THE BEAVER ARGUS

SEPTEMBER 20th, 1865.

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

THE TWELFTH ANNUAL FAIR OF THE Beaver Co. Agricultural Society,

WILL BE HELD AT

BEAVER, Pa.,

Wednesday, Thursday & Friday, Oct. 4th, 5th and 6th, '65.

☞ Competition not confined to citizens of the County.

New Advertisements.

We call attention to the following new advertisements, which will be found in the proper columns:

Auditor's notice, estate of Mary Ewing, dec'd, Wm. B. Clarke, Esq., Auditor.

Thomas McCreery, New Goods.

Watt Gealy; Ladies' Millinery and Trimming Emporium, Bridgewater.

Noble & Hamilton; New Drug Store, Beaver.

F. A. Fortune; New Goods, Rochester

Administrator's Notice; Estate of Robert Nevin, dec'd.

Administrator's Notice; Estate of Samuel Shilito, dec'd.

U. S. War tax; Notice to Tax-payers.

Commissioners of Beaver County, Discontinuance of Relief Fund.

☞ Chas. F. Winter has just received a lot of fine American Watches, together with a general assortment of choice Jewelry, which he offers at city prices. Call at his store, in New Brighton, and examine his stock before buying elsewhere.

☞ Esq. Hyde, an old and respected citizen of Wirtemberg, Lawrence county, dropped dead from his seat one day last week. He had arrived at a very advanced age, and his death is attributed to the natural decay of his physical powers.

OIL.—A fine show of oil was struck one day last week, in the well at Hoblett's brick yard, Forksburg, at the depth of seven hundred and eighty feet. The well is owned by four gentlemen of Luzerne county, who intend to tube and test it immediately. The prospect of this well is good UNIONVILLE.—Brush Creek Oil Company has reorganized, and the intention is to sink the well in Burns' meadow to the depth of one thousand feet, unless a paying yield of oil should be obtained nearer the surface. The present depth of the well is but little over five hundred feet, and the issue of gas is very strong. The indications are favorable.

☞ Our friends must attend at once to the correction of the township assessment lists. Go over the list carefully and see that no Republican voter is omitted. To prevent difficulty returned soldiers should be re-assessed. The election falls this year upon the 10th of October, and all new assessments must be made on or before the 20th of September.

☞ The Local likens the raid bill in its last issue to the key of a stable handed over to the horse thief. It has changed base upon this question so often that it is scarcely worth while to inform it that the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1782 passed just such a bill as that referred to, and that the damage inflicted upon our Eastern counties by the British, was duly estimated and returned according to its provisions. The tories of that day doubtless raved and ranted just as does the Local now, but our Revolutionary fathers heeded them not; the bill passed, and the horse was never stolen.

DRY GOODS.

One of the neatest and best arranged establishments in the county, is that of our young friend F. A. Fortune, of Rochester. In the two and a half years he has been among the citizens of this county, his store has become one of our institutions. His corps of salesmen have always been the best and most accommodating that could be found, and during the past week he has added to the list, a first class salesman from Philadelphia.—Mr. F. leaves nothing undone to secure pleasure and comfort to those visiting his store.

He has now open for inspection his new Fall and Winter goods, comprising Domestic goods of every kind, French Merino, Coburgs, Barathear, Poplins, Armures and Delains, Mens', Ladies' and Children's boots and shoes very cheap. Men and boys' hats and caps, Bonnets and Trimmings, and other goods to numerous too mention. Mr. F's. establishment is a credit to Rochester and the county, and we recommend those wishing anything in his line, to call early and secure bargains. See advertisement in another column.

☞ The Local is in agony over the increase of fees of our public officers. It is most grievous to its sympathetic heart that Beaver county should be "taxed," thirty per cent. more than the remainder of the State for the support of offices which the Democracy never occupy, and it wishes to know why such a state of things exists. We have every disposition to gratify the Local in its laudable thirst for information. Its editor was in another State when the law referred to was enacted, and cannot be expected to be so familiar with its history as are our own citizens. We therefore apprise the Local that the Legislature gave to the people of Beaver county the law for which they asked in petitions, largely signed by both Democrats and Republicans. Amongst the names which occur to our memory as appended to those petitions are those of William Davidson, Sr., and William Wallace, both upon the Democratic ticket this fall; E. P. Kuhn, late Democratic candidate for Assembly; E. B. Dougherty, Robert Potter, Hugh B. Anderson, Joseph Mitchell, Robert M'Cauly, John Shively, A. Parsons, Robert Gilmore, Price Bryan, Ephraim Jones, Joseph Braun, S. H. Peirsol, Frank Wilson, John Cain, Fergus M'Clelland, Daniel J. Campton, Hugh McGuire, &c.

These gentlemen are all Democrats and highly respectable citizens, and are generally supposed to be as well acquainted with the interests and the wants of the people as is the Local. They said to the Legislature that, owing to the increased prices of the necessaries of life, these offices had ceased to be remunerative, and asked that a temporary increase of fifty per centum to their fees should be allowed, and the Legislature, not having the Local to enlighten it, granted the prayer of the petitioners.

We are curious to know the precise amount to which the Local has been taxed under this bill.

The Southern Programme.

David Miller is a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia. As David is in earnest and desires to be elected, and has a keen perception of the sort of doctrine which will most readily catch votes in that locality, he announces his views upon certain grave questions to the people of the District as follows, through the Lynchburgh Republican:

"I am opposed to the Southern States being taxed at all for the redemption of this (the National) debt, either directly or indirectly, and if elected to congress I will oppose all such measures, and I will vote to repeal all laws which have heretofore been passed for that purpose. And in doing so I do not consider that I violate any obligation to which the South was a party. We have never plighted our faith for the redemption of the war debt. The people will be borne down with taxes for five years to come, even if the war debt is repudiated. It will be the duty of the Government to support the maimed and disabled soldiers, and this will be a great expense; and if the United States Government requires the South to be taxed for the support of the Union soldiers, we should insist that all disabled soldiers should be maintained by the United States Government, without regard to the side they had taken in the war."

Here we have the programme of the Southern leaders. Their "dumb agony" finds expression in a claim that the war debt shall be repudiated and that rebel soldiers shall be placed on our pension list—as a reward for their services in killing our people. With these trifling concessions in their favor, they will consent to be reconstructed and to "forgive us for a whalin' ny 'em."

THE Democracy of Allegheny county met in convention on the 13th. A clean soldier's ticket was placed in nomination. Allegheny county is good for 7,000 to 10,000 Republican majority.

The Democrats of Bucks county met on the 7th. Luther Calvin and Francis Headman were re-nominated for Assembly, and not a single soldier found a place upon the ticket. Bucks gives 700 to 800 Democratic majority.

We have not noticed the nomination of a soldier as yet by the Democrats in a solitary county which votes decidedly with them. There may be exceptional instances, but they have not come under our observation, On the other hand we believe there is not a Republican county ticket in the State upon which they are not represented.

J. G. WOOD, Prin.

☞ A good story is told of a certain District Attorney in a county not a thousand miles from here, who, though of considerable legal ability, liked the rye, and was perversely apt to drink too much at the wrong time. On one occasion an important criminal case was called by the Judge, but the Attorney, with owl-like gravity, kept his seat, being in fact not fairly able to stand on his feet.

"Mr. District Attorney, is the Commonwealth ready to proceed," said the Judge.

"Yes—(hic)—no, your honor, stammered the lawyer, "the Commonwealth—(hic)—is not in a state to try this case to day—the Commonwealth, your honor, is drunk."

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles; and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings, which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary, in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitudes of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease, and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is compounded of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a
