POETICAL.

NO TIME LIKE THE OLD TIME.

BY OLIVER WEDDELL HOLMES.

There is no time like the old time, when you and I were young, When the buds of April blossomed and the birds of spring-time sung.

Miscellaneous.

Napoleon.

The Frenchman has spoken at last and with experience a sense of relief. His favorite scheme of "rehabilitating the Latin race in America," has gone up.

North America, issuing victorious.

North America, issuing victorious from a formidable struggle, has re-established the Union and solemnly proclaimed the abolition of Slavery.

Prof. Blor says that coffee.

Prof. Blor says that coffee, and other things too, we infer, should be made from water at its first boil.

German Immigration.

The following article from the Cincinnati Volksblatt.

which we are indebted to the Cincinnati Commercial, is for the most part not just and so true to history, that we are tempted to adopt the whole.

How the Devil Lost.

The following is too good to be lost.

We clip it from an exchange paper, and respectfully call the attention of our readers to it.

Enjoying a Prayer-meeting.

Some thirty years ago, in a town in New York, long since noted for "stated preaching,"

Northern Capitalists.

With their usual keen appreciation of pecuniary profit, have not been slow to seize upon the opportunities offered them for making money in the rich bottom lands of Mississippi.

One night a judge, a military officer.

and a minister, all applied for lodgings at an inn where there was but one spare bed, and the landlord was called upon to decide which had the best claim of the three.

Terrible Hog Disease.

See John Westworth, of the Chicago District, in Illinois, has received a letter from Hon. William L. Murray, the Consul General of the United States at Frankfurt, on the Main, under date of 3d of January, from which the following are extracts.

The Dead Letter Office.

A correspondent of the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, says: "The dead letter office is one of the curiosities of Washington to the stranger, but to those engaged in it, it is a terrible drudgery."

Religious Intelligence.

The Presbyterian thinks that George of an organ, to assist and harmonize the voice while celebrating Divine praise is proper, but when left to the worship of an organ, it marks the one of the grossest abuses.

Recent Intelligence from Spain.

shows that the Progressive party, with nothing short of a complete destruction of the Catholic Church, the abolition of all orders of monks and nuns, and the abandonment of all convents, while the Liberals would not go quite so far, but would be satisfied with "a reformation of the Church."

The Central Presbytery of Philadelphia.

has determined to raise $50,000 for the erection of a Memorial Church, as a token of gratitude to God, for the restoration of peace and the preservation of the integrity of the Union.

Dr. Huntington, we believe one of the clergyman who was voted for Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of New York.

Farm, House, &c.

ROOTS AND STOCK RAISING.—It is impossible to keep stock advantageously without roots. This fact, and the fact, also, that roots play an important part in the judicious rotation of crops, ought to induce more attention to them.

BREDDING AND VENTILATION.

Every farmer should see to it himself, however transitory may be his boys or other assistants—that his cattle, sheep, horses and hogs, are well bedded, as well as well fed and watered.

At the Dead Letter Office in Washington.

A letter was recently received, containing a check for $8,000 in coin, directed to a lady in New York, requesting her "to accept the enclosed as a return for the kindness shown my father and mother," and dated at the Astor House, and signed "John," who was to start immediately for Europe.

AN EXCHANGE SAYS.

"A gentleman in traveling along the coast of Florida and Georgia found a woman who did not know what a newspaper was. She had seven children and a pipe in her mouth. She must have had a capacious mouth."

DEAN SWIFT ONCE SAID THAT PROVIDENCE SHOWED HOW LITTLE IT THOUGHT OF RICHES BY THE FOLK WHOM IT PERMITTED TO POSSESS WEALTH.

WE DON'T WANT MEN THAT WILL CHANGE LIKE THE WINDS OF EVERY BREEZE; BUT MEN WHO LIKE MOUNTAINS WILL CHANGE THE COURSE OF THE WIND.

Wool and Hogs.

The Ohio Wool Growers Association, recommend that the attention of Congress be directed to the necessity of encouraging the raising of wool as much as it does the manufacturing of it.
