The Prisons in Richmond.

One of the reporters of the New York Herald, Mr. George H. Hart, who has lately been exchanged for one of the correspondents of a Southern journal, gives a narrative of his experiences in the prisons of the South, and other matters connected with the condition of the people.

THE HORRORS OF CASTLE TRUNDELE.

The name of Castle Thunder throughout the Southern States is terribly suggestive of suffering and of degraded misery, and justly so.

PHRENOLOGICAL REMINISCENCE OF "LITTLE MAC."

The father of George B. McClellan and himself were "old cronies," as he expressed it, he often came into his office to listen to his communications; and when, once on a time, the lad George was home from West Point, the father brought his two boys to have their characters pronounced.

THE FATE OF DESERTERS FROM THE UNION ARMY.

The so-called Southern Confederacy offers but few inducements to deserters from the Union army. A prisoner with the brilliant and proud sounding title of Castle Thunder, is the exclusive domain of such as have come over to the enemy.

DEPARTURE FROM RICHMOND.

On the morning of our departure from Richmond a detective escorted us down to the flag of truce boat, upon which we found Col. Ould, the rebel Commissioner of Exchange, and his assistants.

THE NEW YORK HERALD SAYS IT HAS BEEN ACQUAINTED WITH THE ORGANIZATION KNOWN AS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The New York Herald says it has been acquainted with the organization known as the Democratic party for forty years, and it "knows it to be dead and buried."

The Progress of Opinion.

Whatever may be thought of the reason, there can be no doubt of the fact that Public Opinion drifts steadily and strongly in favor of making speedy and thorough work with Slavery.

A Significant Revelation.

General Gantt, of Arkansas, in his recent speech at Harrisburg, made a startling revelation concerning some of the Democratic leaders in the State of Pennsylvania.

The Opening of Congress.

Salu, the novelist, who is now in this country as the correspondent of the London Telegraph, describes, in a late letter, the opening of the present session of Congress.

A Costly Structure.

The Capitol at Washington will be, when completed, the finest building of the Corinthian order of architecture in the world.

Wants a Wife.

The following appears in a Saint Louis paper: WANTED.—I have lived solitary long enough. I want some one to talk to, quarrel with—then kiss and make up again.

Using Negroes.

The rebel Congress has been discussing a proposition to employ free negroes and slaves for military purposes.

Quite a Joke.

Quite a joke happened to one of the doctor's sons some little time since. He ordered some powerful medicine for a sick boy, and the father, not liking the appearance of it, forced it down the cat's throat.

A Country Fellow.

A country fellow, just come to town, gazing about in every shop he came to, at last came in to an insurance office where, seeing only one man sitting at a desk, he could not imagine what commodity was sold there.

During a recent examination.

During a recent examination for assistant engineers in the Navy, a candidate was asked: Suppose you had built an engine yourself, performed every part of the work without assistance, and knew that it was in complete order, but when put into a vessel the pump would not draw water, what would you do?

Some of the subscribers of the Girard Union.

Some of the subscribers of the Girard Union, having complained that that paper contained too many advertisements, the editors reply as follows: "Well, neighbors, when you will sell us bullocks that have neither blood, bones nor bowels, but are sold beef clear through, we will sell you newspapers, without advertisements."

The first National Bank of New Orleans.

The first National Bank of New Orleans has gone into operation. It received over $500,000 in deposits on the first day.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisements inserted at the rate of 25 cents per square each subsequent insertion 25 cents. A liberal discount made to yearly advertisers, and to long advertisements.

Special notice.

Special notice 50 per cent. additional to regular rates. Business cards, 75 cents a line, per year. Marriages and Deaths, Religious, Political and other Notices of a public nature, free.
