving south. Mrs. Charles T. Sellers, of Patton ductions in pay followed until now part of Mr. Young's time will be spent sult is he is back some $130 in pay-Mrs. George H. Fancher and infant to be paid at $5.00 per week and fort to pay something on the lapsed Harry K. Ulrich, of Bellefonte, a of his father, Rolle Gravish. The orsurgical patient, was discharged on der was made May 1st, 1930, and at Mrs. Ada Hillary, of Wheeling, W. Gravish be brought into court the month of July. overseers of the poor charged that he Mrs. Robert Roan, of Bellefonte, in bank, did not own stocks and aid under the Talbot relief fund. day with their aunts. put the costs upon the overseers of Rush township.

> a week for the support of his child, Noll. was committed to the Allegheny county work house.

and it is in that city they will make their home.

McDowell-Wilson-F. Edmund employee in the Campus Green room, father. forty inches tall. It is well headed were married last Thursday afterand should yield an exceptional crop. noon, in the First Methodist church at Luthersburg, by the pastor, Rev. L. L. Woodin. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Wilson, of Bigler, and the bridegroom Woodland. Both are graduates of in Clearfield. The young couple will reside at the College.

Rossman-Beck.-Allen R. Rossof peonies, work of the McGarvey the church and social life of her home community. The bridegroom is their return from a wedding trip. his car.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

-Mrs. Howard Gearhart spent the OTHER COURT CASES early part of the week in Altoona under Linn street. the care of Dr. Glover, taking prelimin-After serving nineteen months in any treatment for the removal of a cat-

-James O. Brewer, Jr., of north Thomas street. an order of support of his wife and Thomas street, has made application to enter the Mechanics Institute at Rochester, N. Y. James is the only son of J.

O. Brewer, the Bellefonte coal merchant. -Evan Blanchard went over to New York, the early part of the week, to learn the insurance business, intending to fol-never kept up the payments and was phone Co., at Harrisburg, has been home before the court several times. Fi- for the past ten days convalescing from furnace men.

Mrs. Henry G. Ellis, of State Col- ments to his wife and being unable home at Boalsburg, entirely recovered Mrs. Bruce Talbot. Mrs. Talbot was the lege, returned to her home on to pay the amount agreed upon ap- from his recent illness, was in Bellefonte, former Elizabeth Gamble. duced. The court fixed the amount while here being devoted to some bust- Shoemaker up from Philadelphia, Sunday, ness which accumulated during his ill- and will be a guest at the Shoemaker ness and in doing some buying.

kinson drove to Pittsburgh, a week ago, week. Rebecca to spend a week with Betty -The Misses Anne McCormick, Sue Edward Gravish, of Rush town- Curtin, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Marcie Seiler and a friend who is ship, was brought into court on a and Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of East End, and visiting at the Seiler home, motored here Ralph R. Williams, 11-year-old son bench warrant issued at the insist- Dorothy to be the guest, during the time from Harrisburg, on Wdnesday, to be of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, of ence of the overseers of the poor of of a college mate, Nancy Hartman, in luncheon guests of Miss Caroline Valen-

-Miss Tomazine Potter came up from $1.50 a month toward the support Ashbourne last week, to be in Bellefonte Md., who has been visiting Ann Dale indefinitely with the James H. Potter and Betty Peach, of Mitchville, Md., who family and her sister, Miss Lucy. Miss has been a guest of Caroline Curtin for Lucy Potter went over to Winburne this the past two weeks departed for their that time Gravish was able to make week to spend ten days or two weeks homes yesterday. The girls were all his payments but the depression hit with her cousin, Miss Mary Sommerville, schoolmates at Miss Hick's school in port, became a surgical patient on him and it was impossible for him and upon her return to Bellefonte, Miss Washington. to meet them. In their demand that Tomazine will go over for a part of the

-The Misses Dorothy and Helen Mc- from Cleveland, yesterday, and are now has a bank account of $5,000, owns Knight, daughters of Mrs. McKnight and guests of their aunt, Mrs. Wells L. Daghis property and bonds and stocks the late Robert McKnight, of Philadei- get. Mrs. Murch will only make a short phia, and a cousin, Miss Gailey, were in stay in Bellefonte while Miss Daggett birth of a daughter at the hospital Wilkinson stated that so far as he the Misses Margaret and Martha Mc- the Daggett family. Bellefonte recently for a short visit with will spend a part of her vacation with could discover Gravish had no money Knight, sisters of Robert McKnight. The young women came up on the last ex- were married two weeks ago, have been bonds, and was himself receiving cursion from Philadelphia to spend Sunfonte, was admitted on Saturday for known Gravish for a number of beth Hart, of Spring street, with Mrs. W. Sunday, leaving then for New York, where years and also knows that he never Hays Mattern, her daughter Patsy and they both will resume their work with Mrs. Harold G. Bohn, of State had $5000 in his life. He therefore her mother, Mrs. John Patton, of Holli- the Irving Trust Co. College, was discharged Saturday discharged the bench warrant and daysburg, who has been visiting the Matterns, left for a motor trip east that will last until their return today. Mrs. Mattern and her party will stop in Haver-Albert Baney, now living in Ly- ford for a visit with relatives while Miss ty. Their time, while here, was spent coming county, who has not made Hart will drive to Lansdowne where she good on a court order to pay $1.50 will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin O. State College and also with Mr. Musser's

-Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Grove and the week here with Mr. Grove's parents. VonStorch-Matthews.-A belated Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Grove, on the farm supper, at her delightfully pleasant wedding announcement is that of south of Bellefonte, and with other friends. Roy is still connected with the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania Those who assisted her in catering ter of Mrs. Matthews-Minich, of district. He is taking his vacation at Orvis Harvey. to her guests were Mrs. Wilbur H. Philipsburg, the marriage having this time because of the Grove family Baney, Miss Adaline Olewine, Miss taken place on March 25th at the reunon which will be held at Centre

-Maj. and Mrs. H. L. Curtin, their daughter, Nancy, with Mrs. Harry Cur-In addition to the above, other guests bosch officiating. Witnesses to the tin and her son, Harry Jr., drove to were Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, Miss ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Baltimore last week from where Mrs. Margaret Cock, Mrs. W. L. Daggett, Charles Kindred, of Bristol Road, Harry Curtin, Harry Jr., and Nancy, Mrs. G. Oscar Gray, Mrs. J. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glenn, of went by boat to Norfolk, for a visit with Mrs. Curtin's sister, Mrs. Wilcox and her family. Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Curtin were the former Eleanor and Elizabeth Ardell. From Baltimore, Major and Mrs. home at Harrisonville, near Pleasant Gap. tee, Mrs. N. E. Robb, Mrs. H. C. 1926, and later took a two year's Curtin drove to Philadelphia, to see their Taylor, Miss Mary Underwood, Miss course in dental hygiene in the Uni-daughter Mary graduate from Temple

> -Mrs. Joseph Allen and Miss Nutler, a class mate in the Georgetown University fonte and State College. The bride- training school for nurses, drove to groom is a graduate of State Col- Bellefonte from Washington, D. C., Frilege and is now employed by the day, in Mrs. Allen's car, and visited here Hudson Coal company, in Scranton, until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Edward Cunningham, at the Cunningham home on Water street. Mrs. Allen is only now recovering from a nervous breakdown and the Cunningham house having been closed while Mrs. Cunningham spent McDowell, telegraph operator in the the winter with relatives in Cleveland, that place today. The bride to be is Sara, Western Union office at State Col- Toledo and Akron, it was Mrs. Allen's second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willege, and Miss Madaline Wilson, an first visit home since the death of her liam S. Furst and the groom, David Bur-

> -Mrs. Joseph Abt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Badger with their daughter and son, Miss Anne Badger and Wilbur Badger; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eby and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartswick and Miss Irene Clevenstine, of Williamsport, arrived McClellan motored to Lewisburg, Wednesday of last week, to attend the drive to Illinois. While away they visited twenty-seventh annual reunion of the Eberhart family, held at Brook park. daughters, Mrs. Melvin Miller and the the Clearfield High school. Before James Eberhart, of Lewisburg, 85 years Miller family, in Chicago; with Mrs. going to State College two years old, and dean of the clan since the death ago Miss Wilson was a stenographer of the late D. W. Eberhart, of Bellefonte, Dakota, and stopped with relatives has been president of the reunion asso- number of other places, both enroute out ciation ever since it was organized twen- and back. ty-five years ago. At the reunion, last week, he was presented with a five dollar gold piece.

Caster, of McKeesport, motored here on and Mrs. James K. Gearhart and Dr. and Saturday and remained until Sunday eve- Mrs. F. W. Fillwood, of Scranton; the ning, visiting the former's mother and Rev. J. R. Woodcock and his son Wildaughter, Mrs. David Haines and Miss liam, of Syracuse; Mrs. Joseph Beck Paul McGarvey, of Bellefonte, and nesday, where they were married in Peggie, of north Water street. Mrs. and her daughter, of Pittsburgh; Miss the Lutheran church by the pastor, Haines celebrated her ninetieth birthday Mary Forbes, her niece, Mrs. W. F. The exhibit of hand tinted photo- Rev. Mr. Bourde. The bride is a anniversary on Sunday and, we are hap- Forbes, and the latter's two children, graphs of Mrs. Yeager's flower gar- most estimable young woman and py to be able to say, she is still in the den and Mrs. J. D. Hunter's bouquet has been prominently identified with remarkably good health she has enjoyed leen Seibert, of Chambersburg; Mr. and for so many years. Mr. Caster is in the Mrs. Richard Forbes and their daughter, employ of the McKeesport tin mill and of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. has been fortunate in having fairly Woodcock, of Hollidaysburg, and Miss All told 125 men, women and chil- a partner in a gas and oil supply steady employment. Having had Satur- Harriet Sloan, of McConnellsburg. dren had exhibits at the show and station, in Altoona, and it is in that day off and feeling the need of a little the Garden club is to be congratulat- city they will make their home on trip he brought Charles to Bellefonte in

-Phil Reynolds is home from New York for an indefinite stay with his father, Col. W. F. Reynolds, of west

-Harold Hoag, with the State Highway Department, at Clearfield, was over for a Sunday visit at the Hoag home, on

-Mrs. John Thackery is here for her summer visit with her daughter. Mrs. Stuart Gast and Father Gast, at the rectory on Spring street.

-Patty Lane Fay Jr., of Altoona, has been among the June visitors to Bellefonte, a guest during her stay of her grandmother, Mrs. John N. Lane.

-Edward Houser was taken to the Clearfield hospital, Tuesday, to be operated on for a sinus condition from which he has been suffering for several years. -Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Royer drove to Pittsburgh, for Sunday, which they spent with the Harry Hoy family, at Wilkinsburg.

-Miss Mary Norris, who has spent several months with Miss Caroline Valentine, at "Burnham Place," will return to her home in Bel Air, Md., next Monday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Ebbert Hollobaugh and their son, Richard, are up from New Back in May, 1931, Olaf Risen, -The T. S. Strawns, of New Kensing. Jersey for their summer vacation visit -Gorge W. Ward, who is in from Saturday. -James A. McCafferty and his family. towns ip, was discharged on Thurs- him his job. He then went to work four children arrived here from Mead- former well known Bellefonte residents, ville, Sunday, for their annual summer have left Hartsville, S. C., and gone back

-The Widdowsons drove to Phillipi. W. Va., a week ago, and spent several -William Brouse Jr., who is back days there as house guests of Mr. and home, on west High street, until Ellen -Rebecca Dorworth and Dorothy Wil- returns to Devon, Thursday of next tine, at "Burnham Place."

-Nancy Jean Usselton, of Chestertown, -Mrs. Maynard Murch Jr., and her sister, Miss Georgie Daggett, drove in -Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cobb. who Cobb family. Arriving in Bellefonte Fri--Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Musser came over from Juniata, Friday morning of last week, for a two day's visit back with Mrs. Musser's brothers here and at relatives at both places. -Mrs. Craig Scott and her small children, of Warren, have been spending daughter, Cynthia Anne, came in from Erie a week ago to spend the remainder of June in Bellefonte with Mrs. Scott's > Ellis L. Orvis and Mrs. Driscoll, at the Orvis home on north Allegheny street. Mrs. Scott is better known here as Mary -Gilbert T. Noll left his home in Pleasant Gap at three o'clock last Sunday morning, drove to Newark, N. J. spent several hours there and was back at five that evening. He took his mother. Mrs. James B. Noll, and his two daughters. Jane and Madaline, to Newark for a visit of two weeks with his grandfather and mother, former Judge sister, Mrs. Henry T. Gruber, who was the former Miss Pauline Noll. -Mrs. Etta Grether is back at her cozy for the summer, having come in from Oklahoma City, last Thursday, to spend the summer months in Centre county. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Oyer, president of the Parent Teachers' Association of Oklahoma City, who will spend the summer with her. They expect to be at the Gap until September, at least. -Mrs. Austin O. Furst, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin and their daughter Caroline motored to Overbrook yesterday for the Furst-Burrell wedding, which will be celebrated in the Presbyterian church in rell, a graduate of Yale and the Yale Law School. A reception at Green Hills Farms, will follow the ceremony.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clevenstine and their son Miles, of Zion, and Miss Claire home, Sunday evening, from a week's with Mr. and Mrs. Clevenstine's other Clevenstine's brother, Otis Garbrick, at

-Those from out-of-town here, Wednesday morning, for the funeral of Mrs. John A. Woodcock included her son, Dr. -Charles G. Haines and a friend, Roy Lee B. Woodcock, Byron Woodcock, Mr. Miss Mary and Wilson, and Miss Kath-

-We will do your job work right