We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellent of HARPER's MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American Reople; and the popularity it has acquired is merited.

Each number contains fully 144 pages of Each number contains fully 142 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Thus-
