done : clang of bell and roar of gun, send the tidings up and down. How the belfries rock and reel, How the great guns, peal on peal, Fling the joy from town to town!

Ring, O bells ! Every stroke exulting tells Of the burial-hour of crime. Loud and long, that all may hear, Ring for every listening ear
Of Eternity and Time

Let us kneel: God's own voice is in that peal, And this spot is holy ground. Lord forgive us! What are we.
That our eyes this glory see, That our cars have heard the sound

For the Lord On the whirlwind is abroad; In the earthquake He has spoken: He has smitten with His thunder The iron walls asunder, And the gates of brass are broken !

Loud and long Lift the old exulting, song, Sing with Miriam by the sea; He has cast the mighty down: Horse and rider sink and drown; lie has triumphed glorlougly!

Did we dare In our agony of prayer Ask for more than he has done ? When was ever His right hand Over any time or land Stretched as now beneath the sun

How they pale, Ancient myth, and song, and tale, n this wonder of our days. When the cruel rod of war Blessoms white with righteous law, And the wrath of man is praise:

Blotted out All within and all about Shall a fresher life begin; Freer breathe the the universe As it rolls its heary curse the dead and buried sin!

It is done ! In the circuit of the sun Shall the sound thereof go forth. It shall give the dumb a voice, It shall belt with joy the earth

Ring and swing Bells of joy! on morning's wing Send the song of praise abroad: With a sound of broken chains Tell the untion that He reigns, Who alone is Lord and God!

Thus was Georgia allowed to wrest from the Cherokees their reserved land, and to defy the Supreme Court when it ordered restitution Even the Democratic boast that the nullification of our revenue laws by South Carolina was properly rebuked and checked, was but a hollow pretence—the trucnient oligarchy was bribed to remain in the Union by a change in our tariff which brought ruin on thousands of northern manufactories.

We need not recount how through many weary years this base enbrerviency to slavery was manifested in a hundred kindred sets of omission or commission, until impunity for minur crimes at length engendered the present rebellion. Then was the oppor-tunity for this Democratic party to redeem all former errors, and rally in the grand endeaver to resist the mighty treason. We freely acknowled edge that many thousands did so-but alas, it was only by abandoning their party organization, and uniting themsolves with the Republican party.— The party, as a party, was dereliet in the perilous hour, and forfeited its chains to to the public confidence,
