

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

Wm. B. Bingham, Jr., 54 Fifth st., Pittsburg, is the authorized agent for the Argus in that city.

Gen. Knipe, recently appointed Postmaster at Harrisburg, is a delegate to the Soldiers' Convention, to be held in Pittsburg on the 5th of June.

Mrs. Godfrey Gilmory, of West Middleport, Mercer county, died on Monday evening of last week, from a dose of oil of bitter almonds, administered either by design or accident.

The Eclectic Literary Society, of Darlington, will give an Exhibition in that place on Thursday evening, 24th inst. The performances consist of orations, colloquies, music, &c.

A long-rolling frolic held a few days ago in Allegheny township, Greese county, a man named Oliver Keener, was killed by being caught under one of the heavy logs the men were engaged in rolling down a piece of side-hill ground.

MAN KILLED.—On Friday, 11th inst., a man by the name of Jefferson Graham, a resident of New Castle, while attempting to get on the cars of the Cleveland and Mahoning railroad, at Hubbard, Ohio, fell between the cars and was instantly killed.

Masters of Wool Growers.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the Wool Growers of Beaver county at Darlington, on the 29th of May, for the purpose of forming an association for the county. Those interested in this matter are earnestly invited to attend.

CHARGE OF TIME.—The Wellsville accommodation leaves Beaver Station going East at 7:35 a. m., and going West leaves at 8:25 a. m. The train going West leaves the station at 7:25 a. m. We have not as yet received a reliable time but will endeavor next week to give the changes entire.

STREZERS.—On Tuesday of last week the banking firm of Kramer & Rahm, of Pittsburg, suspended. It has long been regarded as one of the most reliable and substantial houses in the city, and the opinion is confidently expressed that no one with whom they had transactions will suffer in the long run. The suspension was caused by that of Work, McCaugh & Co. of Philadelphia.

BANK INVESTIGATIONS.—The Mendville Journal says, receivers have been appointed by the comptroller of the currency to take charge of the Youngs National Bank and Crawford County National Bank. The accounts of these two institutions will be rigidly investigated and perhaps the public may be enlightened upon certain points connected with their management.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The "Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania" will hold its annual meeting at Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne county, on Wednesday, the 13th day of June. The committee of reception can be found at the Wyoming Valley Hotel, where delegates are requested to report, upon their arrival.

THE FLAG PRESENTATION.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company generously offer to transport, free of charge, to and from the flag presentation at Philadelphia, on the next Fourth of July, all surviving color-bearers and color guards of Pennsylvania regiments. It is desired that lists of such soldiers, wanting tickets, should be in the hands of General Negley, of Pittsburg, or of General Tyndale, of Philadelphia, on or before the 26th of the present month. Further, that such soldiers should assemble at Harrisburg by the first of July.

LOOK OUR FOR THEM.—Counterfeit twenty dollar bills of the First National Bank of Portland, Conn., are in circulation throughout the country. It is probable they will soon be in circulation in this section, and our business men would do well to keep a sharp look out for them.

Counterfeits on the new postal currency, of the denomination of fifty cents, are also in circulation. The engraving and general appearance of the new counterfeit is tolerably good, but the face is somewhat grayer in appearance, and the green on the back of a lighter shade.

INTERESTING LETTER.—"To me and my family the Cabinet Organ I purchased of you has been a constant source of unalloyed pleasure. The sweetness, purity and power of its tones, has been a subject of frequent remark among our guests and friends. For sacred music, and especially for use at family worship, it seems most happily adapted. I regard the introduction of such instruments into families as a public benefit—refining, purifying and elevating the taste, and in every way a blessing—while to the pastor of a congregation, I should deem it a duty as well as a privilege, one certain to result in good to use my utmost exertions to introduce one into every family in the neighborhood where there are young people."

REV. JOS. S. TRAVELL, Sewickleyville, Pa. See advertisement in another column.

ROCK DEAD.—A correspondent informs us that on the evening of the 16th inst., Turner Child, aged about 20 years, son of Samuel Child, of Independence township, was found dead about half a mile from his father's house. He was discovered late in the evening, by a small boy, lying on his face, with his arms under his head. He had that evening started out on his usual errand, and was found only a few rods from the place where they stated they had separated from him, he being at that time in perfect health to all appearance.

A jury was summoned by Jas. Irons, Esq., thinking there might have been foul play in the matter, the jury thought it expedient to have a post mortem examination of the body. The examination was performed by Dr. G. W. Langfitt, assisted by Dr. John Brian, Dr. A. R. Thompson was also present at the examination. No external marks were found on the body, except three small marks on the neck, probably caused by his falling. On examination of the brain, it was found that a blood vessel had given way, allowing the blood to escape into the meninges and ventricles of the brain, thus causing his death by compression of the brain. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Editors: Anxious.—We ask the use of your columns for the purpose of presenting to your readers the claims of the Beaver Female Seminary and Institute. This Institution had its origin in a well acknowledged necessity for improved advantages for female education. The practical idea was first suggested by Rev. Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church. The project was at once received with favor, and in view of the fact that there was then no school of High grade for the education of young ladies within many miles of Beaver, and in view of the many advantages which the location presented, its ease of access, its healthy atmosphere and beauty of scenery and the high moral and intellectual tone of the inhabitants, the idea seemed both feasible and attractive.

A subscription paper was prepared, and upon its presentation to the people the project met with much encouragement, many liberal subscriptions being made. Several public meetings were also held, in which Rev. J. Monroe, so long known and so highly respected by all who know him, Rev. W. G. Taylor, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Hon. Dan'l Agnew, E. P. Roberts, Esq., Hugh Anderson, Hon. Wm. Henry, and others, took an active leading part. The requisite funds were soon raised, and a charter of incorporation applied for and duly granted, and a Board of Trustees elected under its provisions. The charter as amended, and under which the Institution is now controlled, besides the usual provisions contains a clause to the effect that the Principal, who is elected by the Board of Trustees, is to be "a regular member of its good standing of the M. E. Church." The Trustees are elected by the Stockholders, and are fifteen in number, of whom nine constitute a quorum. The Institution, though denominational, has never been sectarian, and at present a majority of the corps of instructors are attached to other denominations than that to which it is provided that the Principal shall belong. The Board of Trustees also are elected from various denominations.

The reasons which led to this denominational relation which the institution sustains were, first, that the M. E. Church had to schools of this kind in the vicinity; and second, from its itinerancy and frequent changes of its ministry, it had ample facilities for bringing the school into wide spread notice. A very large and judicious committee was engaged in the selection of a location, which, with great unanimity, fixed upon the present site. The wisdom of the choice has been amply vindicated, not only by all those who have been connected in any way with the schools, but by visitors and strangers from abroad. From its opening, May 7, 1856, until the present time, it has steadily grown in favor with the public, until during the last year there were enrolled 314 pupils upon its Catalogue, while its faculty numbered 13 teachers in all the departments. About a year since, through the energy of the present Principal, B. T. Taylor, a new building was completed, and the one occupied as a Female Seminary under the recent control of Prof. S. B. Mercer, was purchased. The latter is one of the finest school buildings in the country. This consolidation has greatly increased the number of pupils in attendance, and has secured the employment of a taller and more efficient faculty, while it has brought to the school many decided advantages not before enjoyed. The Institution appeals strongly to the citizens of Beaver and the surrounding towns for their patronage, encouragement and support. Since the establishment of this school and largely attributable to its influence, and to that of a deservedly highly esteemed Academy and Union School, the ratio of increase of our population, and of the valuation of property has been very large. In 1855 the number of taxables was 156, in 1860 it was 191, and in 1865 it had reached 239, an increase of more than 50 per cent.

In 1855 the valuation of our Borough was $107,027, in 1860 it was $135,344; while in 1865 it reached the sum of $201,790, being an increase in ten years of $94,763, or more than eighty per cent. These facts need only to be presented to present an unanswerable argument to our citizens for their sustaining and maintaining our schools. Nay more; their appeal by incontrovertible logic to the pockets of our people to enlarge our Female Seminary, and make it more efficient, more worthy, and more in keeping with the progress of the age, and ahead of all rivals for support in its superior appointments and facilities. The additional facilities of our quiet, beautiful old town, too, are attracting hither a large and very desirable increase of citizens, who come that they may enjoy our advantages; and in consequence, a spirit of enterprise and improvement is everywhere visible. It becomes us as citizens to foster this emigration and this spirit, and we holdly affirm that in no other way can it be so easily, so cheaply, and so efficiently done, as by liberally endorsing and fostering our educational institutions. And this same appeal comes with almost equal force to the inhabitants of our surrounding Boroughs and vicinity. They have all the advantages of home schools of high grade, and save the risks and expense of sending their loved ones away from the parental roof. They may educate their daughters in all that is needful ever to meet the advanced requirements of the times, and still have the charm of home and the unbroken family circle.

But the argument applies as well to the citizens of the entire county and the surrounding regions. Your daughters while in Beaver are not far from home, are of easy access, you may see them frequently at trifling expense, and often have them with you at the family fireside. Indeed, very many now do thus patronize this school from a distance of miles, by means of the railway facilities we enjoy, their daughters leaving home in the morning and returning in the evening. We feel confident, then, whilst calling your attention to the superior advantages you enjoy, in appealing to you to rally as one man for the support of our own home school. Let us inquire into the wants and necessities of this noble Institution, and meet them with a liberal hand. Next week, with your permission, Messrs. Editors, we will have more to say upon this subject. CITIZEN.

An Act relative to restaurant licenses in Butler, Lawrence, Adams, Beaver and Franklin Counties. Sec 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Court of Quarter Sessions alone of the counties of Butler, Lawrence, Adams, Beaver and Franklin; shall be authorized to grant licenses to keep restaurants, instead of the County Treasurers of said counties, and the same notice shall be required as is now required for application to keep an Inn or Tavern; Provided said licenses may be granted at any regular term of Court, and all laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. JAMES R. KELLEY, Speaker of House of Representatives. D. FLEMING, Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the thirteenth day of April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six. A. G. CURTIS.

Interesting to Faggers. The new Woolen Factory of Mr. Jos. Pontefract is now ready to do all kinds of custom work, as will be seen by its advertisement in another column, to which attention is directed. Those of our readers in the country who have wool to work up, would do well to give him a call. Mr. P. is a wool manufacturer of long experience in the business, and it is determined that the work turned out at his Factory shall be second to none in the country, and further that it shall be done on short notice and reasonable terms. Remember the place, nearly opposite Gilliland's Store, New Brighton, Pa.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Bank for Savings, (formerly Dime Savings Institution) of Pittsburg. For persons of limited means, and who wish to make a small deposit, this is the best institution in the State. Deposits of any sum over one dollar can be made in this bank, and will draw interest from the time of making deposit. The men connected with this bank are among the best in the city of Pittsburg.

We call attention to the card of Dr. John C. Lewis, which will be found in our advertising columns. Dr. Lewis has recently resumed the practice of medicine and surgery in Bridgewater. He served two or three years in the army, and was considered a very fine surgeon. His office is in the room adjoining the new Drug Store of Lewis & Proudley.

The editor of the Mercer Press, the Democratic organ of that county, announces that the paper must be suspended for lack of support, unless pecuniary aid is at once forthcoming. "The way of the transgressor is hard."

The Pittsburg Gazette establishment has been sold to Penman, Reed & Co., by whom it will hereafter be conducted. The editor, Mr. Penniman, is an able writer, and we have no doubt under his control the Gazette will grow in public favor. The Gazette is now a leading paper in the West.

THE CABINET ORGAN. What It Is. The grand old organ that has for centuries filled Churches, Palaces, and Cathedral with its celestial harmonies, is becoming daily more valued and appreciated by religious assemblies, and its almost universal introduction to the churches of our country, has been prevented only by its great cost. This obstacle is now removed by the process of invention, improvement and perfection, as applied to the Melodeon and Harmonium, and we have the result in an instrument which, considering its bulk and cost, is a Musical Wonder.

THE CABINET ORGAN, perfected and patented by Misson & Hamlin, of Boston, has now been before the public but two years, and yet it has already secured the warmest approval from churches, schools, and families in all parts of our country. This Art Critic of the New York Tribune says of it in his department: It has been blown by the wind of genuine success from Boston to San Francisco. That M. & H. have succeeded in making a better small instrument than any other—from little handbox like things to those which, though portable and not large, are now claiming the unqualified notice of the musical profession. They agree that no such mechanical works of the kind can be found in equal perfection in Europe. The tone is pure and full, and with an immense body for so small a proportion, the mechanical parts stand rough travelling, had usage, and will live in climates which kill American missionaries.

The Rev. Dr. PRIME, the well known editor of the New York Tribune, in his editorial correspondence, speaking of the insufficiency of the Melodeon to take the place of the Pipe Organ, says: "But the wants is fully met by the Cabinet Organ. With your eyes shut you cannot distinguish its tones from that of the Pipe Organ itself. It is adapted to the performance of sacred music, psalms, tunes, anthems, chants, &c., and is a grand accompaniment when the congregation sing, as it is just the instrument that ought to be used in all churches where the people all wish to have the privilege of bearing a part in the praise."

200 Organists and Pianists, the most eminent of their profession in the country, have given written testimony to the superiority of these instruments over all others of their class. The Cabinet Organ is, in brief, a grand, useful and beautiful instrument, the people everywhere. Its great power, purity and sweetness of tone, and its scope of expression, add to its durability and complete construction, cannot fail to make it, in the public favorite. It is now the instrument to which the degree of perfection to which these instruments have been brought; that it is alike suited to the purposes of churches, halls, schools, and private parlors, and is admirably adapted to both secular and sacred music, and it is believed that it will bear no comparison with any other instrument and establishing a popular musical taste wherever it goes.

The subscribers are the exclusive wholesale Agents for the Mission & Hamlin Cabinet Organ for Western Pennsylvania, and furnish them at exactly the same price as charged at the Factory. The subscribers are anxious to send to every person, whether intending to purchase an instrument or not, a copy of the Cabinet Organ Circular, which contains a full and very interesting information.
