

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

We will publish next week the opinion of Judge Agnew, sustaining the Constitutionality of the Bounties Law.

We see under obligations to Capt. Wm. McCallister, clerk of the Mayor, from City for late Cincinnati papers.

In the proceedings of the Beaver County Medical Society last week, it was decided that S. M. Ross, M. D., was not entitled to next meeting and W. W. Simpson, M. D., Alton.

The year is more than one-half past, and many of our subscribers have not yet paid up. They wish to save the fifty percent additional they had better pay up on.

We understand that Mr. Hall, editor of the "Family Record," will, in no case, send the work except by subscription. It cannot be had at the office.

Annual Letters.—We have received from Factor & Fields, Boston, the numbers of "Companion Poets," "Warfare National Lyrics," a small pocket size illustrated and containing many valuable "Lyrics." School teachers and speakers should not be without a copy. Price, fifty cents.

As J. M. Donohoe, of Co. B, 1st Cavalry, arrived at Washington on a furlough, he has not yet been recalled to service. We are glad to hear that he is recovering from the wound he received, and we trust will return to his duty.

Normal Music Class.—We understand that there are several young ladies, Prof. Johnson's Normal Music Class, at the Beaver Female Seminary. Prof. Johnson is one of our best educated composers and teachers in our country, and lovers of music will appreciate this rare opportunity. Prof. Taylor desires the benefit of raising the class and securing Prof. Johnson's services. He is anxious to have an opportunity to benefit his pupils and the community.

Dr. J. M. Moore, D.D., of Washington, will visit to most of our churches on a visit to his friends in this county. His health is now so improved, that he is sufficient to perform his duties as a pulpit orator in the State, and beside one of the greatest preachers and most successful ministers. There is no town in which we entertain greater respect, and we trust his health may be soon restored sufficient to enable him to resume his ministerial duties.

We want agents in every township in the county to get us subscribers to the Argus. If any responsible man will take hold of the matter, our net will be doubled in most of the districts. We ask our friends to make an effort, and we will pay them well for the subscribers furnished. We will send the Argus to a club of ten or more subscribers, at one address for $1.75 per annum, besides giving the one who raises the club a copy free. What township will first respond?

The undersigned, pupils of Beaver Union School, have stood "very good" for the week ending July 21st.

David Carson, Chas. Carson, Martin Lyon, Frank Ransom, Argeno Anderson, Mary A. Lafferty, Clara G. Murray, Marian Roulid, Clara R. Smith, Lillie Stoveck, Anna Thomas.

George Atkins, Henry Patton, Della Caughy, Mary McClure, Cornelia Barton, Laura McKinley, Ida May, Sarah Robinson, Eva Wood, Ada Welch.

Reports from Nos. 1 and 2 next week. J. G. Wood, Principal.

Life of Lincoln. Gov. Raymond, editor of the New York Times, has prepared and has now in the hands of Derby & Miller, Publishers, a life of Abraham Lincoln. So many in the country was so well qualified to prepare a life of our deceased President as Gov. Raymond. He was the confidential and trusted friend of the President, and is beside one of the best writers in the Nation. It contains beside, Carpenter's Accurate and Personal Reminiscences, that have been attracting so much attention. The work is now in press, and will be printed on fine heavy paper, octavo volume of 750 pages. The work can only be obtained from the authorized distributing agents, who will furnish it to subscribers at the following rates:

15 Cloth at $3.50; Leather, $4.00; 10 Turkey, $3.00.

Rev. D. P. Lowary. We are glad to learn that Rev. D. P. Lowary has declined the call of the first Presbyterian church of Steubenville, Ohio, and accepted the call of the Presbyterian church of Beaver. Mr. Lowary has had charge of the churches of Beaver and Freedom for three years past, during which time he has resided in Beaver. The Beaver congregation offered him three hundred dollars more than was paid him by both churches heretofore for all his time. This call he has accepted. Although not a member of his congregation, we are much gratified at his determination to remain with us. During his residence in this place he has endeared himself to all our citizens by his pleasant manner and devotion to his work, and the interest he manifests in every good object, either of local or general importance. He is an able, faithful and successful minister, and will succeed, we have no doubt, in building up a fine church in Beaver. The fact that this small congregation offer him a salary of over eight hundred dollars is sufficient evidence of their appreciation of his services. Almost every citizen of this place will be as much gratified at his acceptance of this call as will the members of the church.

Steinway at Blairsville Seminary. This popular institution, under the direction of Rev. J. R. Huges, enjoys an unusual share of public confidence, and patronage. Sundry valuable additions have been made by its present director, and the Musical Department, which is in a very flourishing condition, has been enriched by the acquisition of a fine Steinway Piano, which is placed in the parlor and intended for use at the private and public musical exhibitions. Rev. Huges expresses his admiration of it in the following terms: "We promised to let you know our opinion of the Steinway Piano you sold us for our Seminary parlor. It should be enough to say that, we do not desire to exchange it for any other Piano. It wonderfully combines sweetness of tone with great power, and as an accompaniment to the human voice, we think it can scarcely be surpassed. Our music teachers pronounce it excellent and all visitors at the Seminary who can judge of and appreciate music, express great admiration. It is impossible for me to tell how highly I appreciate it."

Every reading family should possess a good dictionary and a good atlas. We can hardly take up a daily paper without reading about some place that we wish to know where it is located. We can seldom find a page in history without wanting to find some place about which we are reading. By possessing a good Atlas of the World we can at a glance find any place without any trouble. Johnson's New Illustrated Family Atlas is the Atlas to buy. It gives a splendid treatise on Physical Geography, never before introduced in connection with maps. It gives the statistics, with the imports, exports and productions of all the countries of the Old and New World. The surveys of the Old World alone have cost more than eighty-five thousand dollars, and the plates are very fine steel plates, so that all the letters and words are perfectly plain and can be found Mr. M. N. White, the general agent, is now soliciting subscribers in this county. The work should be in every family, and we trust our readers will avail themselves of this opportunity to procure a good Atlas. He partially captioned Lawrence County, and has already obtained over three hundred subscribers. The citizens of Beaver county can appreciate a good work as fully as do the good people of Lawrence.

Mason Brothers, New York, announce in press, to be ready September 1st, a new collection of Church Music for Choirs, Singing Schools, Conventions, &c., to be entitled, "THE PRAISE OF ZION." It is by two novel authors—Solon Wilder and Frederick S. Davenport; and the publishers, who have had great experience in such matters, and whose judgment is rarely at fault, express great confidence that it will prove extraordinarily attractive. An important feature will be its presentation of a number of compositions from distinguished foreign authors, Neukomm, Nygall, and others, as well as from American favorites, among whom Chas. Zeller is fully represented, all of which are now first printed from the original manuscripts. Retail price, $1.50. The publishers will send arguments for one of them to either or one-half of

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—This favorite of the ladies leads off in its August number with a beautiful steel engraving, called "Grandpa's darling"—the face of the old man, with its deep, thoughtful eyes, strikes us as particularly fine. Among the figures of the colored Steel Fashion Plate, we note a Bridal Dress, very chaste and pretty. Price $2.50 a year; 2 copies $4.00.—To those desirous of making up clubs, specimen numbers will be sent for 15 cents. Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Peterson son, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The Atlantic Monthly for August has been received, and contains its usual variety of interesting and instructive matter.—"Reconstruction and Negro Suffrage," "John Bright and the English Radicals," "Doctor Johns," and "Noctide and Garden," are the best written articles.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN. THIRD SERIES. $230,000,000. By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, by contract with the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN. These Notes are issued under date of July 15th, 1865, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS. These bonds are worth a premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County or municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent per annum to their value, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker. The interest amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " $100 " 10 " " " $500 " 20 " " " $1000 " $1 " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government will guarantee the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent. instead of 7 3/4 cents in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe. The delivery of the notes of this third series of the 7-30 will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date. The slight change made in the conditions of this Third Series affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate. The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three tenths per cent. in currency. This is the ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.
