On motion, the report of the committee was received, and having been adopted, a copy was directed to be furnished to the proprietor of the National Hotel.

On motion, the meeting adjourned, to meet in Beaver, the first Monday of September next. GEO. S. HART, President.

Editors of the Anson: Permit me through your columns, to say a word or two to those sneaking cowardly copperhead correspondents of the Beaver Local, who in the last issue of that sheet have had the audacity to intimate that my family have been kept at the expense of Beaver county.

If they wish to make such impressions on the minds of the people of Beaver county, let them come out over their own signatures, and not give vent to their malicious slander, afraid to let their names be known. But such is copperhead instinct. And by way of advice, I would say to them that before they make assertions they had better have more reliable intelligence than that received from a certain lady who holds a kind of "under ground" correspondence with the Poor House Paupers. I am ever ready to acknowledge that my circumstances in life are not to be envied; but I stand prepared to prove the assertions of the Local correspondent false to all intents, by both my Democratic and Republican neighbors, who have known me from childhood. If they wish to expose our copperhead venality in regard to the management of public affairs, let it be upon the terms they have managed themselves. If they are well managed I claim no honor, if they are mismanaged, I am not responsible, and, finally, let me say to the correspondent of the Local, and to all who make use of that paper to abuse loyal men, that a much more profitable employment for them during their leisure hours, would be to set down and blood over the disloyal expressions and acts of which they have been guilty during the last six years. Let their accounts to Heaven for the defeat of our armies, while contending for the preservation of the Union. Let them rebearse their nightly efforts to deprive our brave soldiers of the right of suffrage while away contending with treason and traitors. Let them look to that Presidential Mansion, whose occupant fell a victim to their midnight conspiracies—an event which caused a thinking world to mourn, but which was a theme of hidden rejoicing in the breast of their traitorous leaders in Beaver county who even refused to drap their doors in token of sorrow, and if they can devise a means by which they can escape the infamy treasured up for them, they will have done well; if not, let them hide their broken heads. G. W. SHROADS. Moon 7th, June 4th, '66.

Interested to Farmers

The new Woolen Factory of Mr. Jos. Post-er is now ready to do all kinds of custom work, as will be seen by his advertisement in another column, to which attention is directed.

Those of our readers in the country who have wool to work up, would do well to give him a call. Mr. P. is a well known and long experienced in the business, and is determined that the work turned out at his factory shall be second to none in the country, and further that it shall be done on the most liberal and reasonable terms. Remember the place, nearly opposite Gilliland's Store, New Brighton, Pa.
