UNITED STATES. Happy may be the land here mortals with their eyes uplifted stand. While eloquence her thunder rolls; lappier, where no deceptive light Eursts upon Passion's stormy night, fluiding to rocks and shoals. Happiert of alk, where man shall lay lis limbs at their full length, not overcast

The sky above his head, but the pure ray hines brighter on the future than the past. Look, look into the East afar, Refulgent western star! And where the fane of Pallas stands. Reared to her glory by his hands,

Thou, although nowhere else shalt see A states nan and a chief like thee. How rare the sight; how grand! Behold the golden scales of justice stand

Self balanced in the mailed hand! ollowing the calm Deliverer of Mankind, In thee again we find This spectacle renew'd, Glory altho there be

To leave the country free. Glory had reacht not there her plentitude!

Up, every son of Afric soil! Te worn and weary, hoist the sail! For your own glebes and garners toil With easy p'ough and lightsome flail: A tather's home ye never knew,

A father's home your sons shall have from you. Enjoy your palmy groves, your cloudless days, Your world that demons tore away. Look up! look up! the flaming sword: Hath vanisht! and behold your Padise re-
