TERMS FOR 1865.

For any one of the Reviews-ed quality of paper, and while nearly American Periodicals are either adjanced price or reduced in size—and very graces both—acceptall continue to give faithful off of all the matters contained in the origin editions. Hence, our present prices wall be found as cleap, for the amount of matter two nished; as those of any of the competing is iodicals in this country.

Compared with the cost of the originals itions, which at the present premium on & would be about $100 a year, our prices ($1 are exceedingly low. Add to this the fact we make our annual payments to the little ished by the articles they contain for our Cr il War, and though sometimes tingel with prejudice, they may still, considering they great abilility and the different stand-point from which they are written, be road and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

THE FOUR REVIEWS for 1863 A few copies of the above remain on hand and will be sold at $5 for the whole four. $2 for any one.
