BY FINLEY JOHNSON,

Repine not thou when dark days come, For come they surely must, Nor let misfortune's surging storms, Prostrate thee in the dust;

But bravely stem the rising waves, With hope within thy breast, Romember-with a faithful heart That all is for the best.

Have courage in the darkest hour, And tears and moans despise, For off thy sorrows and thy woes-Are angels in disguise. Let hope and faith within thy soul Be each a welcome guest,

To whisper thee-"Cneer up ! cheer up For all is for the heat ?? Then fling away all fooligh fear
