

THE BEAVER ARGUS
December 13th, 1865.
LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

George V. Lawrence will please accept our thanks for favors received.

Alex. McCoy, Coroner elect, was duly qualified last week, and is now ready to discharge the duties of his office. He resides in Moon township.

The people of Pittsburgh are agitating the question of consolidating the outlying suburbs of the great manufacturing centre into one municipality.

It is said that a bill prohibiting the killing of game of all kinds for the next five years in Pennsylvania, will be introduced at the coming session of the Legislature.

Nor-Su.—The Waynesburg Messenger criticizes the report that the Hon. Jesse Laird is about to remove upon an estate near Washington city.

The question "Who is Petroleum V. Norley?" having been repeatedly asked, the Cleveland Herald says Mr. J. R. Locke, of the Cleveland (Ohio) Journal, is the individual referred to.

Nor-Su.—We again remind those subscribers who have not paid up for the present year, that after the 1st of January we will positively collect the fifty cents additional for non-payment in time.

On Monday night of last week, a train of the N. & P. railroad ran over and instantly killed one Nathan Todd, a resident of Middleburg, near Sharon, Mercer county. Deceased was unharmed and had fallen asleep on the track. Another warning is in order.

The amount of Internal Revenue collected during the present year in the 20th District of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Crawford, Warren, Venango and Mercer will reach the enormous sum of two and a half millions.

Rate of the Lands.—The New Lisbon Advertiser says that Michael Fisher sold his tract of eighty acres, just above the Little Beaver a few days ago, to a company in Danville, for fifty thousand dollars; and the Messrs. Thompson, of Calcutta, have also sold ten acres opposite the Cochran tract, for five thousand dollars.

Winter Frights.—The editor of the Greene County Republican appears to be in great glee in anticipation of this pleasant amusement during the coming winter. In his issue of last week he says that "the winter fights began on Monday night last—and they were very numerous. From the manner in which they were commenced, we judge that we shall have rich and rare treats about Christmas."

The winter term of the Beaver Academy will open on Tuesday, Jan. 24, 1866. The prospect we understand is very flattering, and we confidently expect to see a large number of students in attendance. Prof. Gantz is fast building up a fine school. His experience and merits as an instructor, together with the advantages offered here, will soon place the Beaver Academy far ahead of all rival institutions.

A Big Turkey in Stairs.—A Mortgage Deed was recorded on the 1st inst., in the office of the Recorder of Truittsburg county, Warren, Ohio, given by the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad Company to John R. Pennock, of New York, as trustee, for thirty millions of dollars, for which seven per cent. bonds are to be issued. According to the decision of the Internal Revenue Commissioner, the instrument requires thirty thousand dollars worth of stamps.

Valuable Horses.—At the sale made by the administrators of Mr. E. J. Acuff, deceased, late proprietor of the Barton House, Meadville, on Wednesday last, some of the most valuable horses in Western Pennsylvania were sold at the following prices, which were considered low. One six year old, brought $2,500; one three year old brought $2,000; one three year old, brought $2,200; one five year old, brought $2,800; one, a yearling colt, $610; and one five year old, brought $350. The Greenville Argus says these horses were all of the best blooded stock, and well worth the price paid.

Consolidating Railroad.—The Commissioners named in the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act to incorporate the Conoquoensing Valley Railroad Company," approved the 22d day of March, A. D., 1865, will open books for receiving subscriptions to the capital of said company, at the Town Hall in Zelienople, Butler county, Pa., on the 20th day of December, 1865, at one o'clock p. m. They also are the Commissioners: J. G. Camp, H. S. Furrance, J. G. Munst, E. M. Junghans, H. C. M'Abey, Thos. Robinson, A. Lusk, J. Lewis, A. Zigler, W. Irwin, J. M. McKinney, W. G. Ross, S. Griffith, Vance Stewart, J. R. Hanna, D. L. Imbrie, J. C. Cuthbertson, J. Ferguson, J. W. Blanchard.

How to Fatten Turkeys.—The American Agriculturist gives the following receipt for fattening turkeys:

For each turkey mix a pint of Indian meal with one pint of unbolled flour, and pour boiling water on it, stirring rapidly till it forms thin mush. Place the dish where the fowls can have access to the feed at any time. Let a limited milk or water be given also. In two weeks they will be fat and only as butter. They will fatten better to have their liberty in a spacious yard.

We would like to try this receipt, just for an experiment only, and would be willing to spend a small amount of money to test the same—but we haven't the turkey. Now, if any of our readers have more turkeys than they know what to do with, and will send us one or two (a turkey when kept by itself gets lonesome and will not fatten very well), we will try it, and give the result of our experiment in a future issue, together with a brief sketch of the life and character of the donor. They (the turkeys) can have the liberty of a spacious yard; the dish will be placed "where the fowls can have access to it all time!" (previous to the holidays), and we will follow the directions given as closely as our limited means will permit. Where will the first turkey come from? and where the second? A word to the wise, etc.

A Bold Thief.—On Saturday evening, 2nd inst., about dusk, Constable Smith, of Palaski township, hatched his mare near Waddell's store, in New Brighton, and went a short distance to attend to some business. He was absent only a short time, but when he returned his mare was missing. The only clue he was able to obtain of her on Monday, was that on Saturday evening a horse was rode by some person very rapidly across the Old Brighton Bridge, the rider not stopping to pay his toll; and a young man by the name of Mitchell saw a horse above Old Brighton that evening ridden by some unknown person, which he recognized as Mr. Smith's mare. From the moment that Mr. S. discovered his loss, he has been indefatigable in his efforts to catch the thief, but on Monday the above was all the information he had of the missing animal.

ISLAND RUN OIL MATTERS.—Two more Oil Companies have been organized in Beaver the past two weeks. The first is the "Economy Oil Company," their lease being located at the mouth of Island Run, a short distance from the Williams and Calhoun wells. Capt. Richard Calhoun is President and A. R. Moore, Esq., Treasurer and Secretary. The territory of this company is considered by experienced oilmen to be a No. 1. The second is called the "Etna Oil Company," with Capt. George W. Hamilton, as President, and A. R. Moore, Esq., Treasurer and Secretary. The property of this company is located between the mouth of Island Run and the Resolute well, on Little Beaver creek, on the Hartzy-Paper Mill tract.

The holidays are approaching and already young and old are looking about for Christmas and New Year presents. Peter Angel, in Bridgewater, always ahead, has already laid in a large supply of toy and fancy candies for the young, and ornamental and useful articles for the old. Parents, husbands, wives, sweethearts, children, everybody are requested to call and see him before going elsewhere and our word for it they will be so delighted they could not be induced to look any further.

Husbands, fathers, heads of families, would you do something to render your homes comfortable and pleasant during the next year and for years to come; would you make a Christmas present that will make home happy? If so, go to Bestwick's, in New Brighton, and purchase one of his good cooking stoves, with the necessary accompaniment of tinware. You will find it pays to make such presents.

CONVENTION OF WOOL GROWERS.—On Thursday a Convention of wool growers, belonging to Washington county, will be held in the court house, at Washington, with the object of taking action to petition Congress to increase the tariff on wool. They urge that the price of the raw material is altogether disproportioned to the prices of manufactured goods, and that enormous profits are thereby being unfairly made.

EXHIBITION.—The students of the Franklin Literary Society of Beaver Academy, will give an entertainment this evening in the Presbyterian Church, Beaver. The performances will consist of Orations, Essays, Tableaux, Music, &c. The Great Western Band of Pittsburgh, has been engaged for the occasion. The exhibitions of this Society have heretofore been very good, and we doubt not this will be equal, to those previously given. Admission, 25 cents.

Read the advertisement in another column, of John Moore's Drug Store, in Beaver. If you want a good article in his line, put up by a careful druggist, go to Moore's Drug Store. Lamps he has in abundance, of all sizes and qualities. Another reason for patronizing him is that he sells cheap. Let those who doubt go and see.

To-morrow (Thursday) evening's entertainment is likely to be very fine. The Calisthenic and Gymnastic Classes will attract a large audience. The admittance of 50 cents being for the fitting up of a Public Room for Soirees at School Hall of the Seminary, we doubt not all will feel an interest in helping the thing on.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT.—The Washington Review speaks of N. L. Rice, D.D., and Dr. Plummer, as named in connection with the Presidency of Washington and Jefferson College, vice Dr. Breckenridge, declined.

A GREAT MANUFACTORY of steel is soon to be established two miles below Harrisburg, on the Susquehanna River. A thousand skilled workmen are to be brought from England, and fifteen hundred others will be gathered in this country. The establishment will be much the largest on this continent.

A DEED for receiving lands was lately received from New York to the receiver of New York county, Nevada, and $15,000 worth of revenue stamps were pasted upon the document. It would keep a printer busy to purchase the stamps alone.

NEW HARDWARE STORE.—We call attention to the new Hardware Store of Chamberlin & Dinwiddie, New Brighton, advertised in another column. Both these young men are well and favorably known to many of our readers. They keep everything in the hardware line, and we hope to see them well patronized by the community.

ARREST.—Ephraim Latta, a married man about twenty-five years of age, indicted at the last May term of the Court of Common Pleas, of this county, for an attempt to commit a rape on a girl, named Gorby, about sixteen years of age, in Middleton township, was arrested a few days ago by Sheriff Ashford, and lodged in jail to await his trial. Latta had removed with his family, consisting of a wife and two children, after the alleged commission of his crime, to Beaver county, and the Sheriff, learning his whereabouts, called upon him, when Latta agreed to come with him into this State, rather than be arrested before a magistrate of Beaver county, on the charge.—New Lisbon Buckeye State.

A CORRESPONDENT writes from Galveston: "I have to day seen a Confederate Colonel, with his full uniform on, stars and all, driving a dray, with a mule whose harness was made of ropes. A late Lieutenant General of the rebel army is a clerk in an express office at New Orleans, and the officer who drove off Franklin and his fifteen thousand men at Sabine, is a bar-keeper at Houston."

Gov. BRANTLEY presented his message to the Kentucky Legislature, last week. It appears that the State has furnished 40,513 soldiers to the national army—63,075 of which were white, and 25,533 colored. He says that the war has demonstrated the impracticability of secession, and it only remains for the judiciary to decide that it is treason.

The hotel keepers of New York propose to advance rates to six dollars per day, and have sent a circular to the hotel keepers of other cities requesting their co-operation. It is not alleged that the present rates are insufficient, but it is shown that the hotels are crowded, and that guests would be compelled to stand higher prices.

Quite a number of Congressmen are pledged to the support of a bill, in Congress, providing that heirs of soldiers who died in rebel prisons during the war shall be privileged to collect of the Government, commutation of rations for the time deceased were sold by the enemy. There is scarcely a doubt that such a bill pass, as its equity is apparent.

It is understood that the Secretary of War will assign some competent officer to the duty of visiting the battle fields in the Shenandoah Valley, to look after the proper interment of the heroic defenders of the Union who fell in the many battles in that section of Virginia.

MARRIED:
Dec. 5, by Rev. S. Burt, Mr. EDWARD H. DUNN, of Vanport, to Miss SARAH M. GROSCOST, of Brighton Tp.

DIED:
On the 6th inst., at Vanport, of Typhoid Fever, Mr. CHARLES M. KELIN, aged about 50 years.

A Card.
BRIDGEWATER, PA., Dec. 4th, 1865.
To the readers of the Argus: Early in October last Messrs. Stiles & Shallenberger entered into partnership for the purpose of opening a Grocery, Queensware and Produce Store, in Bridgewater. Although starting in the midst of an active competition, they felt assured that a store of this kind, well stocked with choice goods, for sale at the lowest cash prices, must succeed, if properly conducted with a view to satisfy and oblige, as far as possible, all classes of the community. They accordingly re-fitted the large brick store-room, for many years occupied by A. C. Hurst, and opened out with a fine assortment of Family Groceries and Queensware, including all articles usually kept in the better class of country stores, such as Flour and Feed, Nails, Window Glass and Putty, Powder and Shot, Toilet Articles, &c., &c. Thus far their expectations have been more than realized in the kind and amount of business transacted. They are still constantly making additions to their stock, being determined to keep a full assortment of reliable Goods, and to sell, in quantity, on terms which will accommodate those who have heretofore bought in Pittsburgh. Country people will find at this store a ready market for all kinds of Farm products, for which they will receive the highest market prices in Cash or Goods. With thanks to the community in general for the liberal patronage already bestowed, the undersigned respectfully ask all interested to call, examine and try their goods.

JONES STILES,
W. S. SHALLENBERGER.
