

Liberal Inducements to Agents for the Argus.

The year is drawing to a close, and we are anxious to increase our list of subscribers for next year. In order to do this we propose that all new subscribers now paying for 1866 shall receive the paper for the balance of the year free of charge.

Meeting of Congress.

Before our next issue Congress will have convened at Washington. The coming session will be the most important one since the Revolution. The session of 1861-'62 was second only to that of '76, but the session of 1865-'66, whether viewed in the light of the present or future interests of this great nation, will be second to none other.

General Logan's Views. The appointment of General Logan, supporters of the Monroe doctrine, as ambassador to the Republic of Mexico, is significant. Only eleven days before he was appointed Minister to Mexico, he said, in a speech made in the Brooklyn Academy of Music:

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE.—The nomination of a Major-General for Governor has not gained to the Democracy of Ohio so many soldier's votes as they expected. When the vote of the soldiers was officially canvassed, it was found that Morgan had only received 687, against 2,428 cast for Cox. Alexander Long, the avowed champion of the right of Secession, received four votes.

CONGRESS.—The Senate of the United States stands—Union, 88; Democrats, 11. House—Union, 143; Democrats, 41. Some of those Democrats who have been returned as elected, will be ousted on contest among whom will be Coffey and Dawson of this State.

The "Republican" Party.

Commenting on a remark in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican that "the Republican party shall hereafter bear its true and honorable name, and call itself Republican," the Chicago Journal says: "The Republican party called itself the 'Union party' during the war, because it was the only Union party in the country. It represented and was the exponent of the true, earnest and unswerving sentiment of loyalty at a time when fidelity to that sentiment was a political test and a patriotic duty."

Editors Argus:—In my desire to be brief, last week, I used an expression which may be misconstrued. It is where I speak of the regiment being indignantly confronted by the enemy. "It is not to be inferred from this, that the regiment was surprised or taken unawares. This was not the fact. For a considerable time before we had been supporting the 28th Mass. Vols., which was sharply engaged with the enemy. We were then in the woods, and were gradually pressing the enemy back. The left wing of the 140th was in the rear of the right wing of the 28th Mass. In order that our regiment might open fire, the movement by the right flank took place, and it was when we emerged from the dense smoke and woods into the open field that we came upon the enemy. The situation was a most perilous one. We were sent in to check the rebel advance, flushed with success over Gen. Sickles's Corps. There were two regiments of our Brigade engaged, the 140th and 66th N. Y. Vols. These, with the 28th Massachusetts, were further advanced than any other regiments of that portion of the line; half a mile, I presume, in advance of their supports. After Col. Roberts fell, Lieut. Col. Fraser was in command of the regiment. I did not see him. I presume he was in his place on the left of the regiment. My place was with the right wing. A friend suggests the regiment had orders to fall back. I know there was a cry raised to fall back; but whether it came from Lieut. Colonel Fraser I know not.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—In twenty-five legislatures the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery has been ratified, and in three has been rejected; but one at least of the latter—New Jersey—was secured by the late election for its ratification this winter, and it will also pass in the legislatures of California and Oregon at their next sessions. These will complete the requisite number of twenty-eight.

Gov. CURTIN has arrived at his home in Harrisburg, but too ill to attend to his Executive duties. He lay in a critical condition in New York city two weeks before his removal home. Sec. Slicer attends to the duties of the office in the absence of the Governor.

REURNS from Pennsylvania soldiers elect McConaughy, Union, to the State Senate from the Adams District by six majority over Duncan, Democrat; another Union gain.

Proceedings of Court on the Deaths of Hon. Thomas Cunningham and Capt. John Cuthbertson.

On the first day of the last term of Court, the following proceedings and resolutions of the Members of the Bar and officers of the Court, in relation to the death of Hon. Thomas Cunningham and Capt. John Cuthbertson were reported. In the former case by W. B. Clark, Esq., Chairman of the committee, and in the latter by M. B. Welsh, Esq., in room of Col. M. S. Quay, the Chairman, who was absent. The occasion was a solemn one, and will not soon be forgotten. Two of the distinguished members of the Bar were not in the places they occupied at the last term. Death had severed their communion with their associates, and taken them to a higher tribunal. Within the last three years four of the most loved and honored had fallen. The assembling together on that day was a painful reminder of the great losses sustained professionally and socially by all. Gen. Clark, B. B. Chamberlin, A. R. Thompson and others made eloquent and beautiful addresses. After some remarks from his Honor, Judge M. Guffin, the Court adjourned until next day, out of respect to the deceased. We append the proceedings and resolutions presented to the Court, and ordered to be entered at length upon the minutes.

On Friday, Sept. 29th, 1865, the members of the Bar and officers of the Court of Beaver county assembled at the Sheriff's office; B. B. Chamberlin Esq., was called to the chair, and John A. Frazier appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated, a committee was appointed, consisting of: W. B. Clark, Henry Alice and John B. Young, Esq., to prepare and present resolutions expressive of their regard and esteem for the deceased. After having resolved to attend the funeral in a body, and wear the usual badge of mourning on the left arm for thirty days, the meeting adjourned to meet at the Court House, Saturday, Oct. 4th.

WESTERN CHEESE.—About five years ago the first cheese factory was established in Ohio, and now there is one in every town. Usually the farmers pay the factory for doing the work, and divide the cheese. Generally about a pound of cheese can be obtained from a gallon of milk. Salt is added at the rate of three pounds to one hundred gallons. This spring skim-milk cheese sold at sixteen cents per pound. Better cheese, made since, has been sold here. Each cow pays a profit of from sixty to eighty dollars in one season, at present rates, and there is no business in the country more remunerative. Farmers in other localities are learning this, and cheese factories are being set up in Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa.

THE HUSTINGS COURT, at Richmond, has refused to grant to a colored minister a license to solemnize marriages among the negroes. In the judgment of the F. F. V.'s the negroes have no right to marry.

GENERAL GRANT was complimented by a public reception and repeat at the Fifth Ave. Hotel, New York, on Monday evening of last week.
