

Are watching from the elernal shore to The Ow work by your hands liegun,-

Ye dearer ones who, gone before.

lighter with mest. The chastening rod Blassours with fore : the furnace heat Hirnescool benfath His blessed feet Masse form is asphe Son of Ged!

houses : Our Marsh's hitter springs. Are sweetened on our ground of grief Levis by day in strong relief Leprophecies of better things.

Are on with Gol, and on with them Who see by faith the cloudy hem " Lignan fringed with Mercy's light ! 3

Army Correspondence. CAME AT FAIR OAKS, )

June 4th, 1862.

The loss of our regiment in killed, speech in the Missouri State Conven-amp.

Nothing new has occurred since I to an Irish patient, "be composed ; we 10""On my friend," said a doctor the still holding the same position; must all die once." "And it's that Davis wants to get in a safe place, we wother troops are going ahead of vexes me," replied Pat; "if I could die advise him to climb a high tree and son the railroad. Several new regi- a half dozen times I'd not care a cent an improvement upon this plan-that Sents from Fortress Monroe have also about this time." billed us. These men look like dan-

Ţ

The along side of ns. They have been along side of ns. They have been and give do give and give and and how not a sound is to be heard, from Fallston are well, as far as I zers, to such an extent as not to incur the hum of human voices in know. Your son, I prothe application of that epithet, I will ing the seven cotton States, I pro- heavenly virtues of woman. Down o'clock." not say he is not loyal, but I will say nounce individually and collectively his loyalty has, in all probability, not perjured; they ought to have their a queer institution, this crinoline de-borne any very distinguished fruits. necks field to the gallows and their partment is.

J. M. JOHNSON.

Davis wants to get in a safe place, we advise him to climb a high tree and draw it up after him." We suggest an improvement upon this plan-that a connection be first made between the tween of the grant of the gran a connection be first made between Public Protocols is seat myself this them, they saw the danger of the Gent Sudary removes again, to write a erai, (his horse having fallen on his who is to you not knowing which leg and held him fast) and they stop-ing thoroughly prepared, strive for s ing thoroughly prepared, strive for s ing thoroughly merey. Daniet Leasung, Concentrating nearly all the arms of any kind. In fact they seem to glo the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union in that section, and after of ry in their shame, and set a value on the union when a the obarded, "Rosa commenced by saying "that he did not come there as the of eneral Com-manding, but at man to men, and aim-ing for the same state of clernal hap-backed by their apostate Breckinridge, new to make known his profession called to see har yesterday." I relat-the insisted that the insist dat the bighest. The soldiar was to be a. Chrisby an any only have a point of the unexport arrival of real more strengthy, the server of the unexport arrival and any only and a powerful the server of the unexport arrival the server of the South it has made her a demon. What

One case he would never forget that way," was the arswer. He, of raged for three hours and shaf, as had as they could fight. At one time is soldiers had as they could fight. At one time as the soldiers had as they could fight. At one time as the soldiers had as they could fight. At one time as the soldiers had the soldiers h ever see after the personal interests remain but four years longer in the izens; out a woman inat swears stops of their men. Please 'accept my truly heartfelt ondolence in your bereavement, and may our Godrocoucile you to His mys. terions ways, with plenitude of His ing theroughly prepared, strive for is their whole worthlessness. Ball as should walk in. This rebellion we He returned with the answer that and in Spitzbergen the longest day repeat, has cast a dark cloud over the she had died that morning at five lasts three months and a half!

"Friend Mallaby, I am pleased told it to me, and after I had shown that thee has got such a fine organ in it to her I asked if she had any ob thy church." "But," said the clergy-Der A cotemporary says: "If Jeff. to hungry dogs."

> A sailor dropped out of the you would step over and see how old rigging of a ship of war, some lifteen? Mrs. Jones is this morning. Biddy or twenty feet, and fell plump on the "Wretch, were did you come from ?"

said the officer, as he gathered him-

1 wrote the story as Miss Hosmer