Sketch of Fredericksburg.

Fredericksburg, the city bombarded by the artillery of General Burnside, is the chief town of Spottsylvania county, in Virginia, and is situated on the right bank of the Rappahannock river, at the head of tide water. It is between fifty and sixty miles from Richmond by railroad, and sixty-five miles by the turnpike, in a northerly direction. Turnpike roads connect it with Falmouth and Newport—the former by a ferry across the Rappahannock—and another turnpike leading through Wilderness to Orange Court House, where a railroad connects it with Gordonsville. The town itself is pleasantly situated in a fertile valley, and has advantages for commerce and manufactures. The railroad from Washington, via Aquia creek, passes through it and thereby a large traffic and trade was done previous to the rebellion. As the through trains generally stopped at Fredericksburg station for about an hour on each trip, a not inconsiderable chance trade was thereby in the immediate locality of the depot. It is distant from Aquia creek by railroad about fifteen miles, from which point part of the Potomac river traffic used to be carried to Fredericksburg.

A good canal has also been constructed from the town to a point on the Rappahannock river about forty miles above, by which large quantities of wheat flour and tobacco were formerly received for exportation.—The river affords extensive water power, which, however, has not been much used. The hills in the neighborhood, varying in height from forty to one hundred feet and abound in fine granite and freestone. About thirty years since, the prospect of Fredericksburg being a rapidly rising town was very great; but it suddenly stopped in its prosperity, and after, as it were, standing still for about twenty years, it gradually retrogaded in its importance. In 1840 its population numbered nearly four thousand souls, and in 1850, ten years after, it had only increased eighty-eight persons—less than nine each year, and being about two per cent. in a decade—a remarkably small increase. Before the rebellion it contained five churches one orphan asylum, two seminaries, four newspaper offices and two banks.

The county in which Fredericksburg is situated has an area of four hundred square miles, or two hundred and fifty-six thousand acres. The Rappahannock forms the boundary on the northeast, the North Anna river on the southwest, and the Mattaponay rises within its limits. The surface is diversified by hill and dale. The soil is generally fertile in the vicinity of the streams. Two gold mines were worked within the county in 1850, and, as before stated, freestone and granite are abundant. The canal running northwest carries the river traffic far above the falls, and the country is intersected by the Richmond and Potomac Railroad. Spottsylvania was organized in 1720, and named in honor of Alexander Spottswood, at the time Governor of Virginia. The capital of the county is Spottsylvania Court House, a post village on the Po river, and situated over sixty miles nearly due south from Richmond, with which it is connected by a turnpike road. The last return of the population give over sixteen thousand persons, about one-half of whom were slaves.

☞ Omnibus que prosunt requirite, or we labor for the good of all, is the inscription on one of the Chimie of bells given by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., to the city of Lowell. That favored place may have the bells, but they cannot monopolize the Doctor's skill which is made available by his Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills to all alike—no only in this country but in all countries where civilization and commerce have gone. While admiring the liberality and taste of these gentlemen in such a donation to their native town, we will remind our readers of the following truth, regarding of bells, that over the whole community that hears them. They are few in the country as they are known, but not a child is little known, but not a child is there from his home in Germany, France, England, whether the church Trinity Church does not make its heart leap into his mouth, and his eyes swim at the recollection it brings of the solemn notes his childhood, his boyhood, and his manhood loved to hear at the soft approach of evening in his native land.

We wish our generous townsmen whom God has blessed with means would consider whether we too cannot add this one more attraction to make our children and ourselves love dearer and stronger and longer the place we call our home. [Madison Ind. Banner.]

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND! ALWAYS READY. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Yo cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS, and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH. Therefore we say to the whole army.

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years. Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen, by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
