Critical No icu of the Prest. The fireside never had a more delightful com panion, nor the million a more enterprising, friend, than Harper's Magazine. Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the World.—
New York Observer. We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellent of HARPER'S

AGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is misrited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of he daily. It has great power in the disseminition of a love of pure literature. Thuswan's Guide to American Literature, London. The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice. - Bostor Courier.
