

The Result in this County.

The result of the election in this county on the 9th inst., is as gratifying to the Union men as any of them could desire.

The Democracy declined the issue thus tendered by the Union men, and made "Sambo" their "objective point"; and if the Local is good authority, they were sadly repulsed; for it says on the result, that "the white man has been shoved back, and the negro kicks up his heels higher than ever."

The Union men, we repeat, have made a splendid fight; and since the election we have heard loud campaigners assert that taking all things into consideration, it was one of the greatest victories that the party has seen in this county for many years.

The Elections.

The result of the elections on the 9th inst., not only in Pennsylvania, but also in Ohio, Indiana and Iowa, is all that the most sanguine Union man could desire.

In this State we have elected Gen. Geary Governor, by a majority of 17,000, and, in addition to holding our own on Congressmen, we have gained two members—Coyde in the 21st District, who beats Wier (Dem.) 362, and Gen. Calkin in the 10th District, leads Strouse (Dem.) about 200 votes.

The State Legislature is Union by a majority of 35 on joint ballot, thus giving us a Union U. S. Senator in place of Cowan.

Ohio elects her Union State ticket by a majority of 35,000, and sends sixteen Union men to Congress and three Democrats.

Indiana shows a Union majority of 15,000, and returns eight Union men to Congress and three Democrats.

Iowa condemns "My Policy" by a majority of 25,000, and sends a clear Union delegation to Congress.

As will be seen by the table published elsewhere in the Argus, we have gained largely in this county. Geary has a majority of 925 over Clymer, and had it not been for our judicial difficulty, we would have had fully as large a majority in the county as we claimed—1000.

Good on Figures.

Our opponents in this county have certainly satisfied the public that they are good political arithmeticians. The Local, before the election, asserted that its party would carry the county, and other coppery politicians were sure that they would hold our majority in the county down to 400.

Bear it in Mind.

Union Democrats should bear it in mind that the editor of the Local, believing that Andy Johnson was about to rebel against the verdict of the people as pronounced at the ballot box on the 9th inst., endorsed the supposed rebellion, and alleged that "the North would be the field of action," and likewise that the fight would be a "short but bloody one."

Table with columns for Governor, Congress, P. Judge, A. Judge, Senate, Assembly, etc., and rows for various districts like Big Beaver, Borough 1st, etc.

Poor House Director—Petter, U. 3223 Todd, D. 2424 Auditor—M. Miller, U. 3283 Cooper, D. 2399 Trustees of Academy—Murray, U. 3279 Stanton, U. 3280 Jackson, D. 2429 Beatty, D. 2411

The Local Gets up Another War.

Some irresponsible correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger sent a communication from Washington to that paper, avowing that the next day after the election the President had sent to the Attorney General the following interrogatories, and to which he wished replies in writing:

First, Is the present Congress, composed of members from the Northern States alone, such a Congress as the Constitution requires, or is it an illegal and unconstitutional assembly?

Second, Would existing circumstances justify the President in sending his next annual message to an illegal and unconstitutional assembly, pretending to be the Congress of the United States?

Third, Does that clause in section fifth of the first article of the Constitution which makes each House the judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members, give to the present Congress the right to exclude the members from ten States, or to impose dishonorable or unconstitutional terms upon their admission?

Fourth, Does the President's oath of office require him to enforce those provisions of the Constitution which give to each State an equal right of representation in Congress?

Fifth, What steps do the Constitution and his oath of office require the President to take, in order to secure the assembling of a constitutional Congress?

The Result in the District.

On Tuesday last was the day fixed by law for the meeting at this place of the Return Judges of the District. At the hour of our going to press the Judge from Greene county had not arrived, and we are therefore unable to give the official vote on Congress, but the reported majority for Lawrence in the District is between fifteen and sixteen hundred.

FOR JUDGE.

Washington county—Acheson, U. 4989 Deaver, D. 2862 Total 7851 Acheson's majority, 5027

FOR SENATOR.

Washington county—Taylor, U. 4955 Deaver, D. 3200 Total 8155 Taylor's majority, 1755

FOR REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington county—Ewing, U. 4956 Deaver, D. 4928 Total 9884 Ewing's majority, 28

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Below will be found a list of the Senators and members elect of the next Legislature of Pennsylvania. We lose a Senator in the First District, but are recompensed by the gain of another in the Twenty-sixth District.

- 1. Wm. McClelland, D. 17. E. Billington, U. 5. W. Worthington, U. 6. J. W. Fisher, U. 8. J. D. Davis, D. 20. Alex. Suttaman, U. 8. C. Burnett, D. 24. T. B. Seagriff, D. 16. G. D. Jackson, D. 28. A. W. Taylor, U. 16. G. D. Coleman, U. 28. Jas. C. Brown, U.

- 2. J. E. Ridgway, U. 18. A. H. Glaza, D. 2. C. M. Donovan, D. 19. D. McCaughey, U. 4. Connelly, U. 21. W. Hall, U. 6. Horace Boyer, U. 7. Kirk Haines, U. 9. G. P. James, D. 10. Kirk White, U. 7. G. B. Schall, D. 23. W. A. Wallace, D. 9. Wm. M. Paudell, D. 25. T. J. Bigham, U. 11. Gen. Landon, U. 12. J. L. Graham, U. 13. L. S. Johnson, U. 27. E. A. Brown, U. 12. W. Cowley, U. 28. M. B. Lowry, U. 14. J. Walls, D.

Congressmen Elect.

- 1—S. I. Randall, Dem; 2—Charles O'Neil Union; 3—Leopard Myers, Union; 4—W. D. Kelley, Union; 5—C. N. Taylor, Union; 6—B. M. Boyer, Dem; 7—J. M. Broomall, Union; 8—Lawrence Gaiz, Dem; 9—Thad. Stevens, Union; 10—H. L. Calkin, Union; 11—D. M. Van Anken, Dem; 12—C. Dennison, Dem; 13—U. Mercer, Union; 14—F. Miller, Union; 15—A. J. Glosbrenner, Dem; 16—W. H. Keatts, Union; 17—D. J. Morrell, Union; 18—F. S. Wilson, Union; 19—G. W. Scofield, Union; 20—D. A. Finney, Union; 21—John Conode, Union; 22—J. K. Moorhead, Union; 23—Thomas Williams, Union; 24—G. V. Lawrence, Union;

- 1—Benj. Eggleston, Union; 2—R. B. Hayes, Union; 3—R. C. Schenck, Union; 4—Wm. Lawrence, Union; 5—Wm. Mungsh, Dem; 6—R. W. Clarke, Union; 7—S. Shellabarger, Union; 8—C. S. Hamilton, Union; 9—R. B. Buckland, Union; 10—J. M. Apley, Union; 11—John T. Wilson, Union; 12—P. Van Trump, Dem; 13—General Morgan, Dem; 14—Martin Welker, Union; 15—Tobias E. Plants, Union; 16—John A. Bingham, Union; 17—R. P. Spaulding, Union; 18—Jas. A. Garfield, Union;

Washington is the only Democratic township in Lawrence county.

LOCAL and MISCELLANEOUS.

Wm. BROWN, Jr., 54 Fifth st., Pittsburgh is the authorized agent for the Argus in that city.

POETRY.—We have received a poetical contribution from Homewood, but as the author's name is not given, it will not be published in the Argus.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, at Edinboro, is undoubtedly the best place for teachers to attend School; the State assists those who are preparing to teach.

A FINE STAGE OF WATER.—The recent rains have again brought the Ohio river up to a fine navigable stage. Boats, for the last few days, have been busy in passing up and down the stream.

BARN BURNED.—The barn of Mr. Cornelius Donoven, of South Beaver township, was burned a few nights ago. The building was a very valuable one, and the fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

CHAIR.—Those of our readers who desire to peruse something that is refined and chaste, are respectfully referred to a paragraph in the last Local. By reading the fifth item in the local column they will see of what "stuff" a coppery newspaper is made of. Shame.

EXTENSION OF WATER FACILITIES.—We notice that the pipe for an extension of the water works of this place is on the ground on the street running parallel with the river, and immediately on its bank. The extension will be about one hundred and fifty yards—between the dwelling of Mr. Boyd and Mrs. Leech.

ARM BROKEN.—On Thursday last, a little son of Rev. Horner, of the Bridgewater M. E. Church, fell and broke his arm. The fracture is quite a severe one, but at last accounts he was doing well. He is about 5 or 6 years of age. Dr. J. C. Lewis, of that place, is the attending surgeon.

ABANDONED COURT.—At the adjourned Court held here on Saturday last there was considerable business done in the Orphan's Court, and but little in the Common Pleas. The regular term commences on the 12th of November.

EXHIBITION.—The Darlington School will give a public exhibition on Thursday evening, October 25th, in the Free Presbyterian church, Darlington, Pa. Doors open at 6 o'clock; performance to commence at 7. Admittance, 25 cents, at the door. Proceeds to be applied to benevolent purposes.

CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS.—The campaign is now over and we this week give its result in this county, in the Argus. This number, therefore, fulfills the contract between us and our campaign subscribers, and unless otherwise ordered, their names will now be dropped from our subscription book. We would be pleased to have all of these continue taking the Argus, and a fine dropped to us between now and Wednesday next indicating this, will cause us to send them our paper "right along."

TEX UNION MEN OF BRIDGEWATER made a gallant fight on the 9th inst. Their opponents there counted on a majority of 10 for Clymer; but by hard hammering and close watching our people made it a tie vote. This was better than we expected, as most of the river men of the town are Democrats, and they were almost to a man at home on that day. Keep the Union fires burning brightly, and the next time a complete triumph will reward your efforts.

HOME ATTRACTION.—The New York Examiner closes an able and complimentary article on Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet as follows: "Taking our pen simply to recommend the Cabinet Organs to our friends, we were led to the reflections above upon the great value of such means as these for adding to the attractions and prompting the influence of home. Whether they have convinced our readers or not, they have at least wrought so firm a conviction in our own mind, that we are determined our own home shall at once have a new attraction, and that a Cabinet Organ."

THE DEMOCRACY vs. the "Nigger." In the furious conflict through which the Democracy vs. the "Nigger" have just passed, it is clear that Sambo did not come out second best; for the last Local says that "the white man is shoved back, and the negro kicks up his heels higher than ever." The darkey is evidently a tougher customer than the Democracy thought he was. We are anxious to know how "our own Montgomery" feels since the fight.

If ever there was a man who had reason to exclaim "save me from my friends," that man is certainly Capt. Gillis of this place. Some ten days or two weeks ago the Local, desirous of lavishing its praise on some one made Capt. Gillis the subject, and accordingly magnified a little incident that occurred between Rev. Mr. Smith's lady and Capt. Gillis into a wonderful affair, and then sought to make her out of the latter at Mrs. Smith's expense. A week later the Local discovered its mistake, and finding that its adulation had put Capt. Gillis into a very ludicrous position, it listened to extricate him, and instead of doing so it only succeeded in plunging that gentleman deeper and deeper into the mire.

If the editor of the Local had but a little common sense he would know that neither Mrs. Smith nor any one else connected with the Union party in Beaver had any objection to Capt. Gillis waving an American flag either upon that or any other day; but she did object to his making her a party to raising it in honor of a man (Clymer) who had done his utmost to dishonor it during the war. She was right in doing so, and with remarkable unanimity the people of Beaver sustain her action in what she did. But again—The Local should have realized the fact at the outset that the citizens of Beaver know that heroes are seldom manufactured in times of peace, and that they are never made in conflicts with women and children. Its attempt, therefore, to enhance Capt. Gillis' reputation for bravery by what took place between that gentleman and Mrs. Smith, is every whit as futile as it is ridiculous. Had the Local, then, been in possession of a little discretion, it never would have referred to that farcical affair at all; and if it is really, Capt. Gillis' friend now, it will drop the subject as quickly as possible, and forever.

We respect Capt. Gillis' position, and presume that we would respect him also if we were acquainted with him, and it is in deference to this respect that we now call his attention to a matter that seemingly involves his honor as a fair dealing man. He is represented to have told numberless persons in Beaver that, fearing that he would say something about his education with Mrs. Smith, he went to the editor and obtained a promise from him that the matter would not be referred to, and that he was extremely mortified at seeing it in that paper on the following day. On the other hand it is asserted that instead of being pained at seeing his details published in the Local, he purchased two or three dozen copies of the same paper, and sent them away to his friends, thus showing that while he apparently assured the editor of the Local, he really approved of what he did. We know Capt. Gillis does not wish his neighbors to suppose him guilty in this charge of double dealing, and we therefore respectfully suggest to him the propriety of an explanation.

DEATH OF PROF. RAY.—Prof. John S. Raley, the celebrated horse trainer of this country, died at Cleveland, on Thursday of last week. Last December his health was materially impaired by a severe stroke of the palsy, and since that time he has been constantly traveling in hopes of regaining his former strength and activity, but all to no purpose. About six weeks ago he went to Cleveland, in charge of his niece, Mrs. Williams, and growing gradually worse, he expired on the 11th inst. He was in his 38th year, and his reputation as a horse trainer was unequalled either in this country or Europe.

A GROSS OUTRAGE.—On the Monday evening before the election, a meeting was held in Cassville, Hamilton county, within one hundred yards of the Soldiers' Orphan School located in that village. The orphan of our fallen heroes were permitted to attend the meeting, in charge of their teachers, and upon returning to their situation to which they belonged, were thrown at them by the Copperheads and too fatherless children—a boy and girl—were struck and seriously injured. When the opposition resort to such contemptible outrages they only exhibit their love for treason, and the enmity to the Government, to which, the fathers of the orphans have down their lives.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The semi-monthly meeting of the Teachers' Institute of Borough township public schools will be held in the public school building—room No. 4—on Thursday evening, 18th inst., at 6 o'clock. The exercises will consist of a lecture, by Dr. A. C. Barlow, on "drill in mental arithmetic," by J. Rhodes, Class drill in reading, by Mrs. Minnie Savage; Essay, by Mrs. Harriet Discussion on the methods of securing parental Music. The public are cordially invited to attend. By order, J. BRADFORD RHOADS, Secy. pro tem.