How to CURE A FELON.—The Journal of Medicine says: As we often see friends suffer with these very troublesome things, we publish the following cure for them, which we have heard highly recommended: As soon as the parts begin to swell get the tincture of iodine, and wrap the part affected with cloth saturated thoroughly with the tincture, and the felon is dead. An old physician says he has known it to cure in scores of cases, and it never fails if applied in season.

DAVIS FEMALE SEMINARY.—The annual examination of the classes of this Institution will commence Tuesday afternoon, the 26th inst., and continue through Wednesday and Thursday. The Musical Soiree takes place Wednesday, and the closing exercises Thursday evening. The examination exercises will be interspersed with music and essays. The patrons and friends of the Institution are earnestly and cordially invited to be present during a part at least of these exercises.

WE HAVE BEEN SHOWN, says an exchange, a counterfeit gold eagle, so ingeniously made that it is calculated to defy even experts. Apparently it is genuine, so far as weight and appearance are concerned, and tested by acids it would be pronounced genuine; and even a shrewd, unless very vigorously applied, would not show the deception. Upon breaking it open, however, the interior is filled with a small plate of platinum, and instead of being worth ten dollars in gold its value is only about one-third of that amount.

A SPANISH TEAM.—Dr. Potter, of Tionesta, Yanango county, is reported, made a wager of $5,000 a few weeks since that he would drive his pair of mares over a country road to be selected by him, 100 miles in 24 hours. The event came off a few days ago, and the Doctor drove 102 miles and 17 rods in 9 hours and 11 minutes and 10 seconds, stopping once to feed and twice to water; the actual time of traveling being 24 hours. This is the best time on record. The animals are a beautiful pair of large bay mares, and they came in apparently quite fresh, under a strong pull. The Doctor was afterwards offered $10,000 for his team, but he refused to sell.

DELIBERATE MURDER NEAR TITUSVILLE.—Last week a young man named John Dwyer, left Titusville, Venango county, in a wagon, to be married to a Miss Hattie Mattison, living about six miles north of that place, when about two miles on the road he received a rifle ball through his body, which went in at the left side and came out the right arm. He fell from the wagon and turned the horse loose, thinking by this means to call assistance. Two gentlemen passing at the time carried him to a friend's house in the neighborhood, but before medical attendance could be procured, he died. The rifle was shown near where he was shot, evidently showing that the murderer had been within twenty feet of his victim. A rival for the hand of the young lady had threatened to shoot him, and he is supposed to be the guilty party.

THE TEN PER CENT. TAX.—There are so many incorrect statements made about the tax that will be imposed on the issue of checks organized under State laws, paid out by banks on and after the 1st of July, 1866, that it is important for every business man to understand the law. The Act of Congress, of March 3d, 1865, reads thus: Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That every National Banking Association, State Bank, or State Banking Association, shall pay a tax of ten per cent. on the amount of any check drawn on or by a National Banking Association paid out by them, after the first day of July, 1866.

It will be noticed that the tax is imposed only on checks paying out other notes than those of National Banks, or United States legal tenders, and that in no case can the tax be imposed on individuals, merchants, brokers, or agents, (other than Banks,) paying them out, or using them in their business.

PROFESSOR H. S. BOWEN.—Interesting Letter. Dear Sir:—I have now used the Chikering Piano for nearly eighteen years, and from this experience, I pronounce them to be the most perfect instruments in every particular, that I have ever used myself or taught upon. Their remarkable purity, brilliancy and nobleness of tone, and ease and promptness of mechanism, are qualities most satisfactory to the artist, and highly conducive to the rapid and thorough improvement of the student. I especially recommend the Chikering Pianos for the use of pupils, as I have remarked from actual observation, that they obtain a most correct appreciation of musical tone, and gain a freedom and ease of finger by practicing on these instruments.

My preference is most decidedly in favor of the Chikering Piano, and I recommend them to the public as being the very best Pianos that are made. Yours respectfully, H. S. BOWEN, No. 81 Wood Street, Pittsburg, Pa. Advertisement in another column.

Dr. J. M. Hatton, Dentist, Third street, Beaver, extracts teeth, without pain, by an entirely new process.

The Huntingdon Journal says the hog cholera has made its appearance in that county.

PERSONAL.—Jesse H. Lord, lately one of the editors of the Erie Dispatch has been made editor-in-chief of the Scientific American, New York.

Governor Curtin has appointed Charles R. Coburn Superintendent of Common Schools for the State of Pennsylvania.

FREE LECTURE.—George W. Prondley, a student of medicine, will deliver a free lecture on Cholera, in the M. E. church, Bridgewater, on Thursday evening, June 21st, at 7 o'clock.

NICK DONATION.—Hon. M. C. Trout, of Sharon, Mercer county, donated a valuable collection of books, to the State Normal School at Edinboro, a few days since.

BOUNTY ON HOUSE THIEVES.—Any person arresting a horse thief is entitled to a bounty of twenty dollars and mileage, according to an old act of Assembly. This law is not generally known, but it is worth knowing.

THE "FOURTH".—The ladies of St. Joseph's Congregation, of New Brighton, will celebrate the National Anniversary with a Pic-Nic, at Patterson's Grove, Brighton. Tickets, 50 cents. All are invited. Music and dancing will close the exercises.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—J. H. Odell was sentenced on Saturday last to pay a fine of three hundred dollars and costs.

Robert Kelly was sentenced fifteen months to western Penitentiary, and John Ferguson six months to county jail.

MAN FOUND DROWNED.—The body of a man was found floating in the Ohio river, opposite Lukins & Co.'s saw-mill in Rochester, on Wednesday last. He was apparently about twenty-five years of age, was five feet ten inches in height, and had black hair. He wore light pants, black coat, white and black shirt, heavy boots and a leather belt, with a "U. S." buckle. A pack of cards was found on his person, but no papers were found. An inquest was held, and he was buried in the cemetery in Rochester. Coroner McEoy will give all information in regard to the body.

ATTEMPTED FRAUD.—The Pittsburgh Commercial of Monday says: J. W. Winters, of Beaver county, was arrested on Saturday, and taken before Alderman Strain, to answer a charge preferred by Mr. W. Shinn, Superintendent of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, of attempting to obtain the sum of $3,200 by fraud and false representation. Some months ago, Winters shipped two boxes from Rochester to Homewood station, but they failed to reach their destination. He instituted suit against the railroad company for the recovery of the boxes, which he alleged contained goods to the amount of $2,300. On Friday the boxes were found, and upon being opened it was discovered that they contained a carpet mat and some household goods, valued at about $100. Winters was committed to jail in default of $4,000 bail for a further hearing on Tuesday.

At a regular meeting of Beaver Lodge, No. 366, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening, June 12th, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from time to eternity our highly esteemed friend and beloved Brother, William Morrow, who departed this life on the 3d day of June, 1866, at the residence of Mr. John Weaver, in Vanport, in the 23d year of his age; therefore,

Resolved, That by this dispensation of Divine Providence, we experience a heavy and painful loss, and community deprived of an honorable and upright citizen.

Resolved, That though our Brother has passed from this life of labor while the days of his usefulness were just beginning to dawn, yet his memory will ever be cherished by us till we join him in that "house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed upon the record of this lodge, and that the blank page immediately following, be inscribed with the name, age, and time of death our departed Brother.

Resolved, That as a token of respect and esteem for our deceased Brother, the members of this lodge wear the usual badge, and the hall be clothed in mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions attested by the Secretary, be forwarded to the family of the deceased, and to the Beaver papers for publication.

A. C. BARLOW, DAVID WOODRUFF, Com. HENRY B. BRINK, Sec. BRIDGEWATER, June 13, '66.

Democratic Convention.

The annual gathering of the united forces of this county took place on Monday last. There were a few more present than usual, owing to the fact that the number of delegates had been doubled, in order to make a more formidable show. With this exception, it was the convention that has assembled in this county since we first had any knowledge of Democratic conventions, and we are assured that for twenty-five years past there has been but very few changes in the different delegations. The same men, the same officers, in part the same ticket, and the result will show the same defeat, only more complete. There were the Cunnings, Shanes, Badgers, Ramseys, Givens, Breitensteins, Barnes, M'Ilhenys, Russells and Campbells, who for a time were the memory of man runneth not; to the contrary, have appeared once a year, as representatives of the Democracy of their several localities. The only difference is, these men as they grow older obey better, and the only reason most of them can give for coming at all is because they are told to. Judge Irwin was elected President and J. A. Sholes and Ramsey-Douthitt were appointed Vice Presidents. It is true three men took their places on the stand as Vice Presidents, but we must infer that no convention ever intended to have three, so, we conclude the intimation was for the two who sat together to be considered one. (Col. Sholes seemed to think that if he was not President he ought to be, and accordingly ignored everybody else, not excepting the President, Douthitt, a very respectable citizen, was for some reason boisted about two feet above the others, possibly because he was the only one who had not occupied the same seat for a generation, and they wanted to exhibit him, or it may be to divert attention from Ramsey. The officers being seated, there was a brief pause, which was broken by the Secretary's reading over the list of last year's delegates, and adding a few new names. This being done, the President shook hands with the Vice Presidents. Douthitt looking around discovered Ramsey below, and gave him his hand. Ramsey said quite audibly, "I don't know you." Douthitt replied, "I don't know you." Here was a crisis, which was relieved by Ramsey exclaiming, "I am Bill Ramsey," being not a little vexed that there should be found any man who did not know him. Douthitt seeing his error, extended his hand again, and thus the difficulty was settled. Among the delegates sat S. B. Wilson, Esq., looking just as innocently as if he didn't own the show, and had things working to order. Our friend Dougherty was in the convention, and of all the Democrats in the county there is none cleverer than Ed.; but notwithstanding he is a Democrat, and has some notion of either going partner in the show or else running it on his own hook, at his instance a delegate moved to adjourn. Wilson said they must first appoint a committee on resolutions. Capt. Gilmore moved to appoint one, which was done, and he was not only not given the Chairmanship, which by right was his, but was left off the committee altogether. We saw one of the officers looking at Robert after the committee was announced, just as if he would say: "There, darn you, take that, and learn hereafter how to go out mischief with abolitioners." It was a downright insult to our old orderliness, and we resent it. After this, Bob never squeaked while the convention lasted. Another motion to adjourn, but no go. Programmie not right. Capt. Dickey bore moved that the delegations be filled up with anybody who might be picked up, which was carried. Another motion to adjourn. Carried this time, being in the order arranged. Convention again met at half-past one, but it being suggested that some had not finished their complement of lager, a rebekah was taken. The signal being given to start the machine, J. C. Ritchie, who in the morning said there were no delegates from Hopewell, got up and announced four, and a delegate from Chippewa announced the names of four from Darlington. E. P. Kahn, Esq., a clever fellow, by the way, gave the convention to understand he had served as an ornamental candidate once, and would do so no more; that he was too 'greasy' to stand on the platform, and therefore must be excused. Dr. M'Carroll, of Frankfort, a gentleman for whom we entertain a high regard, sent word that they must not count him in. Douthitt and Biggs resigned for Poor House Director. Samuel Kennedy didn't know he was a candidate, so he didn't. We reckon Sam don't take the Local. It was a sad confession for Sam. The delegates looked at him shortly, and to say, "You poor case, you ought to be ashamed to tell it." Nobody cared about his being a candidate, and so he was 'dressed' John Edgar was nominated for Assembly. John is a good miller. We endorse him as snug, we do. But beyond that we can't. John's flour is excellent, but his politics, of course, Daugherty and Wilson set together, showing how brothers may dwell together in unity. When Daugherty made a motion Ramsey-Douthitt—so, we mean Bill Ramsey, from the Judge's chair, cried out, "I second." When Wilson made a motion, he did likewise. A delegate moved to vote for Judge Wilson said Sheriff. President said Judge. Delegate was required to explain, and finally said Judge. Potter beat the Glassman, because Potter, having been a candidate for twenty-one years, claimed it by the statute of limitation. Hazen, of North Sewickly, having beaten a one-armed soldier for constable, was rewarded with the nomination for Sheriff.

Musser was the only man willing to run against a one-armed soldier for Register & Recorder, and he was nominated. The President declared J. M. Phillips had "the largest majority" for clerk. During a vote for Poor House Director Ramsey left, and the Convention had to wait full fifteen minutes for his return to receive his vote. Daugherty moved the appointment of nine officers; Sholes suggested three; Wilson said nine; Sholes thought there was not nine men to be found who would spend money so foolishly; Wilson persisted; Sholes hesitated, but finally succumbed, and appointed those whose names were given him.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following: Resolved, That the Poor House contains only poor people, and therefore they do not deserve to be supported by the tax-payers of the county.

Resolved, That the Republican Commissioners, in charging for as many days as did Democrats in former days, thereby reflect gravely on said Democrats, which cannot be endured.

Resolved, That Odell having violated the law, and being convicted for so doing, is therefore entitled to our sympathies; and worthy of our respect.

Major Power said he wanted to say a word, and yet he believed he didn't. It might be proper, and yet it mightn't. He would like to proceed, and he wouldn't. Painful suspense. He proceeded to move that they proceed to suggest they do, by indicating that this thing be met, and that a Grand Treasurer be appointed in Beaver county, who should receive anything that might be given him to pay the expenses of the thing (meaning Odell's Libel suit). Great sensation. Power stopped to think, and Daugherty stepped to his feet and waded into the very wing of the Court House at a furious rate. He wanted fifty cents from Democrats to pay for firing pop-guns at the Court House, and to pay Odell something for having been convicted. This was a plain intimation to the country gentlemen that the leaders intended to throw the burden on them, and that they must foot the bill and pay for the pop-guns and cost of breaking the law. Major Power, having gained his breath, waded in, and Daugherty squatted. Power said he wanted Odell to fire the pop-gun again, but not to break the law, which was well received, because of the fifty cent levy. That was enough to make a law-and-order party, even out of those composing the Convention. Power said somebody would give ten dollars—but he was a Republican. On this announcement there was a general sigh of relief—at least fifty men determining to reduce their subscriptions to a quarter in consequence. Wilson was called on for a speech, and he let drive square at the Court House, and among the helpless inmates of the Poor House. As the aforesaid inmates are all Democrats, we concluded it was good for them, and let them take it.

Not one word had the speaker to utter about "great principles." A friend, who had notes of his speech before the same Convention in 1864, proposed to read a portion—for instance, his views of the war, and the impossibility of conquering the South. Wonder how the speaker would have liked it? Wonder if his ally into the Poor House, &c., wasn't to draw attention from his past efforts? There are few pleasanter or more accommodating business men than Mr. Wilson, and yet there is no bitterer politician. We have never known a public speaker who was so temperate in his abuse, or whose speeches contained, as another remarked, so much "wormwood and gall." His speeches do us more good than the Democracy, because they are so bitter they arouse men who otherwise would remain passive.

At the conclusion of Wilson's speech the Convention adjourned, having nominated the weakest ticket ever presented to the people; and we say, in all candor, it will be the worst beaten.
