Hon. GEORGE BANOROFF, the Historian, delivered the address before Congress, on Monday, 12th inst., the birth day of Abraham Lincoln, on his life and services. His audience consisted of the President and Cabinet, both Houses of Congress, Judges of the Supreme Court, Foreign Ministers, Gen. Grant and other officers, and invited spectators. It was a great assemblage, and the oration was equal to the occasion.

Hardly had the late President been consigned to the grave, when the prime minister of England died, full of years and honors. Palmerston traced his lineage to the time of the conqueror; Lincoln went back only to his grandfather.

The bill introduced by Mr. Quay for the repeal of State tax on real estate, and taxing the stock of National banks and railroads, meets with some luck. Too much of the burden of taxation has to be borne by the owners of real estate.

Important Order from Gen Grant.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The following circular letter to commanders of military departments was issued yesterday by Gen. Grant.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, February, 17, 1866.

You will please send to these headquarters as soon as practicable, and from time to time thereafter, such copies of newspapers published in your department as contain sentiments of disloyalty and hostility to the Government in any of its branches, and state whether such paper is habitual in its utterance of such sentiments.

[The following editorial from the Washington Reporter and Tribune, written before the passage of the relief bill, expresses our sentiments so well, we publish it verbatim.]

RELIEF TO THE CHAMBERSBURG SUFFERERS.—We are gratified to observe that quite a number of the most prominent journals of the State are disposed to favor an appropriation by the Legislature in aid of the people of Chambersburg who had their beautiful town laid in ashes by the rebel hordes under McClellan in the latter part of July, '64.

The Post-Office Appropriation bill was reported from committee, and made the special order for next Thursday. Petitions were presented from the photographers for an amendment of the revenue laws, and from James Hamilton and others for protection to American industry.

FEB 16.—A bill was introduced to authorize the non-delivery of letters to fraudulent and fictitious addresses; intended to interrupt the gift enterprise and lottery business.

A bill was reported yesterday to reimburse the loyal States for the war expenses, which was recommended to the Select Committee on that subject.

In the debate on the appropriation for refurnishing the President's house, Mr. Stevens said that after the death of Mr. Lincoln, nearly every valuable article of furniture had been stolen, including the gold spoons bought when Van Buren was President.

CONSIDERABLE confusion and excitement occurred in the Tennessee House of Representatives on the 16th inst., over a discussion on the Franchise bill.

CONGRESS.

FEB. 15.—The bill to reimburse Missouri for moneys expended during the war, was reported from Committee with an appropriation of $6,775,000. A bill was introduced and referred, extending for 10 years an act granting land to Arkansas and Missouri for railroad purposes.
