No. 37 Park Row, N. Y., & 6 State St., Boston.

It is intimated by the Star, of last week, that we burglariously entered its office and stole therefrom a piece of manuscript.

PASSED THROUGH.—The Anderson Troop, numbering nine hundred men, passed through here on Sunday morning last, en route for Kentucky, to join Rosecrans.

Court Proceedings

The November Term of Court commenced on Monday, Judge Agnew presiding. The following are the cases disposed of, up to the hour of going to press: Com. vs. Eli F. Sheets and John Fosnaught. Indictment, Murder.

Democratic Mass Meeting at New Castle.

Mr. Taylor was called for, when he arose and made an apology for appearing, as he had been defeated by a party who had objected to him on account of his intelligence.

Col. M. S. Quay, of the 134th Regiment P. V., who has been home for a few weeks, on account of ill health, has so far recovered as to be able to start for Harrisburg on Friday.

The Governor, and others at Harrisburg, are very anxious that he should remain at Harrisburg in the position he occupied previous to entering the army, on account of his rare business qualification.

The Causes of Defeat.

In the last number of the Star there is one of those silly, rapid articles which have lately become so common with the editor of that paper, and which is conclusive evidence that the writer is acting a part and does not express his real sentiments.

In regard to the Emancipation Proclamation, there is no doubt that great use was made of it by such pious hypocrites as the editor of the Star, who, while professing to follow the doctrines and teachings of Christ, uphold and sustain the damnable and unholy system of Slavery to our injury.

How They are Known.

An exchange suggests an easy and certain test by which to determine whether a paper is disloyal. Whenever you open one and find it filled up with abuse of "abolitionists" and whimpers over the arrest and imprisonment of disloyal persons, you may be sure its sympathies are all with the rebels.

The editor of the Lawrence Journal seems to be greatly exercised over our exposure of the rascally way in which the election was carried in Greene County. Why Mr. Editor you should not fly in a rage at us for simply publishing the truth because we do not agree with you politically.

Very Respectfully, R. C. HALL, Quartermaster Gen'l. Penn'a. Militia

General Ambrose E. Burnside. This gentleman, who now fills the important place just vacated by Gen. McClellan, is a native of Union county, Indiana; was born in 1822, and is now in his 39th year.

THE DRAFTED MILITIA.—The difficulty existing in regard to the disposal of the drafted men, whether they shall be allowed to maintain their own organization, or whether they be taken individually and scattered throughout the regiments already in the field, is one which is now exciting much attention.
